K-State started a new tradition in 2002 as the football program announced the inaugural Ring of Honor Class. The distinction is designed to recognize those in the football program who have distinguished themselves on and off the field. Among the criteria considered is graduation from K-State with a student-athlete having been out of school for at least five years, quality of character, whether the person is an excellent representative of K-State and whether a person has achieved consensus All-America status at K-State. The inaugural 2002 class included Lynn Dickey, Steve Grogan, Jaime Mendez, Sean Snyder, Gary Spani and Veryl Switzer. The Class of 2008 included David Allen, Martin Gramatica, Terence Newman and Mark Simoneau, bringing the total number in the elite fraternity to 10.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Wildcat Strength and Conditioning

Under the direction of head strength and conditioning coach Chris Dawson and assistant strength and conditioning coaches Darren Honeycutt and Corey Meredith, the Kansas State strength and conditioning program is committed to maximizing the on-field performance of every student-athlete. The program, designed by Dawson, combines weight training, plyometrics, stretching and flexibility exercises, running and proper nutrition to enhance each student-athlete's ability to compete. Dawson is a 17-year veteran of the strength training and conditioning field and in 2007 was named the National Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year Award by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

A World-Class Student-Athlete Experience

At Kansas State, being a champion is more than winning trophies on the field or on the court. It is about providing student-athletes a world-class experience which includes being a champion in the classroom, and most importantly, becoming a champion in life. K-State's program of Academic Student Services for Athletics assists, directs, supports and promotes student development, academic achievement, academic athletic eligibility and progress toward graduation. The unit assists student-athletes through its student orientation program, offers academic counseling and academic skills training, assists with developing class schedules and graduation timelines, tracks academic progress and provides tutoring and mentoring services through its superior academic facility for student-athletes - the Academic Learning Center. K-State's Second Wind program also accommodates former student-athletes so that they have the opportunity to earn a degree.

CATS IN THE COMMUNITY

Wildcats in the Community

A lot more goes into being a student-athlete at Kansas State than just working out and going to class. K-State's Life Skills program focuses on encouraging student-athletes to become strong leaders and positive role models. K-State players are also encouraged to get involved in their community and annually participate in a number of service projects throughout the region. The goal of these programs is not only to enhance the student-athlete experience but also to expand character and provide leadership opportunities. By getting involved, K-State players gain a strong sense of self-worth, while experiencing the personal satisfaction that comes from volunteering.

K-State football players serve a number of different programs, many of which focus on the Manhattan region's youth population. From the Read-2-Achieve program to Kats for Kids and Jr. Wildcats and Walkin' With A Wildcat, K-State football players are a consistent presence in the lives of the region's youth. K-State players also take part in the annual Special Olympics, ban with other K-State student-athletes to fight hunger through Cats for Cans, and make a difference in the lives of the region's older population through Senior Cats, a program that is devoted to visiting the area's retirement homes and senior centers.

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY

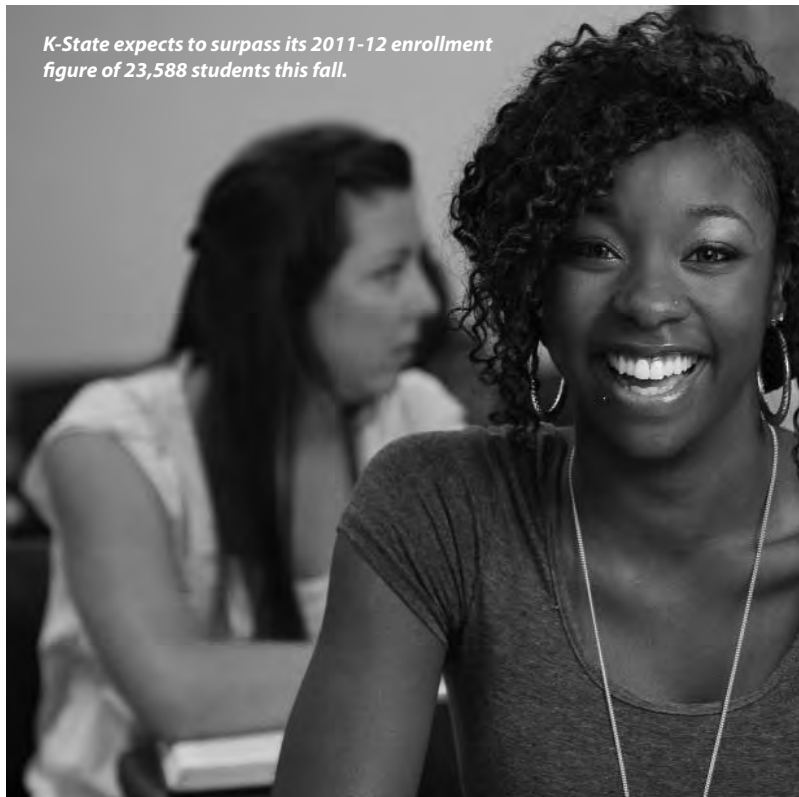

A World-Class Education

One of the nation's elite universities, Kansas State offers a world-class undergraduate education while earning international distinction as a "very high research institution." Kansas State University was founded February 16, 1863, and was the first college in America to be officially designated a land-grant school under the Morrill Act. One of six universities governed by the Kansas Board of Regents, K-State continues to fulfill its historical educational mission in teaching, research and public service. Kansas State is under the leadership of a dynamic president in Dr. Kirk Schulz, whose visionary plan, "K-State 2025," has K-State on track of being recognized nationally as a top 50 public research university. K-State operates a three-campus system, with the main campus located in Manhattan, just two hours west of Kansas City. Additional campuses are located in Salina and in Olathe - one of the largest suburbs of Kansas City. As the state's land-grant university, K-State has extension offices in 105 counties and numerous research farms/facilities throughout the state. The university has nearly 200,000 alumni and friends, half of whom live outside the state of Kansas. K-State is ranked No. 1 in the Big 12 for percentage of Alumni Association membership. In 2009, Kansas State was selected in a national search as the new home of the $650-plus million National Bio and Agro-Defense Facility (NBAF) - adding more than 450 total jobs and 200 white-collar positions to the Manhattan community. K-State has 38 nationally-ranked academic programs and offers more than 250 majors in nine colleges to more than 23,000 students. K-State offers more than 250 majors in nine colleges to more than 23,000 students. K-State is the only research university in the United States to have three national CASE/Carnegie professors of the year.

THE CLASSIC COLLEGE TOWN

The Little Apple

When it comes to classic college towns, the Little Apple ranks among the best. Although considerably smaller than its New York namesake, Manhattan (est. MSA population of nearly 125,000 in 2011) has blossomed into a diversified city with urban amenities while retaining its small-town appeal. CNNMoney.com rates the area as one of the 10 best places in America to retire young. Men's Journal selected Manhattan as one of the 50 best places to live in America, while Manhattan also checked in at No. 91 in Sporting News' annual Best Sports Cities rankings. American Airlines now offers daily round-trip flights between Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport, Chicago O'Hare International Airport and Manhattan Regional Airport, so flights out of and to Manhattan now connect to anywhere in the world. Manhattan also has many appealing places to shop, eat and socialize. An award-winning shopping mall is located in the heart of the downtown region, and Aggieville continues to be particularly popular with students. Around the holidays, Manhattan bustles with activity and last year approximately 15,000 revelers took to the streets of Aggieville to celebrate the Little Apple at the annual New Year's Eve ball drop.

CONTINUED SUCCESS

With 17 returning starters - the most since 2006 - and 42 total letterwinners back from a 10-3 campaign, K-State will be looking to build upon its stellar 2011 season.

Perseverance was the theme for Kansas State in 2011. A team that was projected to finish eighth in the Big 12, K-State won a national record eight games decided by seven points or less en route to a second-place finish in the Big 12, a 10-2 regular-season record and a berth in the 2012 Cotton Bowl.

The perseverance began in the opening game with a 33-yard go-ahead touchdown pass from Collin Klein to Chris Harper with 1:39 remaining in a 10-7 victory against Eastern Kentucky, and the theme repeated itself on multiple occasions:

- A goal-line stand with less than one minute remaining for a 28-24 win at Miami
- A 31-yard go-ahead field goal by Anthony Cantele with 3:10 left and a fourth-down hold with 1:08 remaining in a 36-35 victory against eventual Heisman Trophy Winner Robert Griffin III and No. 15 Baylor
- Ten points in the final six minutes of regulation and a Collin Klein touchdown run in the fourth overtime to defeat Texas A&M, 53-50

- Another defensive stop on the final play of the game at Texas in a 17-13 win

- A 26-yard touchdown run by John Hubert with 3:29 left against Iowa State to break a 23-23 tie en route to a seven-point victory

Yes, perseverance lifted the Wildcats to heights they had not seen in nearly 10 years. What will be the theme for the 2012 Wildcats, a team that returns 42 letterwinners, including 17 starters? That remains to be seen.

What we do know is that it may be tougher than ever to duplicate the feat set in 2011 as the Big 12 Conference welcomes programs on the rise in TCU and West Virginia, both of which are road games for the Wildcats in 2012.

Then again, if K-State shows the same commitment, unity, toughness, enthusiasm, leadership and expectation to win — among other characteristics — that it showed in 2011, the Wildcats believe that even greater things are in store.

◀ All-American Quarterback Collin Klein

OFFENSE

Eight starters return on offense, but for the second-straight season, Kansas State must replace three starting offensive linemen in Zach Hanson (left tackle), Colten Freeze (right guard) and Clyde Aufner (right tackle), but center B.J. Finney and left guard Nick Puetz are back for another season together up the middle.

The two returners and three replacements will have the comfort of knowing the Wildcats bring back their experienced backfield in quarterback Collin Klein and running back John Hubert, while fullback Braden Wilson is back to lead the way for a K-State squad that relied heavily on the running attack.

K-State also returns both regular tight ends in Travis Tannahill and Andre McDonald, while both regular starters at wide receiver — Chris Harper and Tyler Lockett — along with returning letterwinners Tramaine Thompson and Curry Sexton, hope to elevate the aerial attack.

Also remaining intact for a fourth-straight season is the offensive coaching staff as co-offensive coordinators Dana Dimel and Del Miller are back to direct the running and passing game, respectively. Charlie Dickey enters his fourth season tutoring the Wildcat offensive lineman, while former K-State receiver Michael Smith begins his 16th year in Manhattan coaching the receivers.

QUARTERBACKS

For the first time since Bill Snyder's return to the sideline in 2009, there is a clear-cut starter at quarterback entering fall camp. And after the year that Collin Klein put together in 2011, it's a no-brainer that he will be under center for his senior year in 2012. All Klein did was break the FBS quarterback record with 27 rushing touchdowns, run for 1,141 yards and throw for 1,918 yards and 13 touchdowns en route to All-America honors and, to some, consideration for the Heisman Trophy.

Defenses will certainly game plan for Klein's rushing abilities, but many around the K-State program know he has improved his passing game and become a true dual-threat quarterback. Klein has also been a team leader throughout his career and that increased last season as he showed toughness by always getting off the ground after taking big hits throughout his Big 12-leading 317 rushing attempts.

Although the starting nod at quarterback is all but decided, there will still be a battle at the position in the fall as freshmen Daniel Sams and Tavarious Bender compete for the backup spot. Sams, a redshirt freshman from Slidell, La., entered K-State after being named one of the top prep quarterbacks in the state, and he benefited from a redshirt season behind Klein in 2011. Bender is a true freshman that graduated high school a semester early to participate in practices last spring. A mobile quarterback like Klein and Sams, Bender was the No. 1 overall player in the state of Nebraska out of high school and was ranked in the top 100 nationally among quarterbacks.

RUNNING BACKS

As is the case with the quarterback position, the starting nod at running back is surely to go to last year's starter in junior John Hubert, who started 12 of 13 games in 2011. Hubert, who is two yards shy of becoming K-State's 25th career 1,000-yard rusher, was an excellent complement to Klein in the running game as he accounted for 970 yards and three touchdowns on 200 carries. A preseason All-Big 12 selection by multiple publications, Hubert broke the 100-yard barrier on three occasions, including a career-high 166-yard performance to help the Wildcats defeat Miami. A product of Waco, Texas, Hubert was also vital to the passing game as he hauled in 24 passes for 188 yards, including a touchdown against No. 15 Baylor.

Senior Angelo Pease was also used in a multitude of ways, including his primary spot as the "Wildcat" back. A former community-college transfer, Pease totaled 144 yards on the ground and scored a pair of touchdowns. Pease will be a nice change of pace from Hubert.

Also probable to see time at running back is junior Robert Rose, who played in four games a year ago, including a 29-yard effort against Kent State. Sophomore DeMarcus Robinson, along with freshmen Charles Jones and Jarvis Leverett, will add depth to the running back position.

Paving the way for the running backs for a fourth-straight year will be fullback Braden Wilson. A bruising 6-foot-4, 254-pound player, Wilson was the lead blocker for Daniel Thomas, who was drafted two years ago, as well as Collin Klein and John Hubert last season. Wilson is also skilled with the football as he has 15 career rushes with one touchdown and 13 career receptions for 110 yards.

Jarvis Leverett (5-11, 200, Fr.)

WIDE RECEIVERS

Another experienced group, Kansas State brings back both of its regular starters at wide receiver and five total receivers that caught at least five passes in 2011. Senior Chris Harper will lead the group again after pacing the Wildcats in catches (40), yards (547) and touchdowns (5). A product of Wichita, Kan., that transferred from Oregon prior to the 2009 season, Harper registered a career high 134 yards against Texas A&M last year and will figure to be one of the top targets of quarterback Collin Klein in 2012.

A 2011 Walter Camp All-American as a kick returner, Tyler Lockett also made an impact as a true freshman in 2011 in the passing game as he hauled in 18 catches for 246 yards and three touchdowns, but he missed the final four games of the year due to injury. Almost a mirror image of Lockett in size and stature is Tramaine Thompson, who has made progress in each of the last two seasons as both a receiver and returner. Thompson finished just ahead of Lockett with 21 receptions for 338 yards and one touchdown, and like Lockett, has the athleticism and speed to make acrobatic catches and break away from a pack.

Curry Sexton saw his playing increase on offense throughout the season, culminating with the Texas A&M contest in which he caught a pair of passes for 33 yards. Also returning is Torell Miller, a former defensive back, who came on towards the end of the season as he caught one pass for 21 yards in the regular-season finale against Iowa State and two passes for 22 yards in the Cotton Bowl against Arkansas.

Also battling for starting duties and adding depth is community-college transfer Marquez Clark, who was a first team All-American last year at Navarro Junior College. Additionally, Kyle Klein is coming off redshirt seasons, while the Wildcats signed Deante Burton.

TIGHT ENDS

Primary tight end starter Travis Tannahill enters his senior season, while Andre McDonald, who saw significant time as a sophomore last year, is also back. The duo combined for 240 yards and two touchdowns on 19 catches. Tannahill hauled in a three-year touchdown pass at Miami, helping the Wildcats defeat the Hurricanes, and he also caught a 34-yard pass that led to a touchdown against Texas A&M. McDonald was also vital in the victory over Miami as he threw off multiple would-be tacklers in a 34-yard catch and run, while he caught a three-yard touchdown pass just before halftime of the Cotton Bowl.

Providing depth at the position is sophomore Zach Trujillo, who saw action in 12 games with a start at Oklahoma State. Zach Nemechek also played in 12 games, mainly on special teams, but will also battle for playing time at tight end.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Experience returns along the offensive line in sophomore center B.J. Finney and senior left guard Nick Puetz. Finney started all 13 games last year as a redshirt freshman, including 12 at center. A preseason candidate for the Rimington Award, Finney was named a Freshman All-American by multiple publications as he helped pave the way for Collin Klein and John Hubert. Puetz, who sat out in 2010 after transferring from Wyoming, started each of the final 12 games of the year at left guard and looks to hold down the position again.

Cornelius Lucas will likely get the first crack at starting duties at left tackle after playing the position as a reserve in 12 games, and the sophomore will be competing against junior William Cooper. On the right side of the offensive line, redshirt freshmen Boston Stiverson and Cody Whitehair emerged through spring practices at guard and tackle, respectively, and both will likely run with the No. 1 unit when fall practice begins. Junior Keenan Taylor, who saw time in 11 games last year, will battle Stiverson for starting duties at right guard, while community-college transfer Tavon Rooks could make an impact and challenge Whitehair at right tackle.

Drew Liddle (6-3, 288, So.)

DEFENSE

Six starters return on the defensive side of the ball, but many of the key players to last year's team return, including Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year Arthur Brown and Walter Camp All-American Nigel Malone. The Wildcats return five of their top eight tacklers from last season, including Brown's 101 stops. The top TFL and sack recorder from last year, Meshak Williams, is back, along with Malone's Big 12-leading seven interceptions.

There are big shoes to fill along the defensive front as starters Jordan Voelker (end) and Ray Kibble (tackle) graduated last year, along with reserve tackle Raphael Guidry, who blocked five kicks a year ago. However, due to the depth of the position in 2011, K-State should be able to fill the starting roles with seniors across the board. The Wildcats also lost seniors David Garrett at cornerback, who was the team's second-leading tackler, and Tysyn Hartman, a four-year starter at safety.

Also being replaced is the spot of defensive coordinator as Tom Hayes, who also directs the defensive backs, was elevated prior to the spring. Joe Bob Clements returns for his 11th year to tutor the defensive ends and was named the defensive run game coordinator entering the season. Mo Latimore, the longest-tenured assistant coach in the Big 12, enters his 29th year overall at K-State and his 14th consecutive year coaching the defensive linemen. Mike Cox came to Manhattan from Washington following the 2011 season and fills the role as the linebackers coach.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Kansas State should feel confident about its defensive ends as Adam Davis and Meshak Williams — both Preseason All-Big 12 picks by numerous publications — return after combining for 18 tackles for loss and 11 sacks a year ago. Davis started all 13 games in 2011 and looks poised to elevate his game during his senior campaign. Williams could have been considered the “12th man” of the K-State defense last year as he did not start a single contest but notched 10 tackles for loss and seven sacks, which tied him for sixth in the Big 12.

Backing up at defensive end will be redshirt freshman Marquel Bryant, while sophomore Laton Dowling gained experience last season and looks to break into the playing rotation. Also in the mix for playing time is Alauna Finau, a late signee from Cerritos College.

Although K-State might be lacking playing experience at defensive tackle, all four main players battling for playing time at the position are seniors. Vai Lutui burst onto the scene last year as the former community-college transfer started 11 games and was second among K-State's defensive linemen with 34 tackles, and he looks primed to start the season at one of the tackle positions. Javonta Boyd and John Sua played in five and four games, respectively, and both will be battling for starting nods at the other defensive tackle spot.

The Wildcats also return their pass-rush specialist at defensive tackle, Ryan Mueller, who played in every game and continually put pressure on opposing quarterbacks. Also in the mix at tackle will be community-college transfers Wesley Hollingshed, Chaquill Reed and Hakeem Akinola, while true freshman Travis Britz could get an early look.

A Look at the Defensive Line

LINEBACKERS

Kansas State's leading tackler from a year ago, Arthur Brown, turned in the season that everyone was expecting after sitting out 2010 as a transfer from Miami. Brown, the Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the year last season, carded 101 tackles, including 9.5 for loss. An All-America candidate for 2012, Brown is looking to take another step forward in his development that could make him one of the best linebackers in school history. Backing up Brown at middle linebacker will be Blake Slaughter, a senior that played in 12 games last year.

Brown will have a familiar face beside him at weakside linebacker as two-year starter Tre Walker enters his junior campaign in 2012. Just like Brown, Walker was all over the field for the Wildcats last season as he made 52 stops and almost single-handedly won the game at Miami last year with four of the last seven tackles, including the goal-line stop. Jonathan Truman, who saw time in 13 games last year and made 17 stops on both defense and special teams, will get the first crack to back up Walker, while redshirt freshman Mike Moore will battle for playing time as well.

K-State lost the services of Emmanuel Lamur at strongside linebacker, but the Wildcats do have viable options to replace him in seniors Jarell Childs and Justin Tuggle. Both former offensive players, Childs made the transition from running back to linebacker prior to the 2010 season and has been a reserve linebacker and key special teams player each of the last two years as he looks to become a starter for the first time in his career. Tuggle, a former quarterback at Boston College and Blinn College, moved to linebacker during preparations for the Cotton Bowl and has grasped the position well. Son of former NFL linebacker Jessie Tuggle, Justin had a solid spring game as he attempts to make the switch from quarterback to linebacker a successful one.

Also in the mix at linebacker and players that could be key contributors on special teams are sophomores Tate Snyder and Cody Marley, along with true freshman Will Davis.

A Look at the Linebackers

Cody Marley (5-11, 201, So.)
Will Davis (6-1, 213, Fr.)

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Half of the regular starters in the secondary are gone from last year, but two key parts to the Wildcats' success in 2011 are back, while depth from last year will take on a bigger role in 2012. Cornerback Nigel Malone enters his senior season after recording one of the best years in school history at defensive back. All the community-college transfer did was pick off seven passes to lead the Big 12 and rank third nationally en route to All-Big 12 honors. Malone, a Preseason All-America selection, will look to duplicate those feats in 2012 but may not get as many opportunities as the book is out on him and K-State lost a proven cornerback in David Garrett on the other side.

Trying to replace Garrett will be Allen Chapman, another community-college transfer last year that saw an increased role as the season progressed. Chapman was the team's eighth-leading tackler with 50 stops and he broke up four passes to go along with his 60-yard interception return for a touchdown at No. 3 Oklahoma State. Also competing for playing time at corner will be Kip Daily, a former community-college transfer that redshirted last year, and freshman Randall Evans.

Ty Zimmerman, a former high school quarterback turned safety, returns for his third year of starting duties at free safety. Zimmerman was the Wildcats' fifth-leading tackler a year ago with 58 stops, and he also picked off two passes and broke up five others. Next to Zimmerman in the defensive backfield will likely be senior Thomas Ferguson. A reserve player over his career, Ferguson has played in 34 career games and will receive the first opportunity to replace Tysyn Hartman at strong safety.

Also in the mix at safety will be senior Jarard Milo, a former community-college transfer walk on that played in 12 games last year, and freshman Morgan Burns. The Cats also signed community-college transfer Kent Gainous, a player that could also get a look at safety right away.

SPECIALISTS

K-State's special teams were outstanding a year ago due to the kick-off-return unit — led by Tyler Lockett — and punt-return team — led by Tramaine Thompson — but the Wildcats also benefitted from great years by kicker Anthony Cantele and punter Ryan Doerr. Cantele, an All-Big 12 player last year, made 17 field goals, including four from 40 yards or greater while connecting on 48-of-49 extra points and handling all kickoff duties. Battling to back up Cantele will be senior Brandon Klimek and Cantele's younger brother, Jack.

Doerr, who enters the season sixth in school history in career yardage and eighth in career average, is entering his fourth year as the Wildcats' regular punter. A candidate for the 2011 Ray Guy Award, Doerr averaged 40.8 yards on 67 punts last year, including eight that sailed 50 or more yards and 14 that were downed inside the 20. Backing up Doerr will be Mark Krause, who transferred from Missouri Southern prior last year.

Marcus Heit, a junior, handled snaps for punts and field goals last season and was perfect on all 128. He will be challenged by sophomore Dalton Converse, who was the long snapper against Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl.

Sean Snyder returns for his 18th overall season on the staff, including his fourth as the associate head coach and second as the special teams coordinator.

SCHEDULE

Seven home games, including a non-conference matchup against Miami, highlight the 2012 Kansas State schedule. For a second-straight season, K-State will open the year with four of five games at home as it begins 2012 against Missouri State on September 1, a team the Wildcats defeated, 48-24, in 2010.

The Hurricanes came calling to Manhattan on September 8, and will surely be looking for revenge against the Wildcats after last year's game in Miami. In 2011, Miami looked primed to take the lead with under a minute to go as it had 1st and Goal on the K-State 2 yard line, but a goal-line stance, including a tackle by Tre Walker just shy of the goal line, proved to be the difference in a 28-24 victory.

Following a non-conference game against North Texas on September 15, the Cats open Big 12 play in 2012 at league favorite Oklahoma on September 22. K-State will then enjoy a bye week before hosting in-state rival Kansas, the first time the Jayhawks will visit Manhattan since 2009.

K-State will make its first trip to Ames, Iowa, since 2007 on October 13, to face Iowa State before traveling to Morgantown, W.Va., on October 20, to take on West Virginia, the first of two newcomers to the Big 12 Conference. It will be the first matchup between the Wildcats and Mountaineers since K-State traveled to Morgantown in 1930 and 1931.

The Wildcats, who made trips to Texas Tech in 2009 and 2011, will host the Red Raiders on October 27, as Texas Tech visits Manhattan for the first time since 2008. K-State will battle Oklahoma State on November 3, in Manhattan. Kansas State is looking to make amends for a close 52-45 loss last season in Stillwater. The Wildcats kept up with the third-ranked Cowboys and tried to hand OSU its first defeat of the season but came up just short as Oklahoma State held inside its own 10-yard line as time expired.

K-State will travel to face its second Big 12 newcomer in TCU on November 10, a game that begins a stretch of three-straight against teams from the state of Texas to close out the season. The Wildcats and Horned Frogs will meet for the first time since 1986.

Following a close 36-35 victory over No. 15 Baylor last year, K-State will travel to Waco, Texas, to face the Bears on November 17. Following their second bye week, the Wildcats conclude the regular season at home on December 1, against Texas, a team K-State has defeated four-straight times.

BILL SNYDER

*21st Season
at K-State*

currently ranked
11th Nationally in Wins among active FBS coaches

The 2009 season saw one of the greatest legends in college football return to the sidelines in hopes of revitalizing a program that he once built, piece by piece, into a national force. And, after three seasons back in charge, Bill Snyder is well on his way to doing just that.

The architect of the "greatest turnaround in the history of college football" Bill Snyder returned to lead the Kansas State football program in 2009 after 17 ultra-successful seasons as the head coach from 1989-2005. And, following a 7-5 campaign in 2010 and a berth in the inaugural Pinstripe Bowl, the Wildcats climbed to heights only previously seen under Snyder as the Wildcats went 10-3 in 2011, finished No. 8 in the final BCS standings and earned their first Cotton Bowl invitation since 2001.

In 2011, Snyder's Wildcats jumped out to a 7-0 start — the best in 12 years — which included big wins at Miami, against 15th-ranked Baylor and at Texas Tech. Following a two-game skid to a pair of nationally-ranked teams, the Wildcats got back into the win column with a thrilling four-overtime victory over Texas A&M before ending the year with wins at Texas and against Iowa State.

For his efforts in 2011, Snyder was named the Woody Hayes National Coach of the Year, as well as picking up national coaching honors from Sporting News, Rivals.com and CBSSports.com, and the Big 12 Coach of the Year by the AP and Big 12 Coaches. He also tutored 11 players to All-Big 12 honors, including Defensive Newcomer of the Year Arthur Brown and Offensive Freshman of the Year and Walter Camp All-Americans Tyler Lockett and Nigel Malone.

Named the 32nd head football coach at K-State on Nov. 30, 1988, and again as the 34th on Nov. 24, 2008, Snyder has amassed a 159-82-1 (.662) record during his tenure with the Wildcats, including an 89-64-1 (.581) mark in Big 8/12 games. His 159 victories are the 11th-most among active FBS coaches and are more than triple the man in second place on K-State's all-time coaching victories list.

In 2010, Snyder's Wildcats jumped out to a 5-1 start, which included big wins over UCLA, Conference USA Champion UCF and Iowa State, behind All-Big 12 running back Daniel Thomas, who became the fastest Wildcat in school history (in terms of games) to rush for 1,000 yards.

K-State would then dominate rival Kansas and closed out the home schedule with a convincing 39-14 win over Texas to become bowl-eligible.

Eight Wildcats would earn All-Big 12 honors in 2010 with Thomas and William Powell, who led the nation in kick returns, garnering first team honors.

In his first season back as the head man of the Wildcat program, Snyder led the Wildcats to a 6-6 record in 2009 and a second place finish in the Big 12 North. In fact, K-State was just one win away from advancing to the Big 12 Championship game as the Wildcats played at Nebraska in the season finale with a championship game berth on the line. Not bad for a program that was picked by most pre-season publications to finish fifth or even sixth in the 2009 Big 12 North race.

K-State claimed more First Team All-Big 12 selections on offense than any other school with four last season. Big 12 Newcomer of the Year Daniel Thomas led the league in rushing in his first year at the position, while Nick Stringer, Jeron Mastrud and Brandon Banks also garnered first team All-Big 12 accolades.

But to fully understand the turnaround ushered in by Snyder at Kansas State one must only consider that the Wildcats were in the midst of an 0-26-1 run when he was hired. It also took K-State 51 seasons (1938-1988) to total just 130 wins, while the 12 head coaches prior to Snyder's arrival in Manhattan combined to win just 116 games from 1945-1988.

Snyder led Kansas State to 11 straight bowl berths between the 1993 and 2003 seasons, making K-State one of only seven programs in the nation to appear in the postseason every year during that stretch. During that span, Snyder's Wildcats won nearly 80 percent of their games, chalking up 109 victories - a staggering average of nearly 10 wins per season - and making Kansas State the nation's second-winningest program over that period.

And Snyder continued to break new ground with the Wildcats. Kansas State's 35-7 victory over top-ranked Oklahoma in the 2003 Big 12 Championship game lifted K-State to its first conference championship since Pappy Waldorf's 1934 squad and secured the school's first BCS bowl berth in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

With an 11-4 record in 2003, K-State was the only team in the country to win 11 games in six of the previous seven years and just the second program in the history of college football to win 11 games six times in a seven-year stretch.

Snyder's unprecedented success in 20 years at Kansas State has not gone unnoticed. He has been named the National Coach of the Year on four occasions (1991, 1994, 1998 and 2011). He has been a finalist for the prestigious Bear Bryant/FWAA National Coach of the Year Award in 1993, 1995 and 2011 before winning in 1998; a finalist for the Football News National Coach of the Year Award in 1995 and 1998; and a finalist for the AFCA National Coach of the Year Award in 1993 and 1998.

In 1993, he joined legendary Nebraska head coach Bob Devaney as the only head coaches in Big Eight history to be named Associated Press Big Eight Coach of the Year three times in a four-year period (1990, 1991 and 1993). The Houston Chronicle named him the 1996 Big 12 Coach of the Year, while he earned 1997 and 1998 Big 12 Coach of the Year honors from the Kansas City Star. Snyder also was the 1998 Big 12 Coach of the Year by the AP and by a vote of league coaches before earning the league coaches' support again in 2002. The 2003 season brought more honors, including Big 12 Coach of the Year accolades from the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and ESPN.com.

Since the inception of the Big 12 Conference, Snyder's Wildcats truly became a dominant force in the league, ranking in the top three in overall Big 12 wins during his first tenure. Kansas State also won more Big 12 road games than any team in the league and advanced to the championship game three times.

Those facts alone demonstrate the continuing evolution of a power in the Big 12 Conference and with it the recognition that Snyder is truly one of the finest coaches in college football today.

The list of accomplishments Snyder has amassed in his 20 years is as endless as the time most people thought it would take for the Wildcats to be a consistent threat in the Big Eight, and now, Big 12 Conference.

Like so many in recent history, the 2003 campaign was a dramatically successful one for K-State, which ended the regular season with seven straight wins, a fourth Big 12 North title, its first Big 12 Championship and another top-20 finish.

But the 2003 season was not without its bumps in the road as the Wildcats overcame their share of adversity to produce perhaps the greatest season in school history. Ranked as high as No. 6 nationally in the early going, a key injury to quarterback Eli Roberson precipitated a three-game slide that threatened to wipe out a promising season.

The three losses all but erased K-State from the national consciousness, as the Wildcats slipped out of the both polls for the first time since the second game of the 2002 season. But Snyder was not about to allow the year to spiral out of control. He constantly reminded his players that they still controlled their own destiny, and if they could just go 1-0 each week the season would take care of itself and the team would ultimately achieve its goals.

And like everything Snyder seems to touch, this strategy too worked, as the Wildcats rode their 1-0 mantra week after week all the way to a berth in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

Along the way, five different Wildcats were lauded for their efforts with All-America honors, including K-State's first Associated Press first team All-American running back, Darren Sproles, who finished fifth in voting for the Heisman Trophy, was the Doak Walker Award runner-up and finished third on the AP's Player of the Year ballot.

But Sproles was the lone player with star power that returned for the 2004 campaign. And though the little tank produced yet another record-breaking season capped by his third-straight selection to an All-Big 12 team, the lack of experience was one reason K-State struggled through a 4-7 rebuilding campaign.

The 2002 season was one of the best in Kansas State history, witnessed by the Wildcats' five-victory turnaround from the previous year's 6-6 team to a win in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl and an 11-2 overall record.

In addition, the 2002 Wildcats set or tied 45 school records, including tying the mark for wins in a season.

Snyder's Wildcats finished the season with six consecutive victories, including the biggest wins in the history of the series in each of a three-week span against Kansas, Iowa State and Nebraska.

The Wildcats' dominant play down the stretch of the 2002 season earned Snyder the recognition of his peers as the Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year.

In 2001, Snyder directed one of the best in-season turnarounds in school history. Despite losing four straight in the middle of the year and facing the fourth-toughest schedule in the nation, the Wildcats recovered to win four of their last five games to end the regular season with a 6-5 record and a berth in the Insight.com Bowl.

Despite the record, the quality of players produced by the Snyder-led coaching staff continued to attract national attention from those who best know the game.

Six Kansas State players were selected in the 2002 NFL Draft, the most of any team in the Big 12 Conference, with only six schools in the country having more players picked in the draft.

The Wildcats started the 2000 season ranked in the Top 10 for just the second time in school history and made a four-week run into the Top 5 that saw K-State climb as high as No. 2 in the nation. K-State won the Big 12 North Division for the second time in three years and earned at least a share of the title for the third consecutive season. K-State had six players named first team All-Big 12 by the coaches, and PK Jamie Rheem, DT Mario Fatafeh and WR Quincy Morgan were All-Americans.

The 1999 season saw the Wildcats climb from No. 20 in the preseason poll to finish at No. 6, after starting the season with nine straight victories, and win 11 games for the third straight year. K-State tied Nebraska for the Wildcats' second consecutive Big 12 North Division Championship. All this came in what many thought would be a rebuilding season. K-State led the conference in first team picks with seven.

The Sporting News ranked Snyder one of the top coaches in college football in 2011

In 1998, Snyder led K-State to its second straight 11-win season and a No. 4 ranking in the final regular season polls. In November, K-State occupied a No. 1 ranking in a national poll for the first time in school history. The Wildcats won the Big 12 Conference North Division and advanced to a bowl game for the sixth year in a row. K-State won its first 11 games of the season and ran its winning streak to a school-record 20 games before falling to Texas A&M in the Big 12 Championship game. Quarterback Michael Bishop became the first Wildcat to be a finalist for the Heisman Trophy, and a total of six K-Staters earned All-America honors.

Snyder earned National Coach of the Year honors from the Walter Camp Foundation, the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Foundation, the Associated Press, the Paul "Bear" Bryant Award and the Schutt Sports Group.

In 1997, Snyder led the Wildcats to their first 11-win season in school history, a No. 7 final ranking and the first 10-win regular season since 1910. It was just the third 10-win season in 102 years of K-State football. Kansas State won a school-record seven conference games, finishing second in the North to undefeated and national champion Nebraska.

The Wildcats defeated South Division champion Texas A&M, 36-17. The season ended with a 35-18 win over Big East Conference champion Syracuse in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, with an estimated 50,000 K-State fans attending K-State's first-ever Alliance Bowl.

The 1996 season saw K-State finish with a 9-3 record, while more than 45,000 Wildcat fans painted Dallas purple for the Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl, K-State's first-ever New Year's Day Bowl. Despite a 19-15 loss to No. 5 BYU, the support and respect for the K-State program grew to unprecedented heights.

In 1995, Snyder guided K-State to a 10-2 record, including a 5-2 Big Eight mark to tie for second place behind national champion Nebraska. Following a 54-21 blitzing of WAC champion Colorado State in the 1995 Holiday Bowl, the Wildcats finished the season ranked sixth in the USA Today/CNN coaches poll and seventh in the Associated Press poll. Both rankings were the highest ever attained by a Kansas State football team to that point.

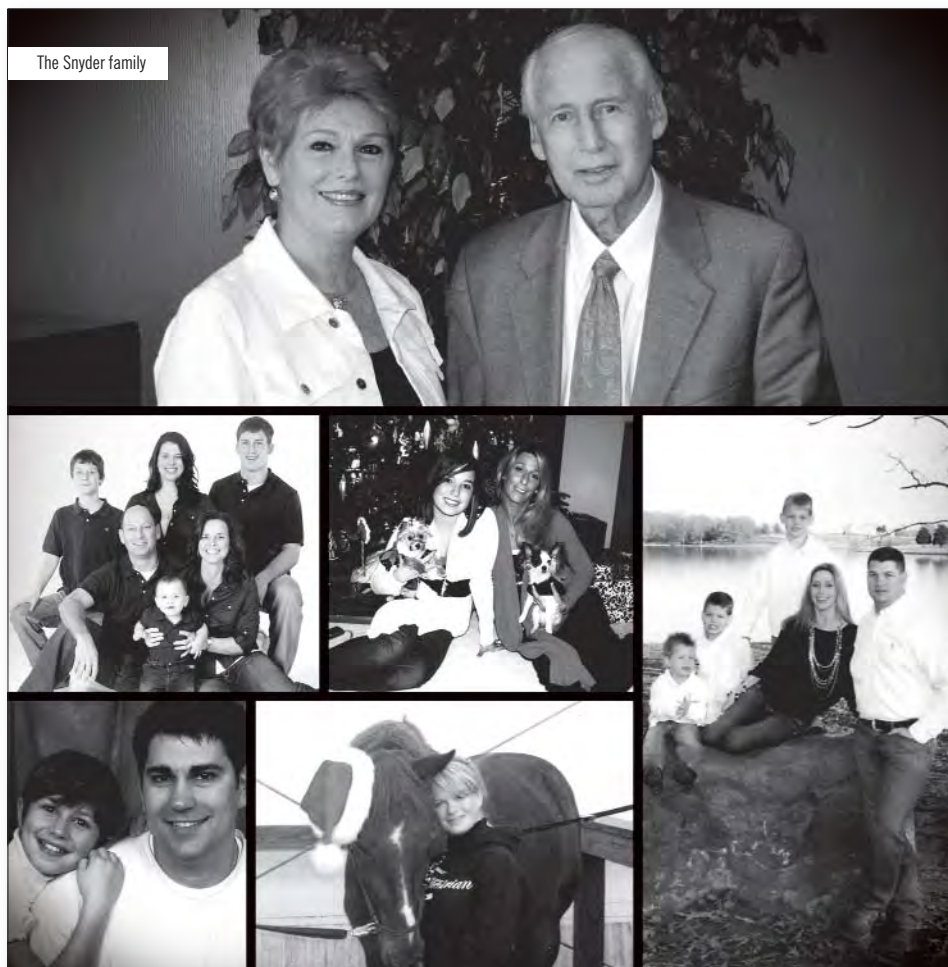

In 1995, the Wildcats finished tied for second in the Big Eight and their 5-2 league mark gave K-State two consecutive 5-2 Big Eight seasons. In the last three years of the Big Eight, the Wildcats defeated or tied every team in the league except Nebraska. Since the inception of the Big 12 in 1996, K-State is 53-27 in league games under Snyder (10 seasons).

In 1993, Snyder guided K-State to its first bowl win in school history and, in 1994, the Wildcats cracked the Top 10 for the first time in school history. In 1998, the K-State achieved a No. 1 national ranking in one of the major polls for the first time in the program's history.

Individually, Snyder produced 45 different All-Americans during his 17 years as head coach, including nine consensus first-team All-Americans: in 1992 (P Sean Snyder), 1993 (FS Jaime Mendez), 1995 (CB Chris Canty), 1996 (Canty), 1997 (PK Martin Gramatica), 1998 (PR David Allen), 1999 (LB Mark Simoneau) and 2002 (CB Terence Newman).

Newman became the third Wildcat to win a national award when he was voted the 2002 Thorpe Award, given to the top collegiate defensive back. Gramatica was the 1997 Lou Groza Award winner, the first major award winner in Kansas State history. Quarterback Michael Bishop became the first K-State player to be named a finalist for the Heisman Trophy (finishing as runner-up) while winning the Davey O'Brien Award.

The foundation for K-State's turnaround was laid in 1989 during Snyder's first season in Manhattan. Although the season yielded just a 1-10 record, it became evident to everyone involved in the program that something special was happening.

Most important, Snyder instilled a winning attitude and a healthy dose of self-respect and enthusiasm to a program that had been given up for dead.

In 1990, K-State was one of just four teams in the country to improve its record by four games with a 5-6 mark, including its first Big Eight Conference wins in four seasons with victories over Oklahoma State and Iowa State. Snyder again beat those two schools in 1991, while adding Kansas and Missouri to the list of his Big Eight victims to finish at 7-4 for K-State's first winning season since the Independence Bowl season of 1982. Heavy graduation losses on the offensive side of the ball resulted in a 5-6 mark in 1992, but the Cats were still able to hang their hats on their first perfect home season since 1934.

Of course, it should come as no surprise that Snyder would be this kind of architect for a building program. At Iowa, he played a key role in the renaissance of a Hawkeye program that went from 17 consecutive losing seasons to eight straight bowls. Snyder was the mind behind Iowa's potent offensive attack. The Hawkeye offense ranked first in passing efficiency and third in passing yardage nationally in Snyder's last five years of direction. In his final Iowa season, the Peach Bowl team led the Big Ten, and ranked seventh nationally, with 277 passing yards per game. That team was second in the Big Ten with 416 yards of offense per game. Snyder also served as quarterback coach at Iowa and helped develop some of the best quarterbacks in NCAA history, including NFL players Chuck Long (second in Heisman voting), Mark Vlasic and Chuck Hartlieb, who wrapped up his career as the first Hawkeye to throw for 3,000 yards in back-to-back seasons.

Snyder began his full-time coaching career in 1964 as an assistant at Indio High School in California. In 1966 he served as a graduate assistant at USC under John McKay before returning to become head coach at Indio High School in 1967. He accepted the same position at Santa Ana Foothill High School in 1969, where he stayed until 1973.

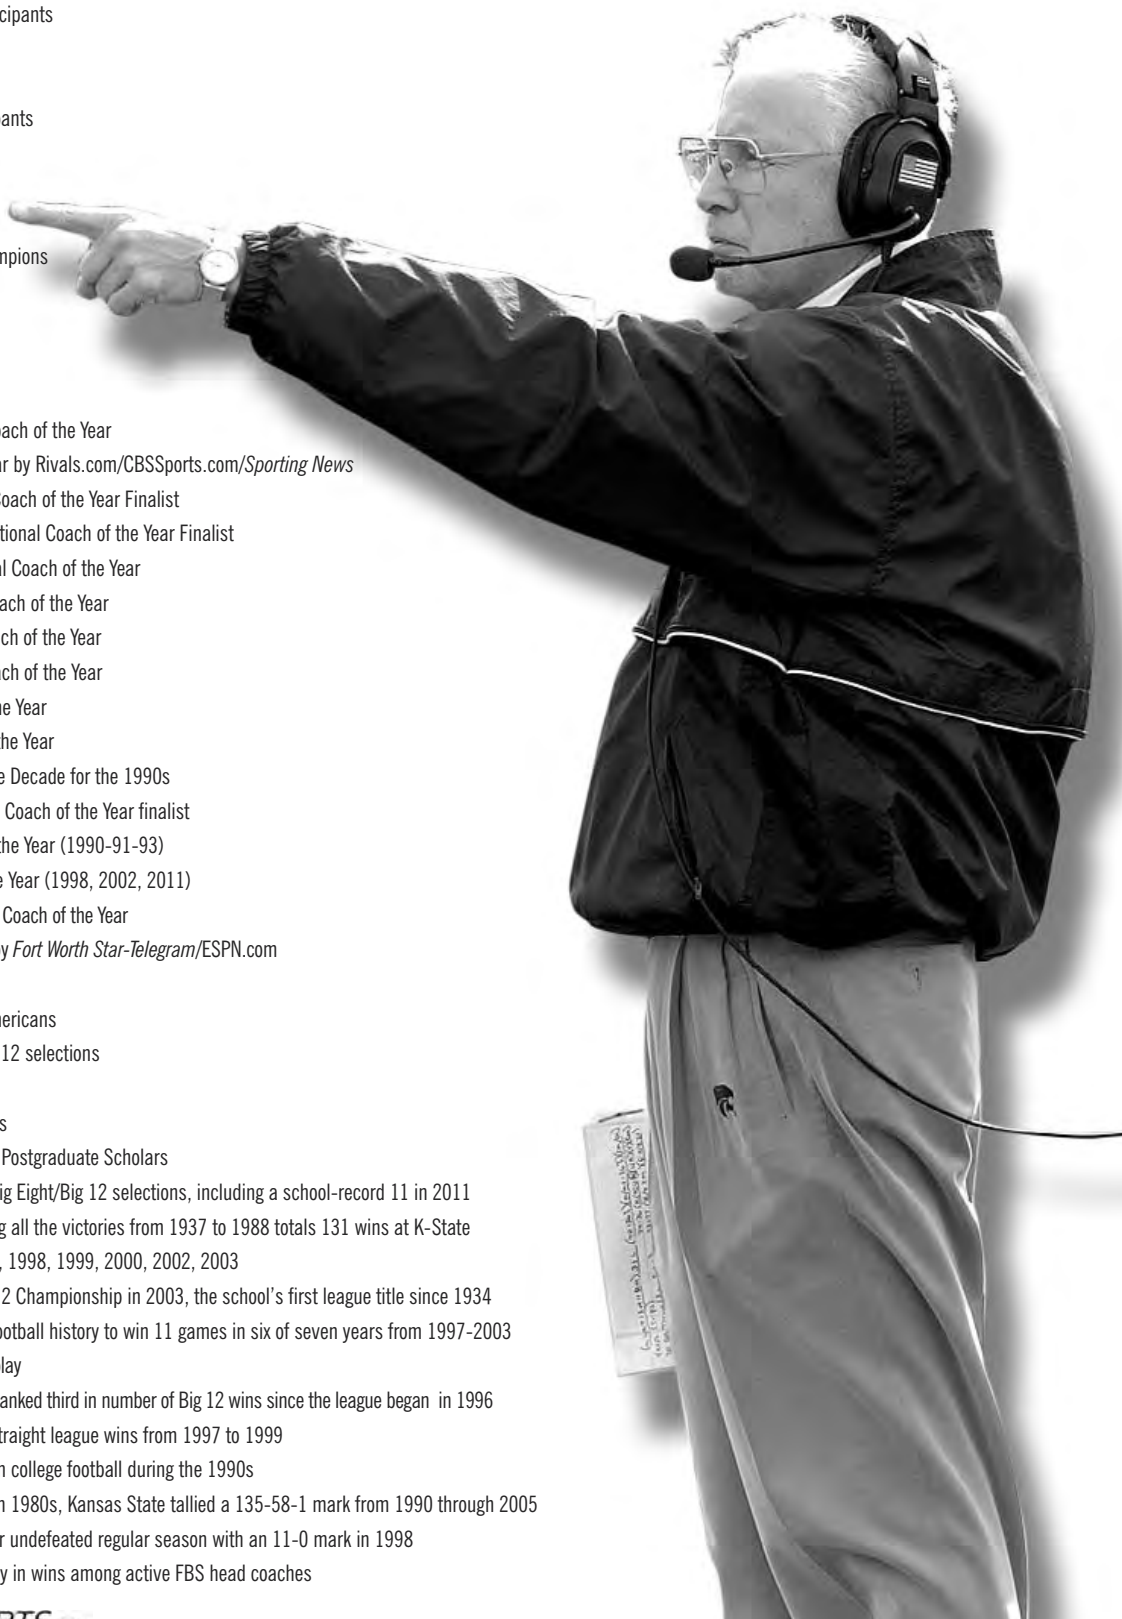

In 1974, Snyder became the offensive coordinator on the football staff and head swimming coach at Austin College in Sherman, Texas. He joined the University of North Texas staff in 1976 and helped author an impressive turnaround with a three-year record of 26-7. He left UNT for Iowa in 1979.

During his three-year hiatus, Snyder remained involved with the university and is currently a member of the Missouri and Kansas Halls of Fame, the K-State and Austin College Athletics Halls of Fame while also being inducted into the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame. The long-time mentor also is the Chairman of the Kansas Mentors Council and the Kansas Leadership Council, a member of the Board of Directors for Kansas Leadership Center, the Board of Trustees for the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame, the KSU Leadership Studies Advancement Council, the Terry C. Johnson Cancer Research Center Advisory Council, the Manhattan Community Foundation Board of Trustees, the KSU Foundation Board of Trustees and is the Honorary Co-Chairman of the Kansas Masonic Partnership for Life. Snyder, 71, received his B.A. from William Jewell in 1963. He earned his M.A. from Eastern New Mexico in 1965. As a player, he was a three-year letterwinner as a defensive back at William Jewell. Snyder and his wife, Sharon, have two sons (Sean and Ross) and three daughters (Shannon, Meredith and Whitney). They also have eight grandchildren, Sydney, Katherine, Tate, Matthew, Alexis, Gavin, Kadin and Tylin, and one great-grandson, D.J.

SEAN SNYDER

*Associate Head Coach/Special Teams Coordinator/Director of Football Operations
18th Year - Kansas State '94*

Former All-American punter and long-time staff member Sean Snyder enters his second season in a full-time coaching role as he coordinates the Wildcat special teams units and serves as Associate Head Coach and Director of Football Operations.

In his first season coordinating the Wildcat special teams, Snyder helped maintain K-State's national prominence in the third phase of the game which included tutoring the nation's leading kickoff returner in Walter Camp All-American Tyler Lockett. Lockett was the lone freshman on the prestigious All-America team in 2011 and took two kicks back for scores while averaging 35.2 yards per return. The Wildcats also ranked among the Big 12's best in punt returns, while place kicker Anthony Cantele was a two-time Big 12 Player of the Week after game-tying or winning field goals against Baylor and Texas A&M and punter Ryan Doerr was a Ray Guy Award candidate. In fact, K-State accumulated a program-best six Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week honors in Snyder's first year with the unit.

The former Consensus All-American enters his 18th year as a member of the Kansas State staff also continues his long-time role as Director of Football Operations, a position he has held the past 16 years.

Snyder received his start as a part-time assistant coach with the Wildcats in 1994 and served in that capacity until 1996, when he began focusing his efforts on the administrative side of the program as the Director of Football Operations.

In 1999, Snyder was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations. He was named Associate Athletics Director in 2001 and Senior Associate Athletics Director in 2010.

A member of Kansas State's inaugural Ring of Honor Class in 2002, Snyder was one of the program's most prolific punters during his playing days at K-State from 1991-92.

As a senior, Snyder earned first team All-America honors from The Associated Press, Kodak and Athlon's after averaging a school-record 44.7 yards per punt. In 1991 he was tapped as the Big Eight Defensive Newcomer of the Year after averaging 40.5 yards in his junior season.

A first team All-Big Eight selection in 1992 after earning honorable-mention honors in 1991, Snyder was also selected to play in the 1992 Blue-Gray Game.

K-State's Special Teams MVP in 1991 and 1992, Snyder held K-State's record for punting average in a career (43.0) before having it broken by James Garcia in 1998, while his 3,572 punting yardage in 1992 still remains a school record.

Following his collegiate career, Snyder signed a free agent contract with the Phoenix Cardinals in 1993 and the following year with the San Diego Chargers.

Sean earned his bachelor's degree from K-State in money and banking in 1994. Married to the former Wanda Boyett, the couple has three children, daughter Katherine, and sons Tate and Matthew, and one grandchild, D.J. Tate is a sophomore linebacker for K-State.

DANA DIMEL

Co-Offensive Coordinator/Running Backs/Tight Ends
15th Year - Kansas State '86

Dana Dimel, a 1986 Kansas State graduate, serves as the co-offensive coordinator and running backs/tight ends coach for head coach Bill Snyder. Dimel began his third tour of duty with the Wildcats in 2009 after serving three seasons on Mike Stoops' staff at Arizona.

Last season, Dimel helped direct a Wildcat offense that saw quarterback Collin Klein burst on to the college football scene with one of the top overall performances by any Wildcat signal caller in school history. En route to 10 wins and a berth in the Cotton Bowl, Klein rushed for a Big 12 and NCAA quarterback record 27 touchdowns and became one of the most valuable players in the nation in 2011. The duo of Klein and running back John Hubert combined for 2,111 yards and 30 touchdowns on the year, while averaging 162.4 yards per game on the ground between the two. K-State averaged over 31 points a game in 2011 and ranked among the nation's top units in rushing and possessing the ball.

In 2010, Dimel co-coordinated a Wildcat offense that ranked third in the Big 12 and among the top 25 nationally at 33.6 points per game. K-State was also ranked among the top 10 teams in the country in total red zone efficiency and No. 1 nationally in TD percentage in the red zone. The Cats' 47-percent conversion rating on third down ranked second in the league, while they were also the least penalized offense in the Big 12.

From 2009-2010, Dimel had the charge of grooming a former junior college quarterback and molding him into a physical running back in the always tough Big 12 Conference. That player was Daniel Thomas and 2,850 yards and 30 touchdowns later, Thomas left Kansas State as a two-time Big 12 rushing champion, an All-American and one of the most decorated running backs in school history. Thomas ranks second in K-State history for career rushing yards, a feat he accomplished in just two seasons, fourth in rushing touchdowns and also finished second in single-season school history with 1,585 rushing yards and 19 touchdowns in 2010. Thomas burst onto the scene in 2009 as he eclipsed the 100-yard mark five times in a game and finished the year with 1,265 rushing yards and 11 touchdowns en route to Big 12 Newcomer of the Year honors.

Dimel joined Stoops' staff in early 2006 in his previous post to coach tight ends and then took on bigger responsibilities calling plays as the running game coordinator and H-backs coach. In 2008, he worked primarily with tight ends and later became running backs coach as well as the associate head coach for the Wildcats. Arizona finished 8-5 in 2008, which included its first bowl win in 10 years after a 31-21 triumph over No. 17 BYU in the Las Vegas Bowl. The Wildcats' top scoring threat in 2008 was Rob Gronkowski, a tight end tutored by Dimel. Gronkowski, despite missing the first three games of the season due to illness, was a unanimous First Team All-PAC-10 selection at tight end after collecting 47 receptions for 672 yards and 10 touchdowns. Gronkowski was drafted by New England in the second round of the 2010 NFL Draft.

A K-State alumnus who lettered for the Wildcats in 1985 and 1986 as an offensive lineman, Dimel spent 10 years on the K-State staff from 1987 to 1996.

Kansas State's offensive line coach for much of his tenure, Dimel also served as offensive coordinator during the 1995 and 1996 campaigns. In 1995, his first at the controls of the Wildcat offense, Kansas State set school records for both touchdowns and total points as well as total offense. During Dimel's first coaching tenure at K-State, he mentored 11 offensive linemen who went on to sign NFL contracts. He was also instrumental in developing All-Americans Barrett Brooks, Jim Hmielewski and Quentin Neujahr along with all-league selections Jason Johnson, Todd Weiner and Ryan Young.

In 1997, Dimel became the youngest head coach in NCAA Division I when he was named head coach at the University of Wyoming at the age of 35. Dimel spent three years at Wyoming, guiding the Cowboys to an impressive 23-12 overall record, and left Laramie as one of only 10 head coaches at the time to win no fewer than seven games in every year as a head coach.

Considered one of the nation's most successful young head coaches at the time, Dimel led the Cowboys to eight-win seasons in both 1997 and 1998 before being named head coach at the University of Houston, where he guided the Cougars' football program from 2000-2002. While at Houston, his 2001 and 2002 recruiting classes were ranked No. 1 in Conference USA by Rivals.com. In his final season at Houston, Dimel's team finished 5-7, including a final-game win over conference champion Louisville. Also, running back Jeffery Reynolds set the Conference USA rushing mark of 1,545 yards. Dimel also had three players earn Academic All-America distinction at Wyoming, including linebacker Brian Lee, who was also a Consensus All-American linebacker.

During his career as a head or assistant coach, Dimel has coached 34 players who have gone on to play in the NFL. A native of Columbus, Ohio, Dimel and his wife, Julie, have a son, Winston, and a daughter, Josey.

Tom Hayes, a 30-year coaching veteran with experience at both the collegiate and professional levels, joined the Wildcat coaching staff in 2011 and will take over as defensive coordinator in 2012 after making an immediate impact on the staff.

In his first season on head coach Bill Snyder's staff, Hayes tutored a Wildcat secondary that proved to be one of the best units in the Big 12 and a key component in K-State's 10-3 season. Junior defensive back Nigel Malone earned Walter Camp All-American honors in 2011 after leading the Big 12 with seven interceptions, while Malone, David Garrett, Tysyn Hartman and Ty Zimmerman all earned All-Big 12 honors this past season. Also, K-State ranked second in the Big 12 and among the best in the nation in turnover margin as the Wildcats forced a total of 27 takeaways for a +12 margin, while ranking second as a team in interceptions with 18.

Hayes, a University of Iowa graduate who also has extensive Big 8 and Big 12 coaching ties, has 23 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level, seven seasons in the NFL ranks and has been a part of 14 bowl games, including eight at UCLA, two at Texas A&M, three at Oklahoma and last year's Cotton Bowl berth at K-State.

Hayes spent the 2010 season on Bob Toledo's staff at Tulane where he coached the defensive secondary and tutored First Team All-Conference USA cornerback Phillip Davis. Davis, who became Tulane's first all-conference first team selection on defense since 2005, ranked eighth nationally in 2010 and tops in Conference USA with 15 passes defended.

He also served on the New Orleans Saints staff as a defensive backs coach for two seasons in 2006 and 2007. Hayes molded a group of young players and veterans into key contributors in New Orleans as the Saints possessed the NFC's top-ranked pass defense in 2006.

In New Orleans, the Saints gave up just 178.4 passing yards per game in 2006, leading the conference and ranking third in the NFL. The Saints held eight different offenses to under 160 yards passing that season - including two under 100 yards.

During his career, Hayes has served as defensive coordinator at BCS institutions Stanford, UCLA, Oklahoma and Kansas, and now K-State, and also coached the defensive backs for the Washington Redskins for five years.

Hayes has been a part of teams that have compiled a 10-4 record in bowl games throughout his career - including three Rose Bowl victories - and has coached 27 defensive backs who moved on to NFL rosters, including five first-round draft picks.

Prior to arriving at Stanford in 2005, Hayes spent the 2001 season at Kansas. He was the Jayhawks' defensive coordinator and secondary coach and was interim head coach for the final three games of the season.

Hayes spent the 1995-1999 seasons coaching the secondary for the Redskins under Norv Turner. A list of the NFL standouts Hayes has worked with includes CBs Darrell Green, Cris Dishman and Champ Bailey while with the Redskins. At UCLA, Hayes was a key part of establishing the school's history of NFL-bound safeties by tutoring Kenny Easley, Don Rogers, James Washington, Eric Turner and Carnell Lake. In his stint at Texas A&M, Hayes coached CB Kevin Smith.

Hayes coached under Gary Gibbs at the University of Oklahoma for four years (1991-94), under College Football Hall of Fame inductee R.C. Slocum at Texas A&M for two years (1989-90) and under Terry Donahue at UCLA for nine seasons (1980-88).

At Oklahoma, Hayes was the defensive coordinator and secondary coach. He helped the Sooners to a pair of nine-win seasons and three bowl games, including a win over Virginia in the 1991 Gator Bowl and a victory over Texas Tech in the '93 Hancock Bowl.

He was the Assistant Head Coach and secondary coach for two seasons at Texas A&M. He helped direct the Aggies to a combined 17-7-1 record and trips to the Hancock Bowl in '89 (lost to Pittsburgh) and the Holiday Bowl in 1990 (victory over BYU).

Hayes worked for nine years as an assistant coach under Donahue at UCLA (1980-88). He was the secondary coach in 1980-81, then was promoted to co-defensive coordinator/secondary coach from '82-88. In nine seasons in Westwood, Hayes was part of a Bruin program that won four Pac-10 Championships, played in three Rose Bowls and eight bowl games overall, went 7-1 in bowl competition and finished among the top-5 nationally five times and among the top-20 eight times. The Bruins never won less than seven games during Hayes' nine-year tenure.

The Bruins went 10-1-1 in 1982 and finished ranked fifth in the nation after beating Michigan in the Rose Bowl. In 1983, UCLA again won the Pac-10 title and beat Illinois in the Rose Bowl. A few years later, in 1985, UCLA went 9-2-1, beat Iowa in the Rose Bowl and finished as the nation's No. 7 ranked team.

Hayes was the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Cal State Fullerton in 1979 and was the secondary coach at his alma mater, Iowa, in 1977-78. He coached for five years on the high school level and one year at Coe College in Iowa before getting his first collegiate job at Iowa in 1977.

Hayes was a three-year letter-winner as a defensive back for the Hawkeyes from 1967-71. He earned a degree in Finance/Insurance in 1971. Born in Keokuk, Iowa, he and his wife Cindy have three children: Andy, Lindsay, and Sarah.

DEL MILLER

Co-Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks
16th Year - Central College '72

Del Miller, who has worked with some of the most prolific offenses in K-State history, will be entering his 16th season overall at Kansas State in 2012 which includes four different stops in Manhattan under head coach Bill Snyder. Miller serves as the Wildcats' co-offensive coordinator while also tutoring the quarterbacks.

Last season, Miller tutored Wildcat quarterback Collin Klein, who burst on to the college football scene with one of the top overall performances by any Wildcat signal caller in school history. En route to 10 wins and a berth in the Cotton Bowl, Klein rushed for a Big 12 and NCAA quarterback record 27 touchdowns last season and became one of the most valuable players in the nation in 2011. Klein also ran for 1,141 yards on the year and threw for 1,918 with 13 touchdowns en route to All-Big 12 honors.

In 2010, Miller helped the Wildcat offense average 33.6 points per game en route to the program's first bowl appearance since 2006. K-State was also ranked among the top 10 teams in the country in total red zone efficiency and No. 1 nationally in TD percentage in the red zone. The Cats' 47-percent conversion rating on third down ranked second in the league, while they were also the least penalized offense in the Big 12. Quarterback Carson Coffman recorded the fifth-highest efficiency rating in school history in 2010 after completing 65-percent of his passes for a passing efficiency rating of 143.1.

In 2009, Miller ushered in a new quarterback as Grant Gregory took over the offense and led the Cats to a 6-6 mark and a second-place finish in the North. Behind Gregory's leadership, the Cats were one win away in the final game of the regular season from advancing to the Big 12 Championship.

Prior to coming back to K-State in 2009, Miller was the offensive coordinator at San Diego State from 2006-08. In his final season there, the Aztecs were led by two redshirt freshmen in quarterback Ryan Lindley and wide receiver Vincent Brown. Lindley threw for 2,653 yards and ranked 40th nationally in total offense, while Brown, an All-Mountain West selection by Phil Steele, ranked 44th nationally with 5.33 receptions per game and hauled in 64 catches for 631 yards and five touchdowns in 2008.

One of the first hires made by Snyder when he first came to K-State in 1989, Miller returned to Manhattan in 2001 as offensive coordinator for his third stint on the staff after serving as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Oklahoma State for the 2000 season.

Miller has played a major role in the building of two major college programs, first at Iowa under the legendary Hayden Fry from 1978-88 before becoming a member of Snyder's original Kansas State coaching staff. He has coached in 14 bowl games in his 30 years as a Division I assistant, including six at Kansas State.

Miller returned to Kansas State in 1999 to serve as a graduate assistant, helping the Wildcats to a third consecutive 11-win season and a Big 12 North Division co-Championship. After a year at Oklahoma State, he returned to Manhattan in 2001 to serve as the assistant director of football operations before being elevated to defensive ends coach in 2002.

Miller began his second stint as the school's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2003. He helped the Wildcats rank ninth nationally in both scoring and rushing offense and 17th in total offense en route to capturing their first conference championship in nearly 70 years. The offense was one of just seven in the country to average over 200 yards per game in both rushing and passing. Miller was instrumental in developing quarterback Eli Roberson, who at one time was the school's all-time leader in total offense and passing touchdowns.

With the opportunity to run his own program, Miller left Kansas State in 1995 to take over as head coach at Southwest Missouri State. He guided the Bears to a 21-23 record in four seasons, including their first winning mark in three years in 1996 at 7-4.

Miller began his coaching career in 1972 when he became head coach at Plainfield High School in Plainfield, Iowa. In 1975, he left to become the defensive coordinator at Eagle Grove High School in Eagle Grove, Iowa. He then served as head coach at Eagle Grove from 1977-78. A native of Marengo, Iowa, Miller played and graduated from Central College in Pella, Iowa. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1972 and received his master's degree in physical education in 1976. Miller is married to the former Jan Schafbuch. The couple has three sons, Troy, Todd and Tad, a daughter-in-law, Maria (Tad's wife) and a grandson, Gabriel.

JOE BOB CLEMENTS

Defensive Run Game Coordinator/DE

11th Year - Kansas State '99

Kansas native and former Wildcat Joe Bob Clements returns for his 11th season overall at Kansas State as an assistant coach and his fourth under head coach Bill Snyder since his return to the sidelines in 2009. Clements will take on the added role of defensive run game coordinator in 2012 and is also responsible for directing the Wildcat defensive ends.

Clements, a 1999 Kansas State graduate who previously served on Snyder's Wildcat coaching staff during his first stint, helped first-year players Meshak Williams and Adam Davis develop into All-Big 12 caliber talents in 2011 while also leading senior walk-on Jordan Voelker into a leadership role. Williams and Davis garnered All-Big 12 accolades from various publications, while the trio combined for 91 total tackles, 23.5 tackles for loss and 15.5 sacks.

Clements tutored All-Big 12 defensive end Jeffrey Fitzgerald in 2009 and helped a Wildcat defense improve from 117th nationally in 2008 to No. 39 in total defense. Fitzgerald went on to sign a free-agent contract with the Kansas City Chiefs after collecting 40 tackles, 10 for losses, and 7.0 sacks as a senior to lead the Wildcat defensive front.

In 2008, Clements coached the defensive line at Kansas and tutored All-Big 12 selections Caleb Blakesley and Jake Laptad. Prior to his stint in Lawrence, Clements was an assistant coach (defensive line) at San Diego State in 2006 and 2007, which included a role as the Aztec's recruiting coordinator in 2007.

Clements has been a part of 12 bowl games as both a player and coach at K-State and served a total of 10 seasons on Snyder's staff. He became a full-time assistant coach in charge of the defensive ends in 2003 and held the position for three seasons. He also served as the Wildcats' recruiting coordinator in 2004 and 2005.

In his first year mentoring Kansas State's defensive ends in 2003, Clements' unit helped the Wildcats lead the nation in sacks in 2003. The unit was also integral in helping K-State finish the year sixth in the nation in total defense, eighth in scoring defense, 12th in pass efficiency defense and 17th in rushing defense. It marked the second straight season that the Wildcats finished in top 10 nationally in both total and scoring defense, and the seventh consecutive year that K-State ranked in the top six in total defense. While at K-State, Clements coached one of the most prolific defensive ends in school history, Andrew Shull, who ranks among the top 10 in three sack categories in school history and was a second team All-Big 12 selection in 2003.

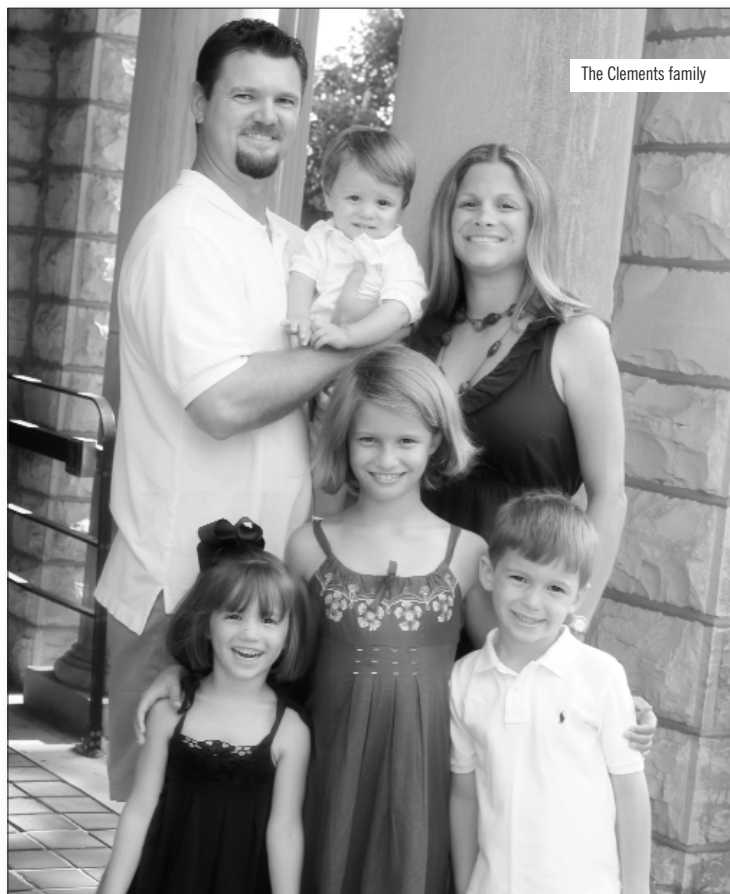

And Clements' touch also continued in 2004 and 2005 as Scott Edmonds was named second team All-Big 12 by the Dallas Morning News in 2004 and Alphonso Moran garnered Freshman All-America and All-Big 12 honors in 2005.

Clements began his coaching career at K-State in 1999, spending the first of two seasons as a student assistant before moving up to a graduate assistant role working with the secondary from 2001-02.

A standout player in his own right, Clements came to Kansas State as a walk-on before earning a scholarship prior to the 1996 season. He went on to earn four letters and appear in 41 games during his career, finishing with 107 tackles, including 18 for loss and 7.5 quarterback sacks.

Clements twice recorded nine tackles in a game, both coming against Nebraska (10/4/97 and 11/14/98), and was a second team All-Big 12 pick by the Kansas City Star in 1998 as well as being an honorable-mention pick by the league's coaches. The son of former Emporia State football player Bob Clements and a native of Emporia, Kan., Clements earned his bachelor's degree in mass communications from Kansas State in 1999 and also completed his M.S. in Counseling and Student Development from Kansas State in 2009.

He and his wife, Pelusa, have four children, Orianna, Chance, Emma and Kaden.

MIKE COX

First Year - Idaho '89

A 25-year coaching veteran, Mike Cox joined the Kansas State staff last February as the Wildcats' linebacker coach. A 1989 graduate of the University of Idaho, Cox spent the previous three seasons as Washington's linebackers coach and, prior to joining the Huskies, worked two seasons (2007-08) for the St. Louis Rams, coaching the secondary and linebackers.

Cox made an impact in his three years at Washington as he tutored Cort Dennison to All-Pac-12 honors in 2011 before coaching one of the conference's top linebacker groups in 2010. Senior Mason Foster led the league and finished second in the nation with 163 total tackles, most by a Pac-10 player since the UW's James Clifford in 1989. Foster earned first team All-Pac-10 and first team All-America. Meanwhile, Victor Aiyewa finished first the conference and seventh in the nation in tackles per loss, while Dennison was seventh in the league in total tackles.

In his first season as the UW linebackers coach in 2009, Cox helped oversee one of the Huskies' strongest units. Washington's 2009 linebackers corps was led by veterans Donald Butler, E.J. Savannah and Foster. Those three combined for 193 tackles, including 94 from Butler, who was a second-team All-Pac-10 selection. Cox also helped coach a defense that made vast improvements over the previous season as opponents' total offense was reduced by an average of 62 yards per game and opponents scored 12 fewer points per game than in 2008.

Cox, a native of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, joined the UW staff from the St. Louis Rams, where he worked for two seasons. In 2007, he was a defensive quality control/defensive line coach before moving to assistant secondary coach in 2008. After a mid-season coaching change, he became linebackers coach for the Rams. Before his time in the NFL, Cox spent four seasons as linebackers coach at Michigan State, where he was also recruiting coordinator in 2006.

Much of Cox's coaching career has been spent on the various coaching staffs of John L. Smith. In all, Cox served 17 seasons on a Smith staff at Michigan State, Louisville, Utah State and Idaho.

He coached the linebackers for five seasons at Louisville (1998-2002), helping the Cardinals to consecutive Conference USA championships in 2000 and 2001. He coached three All-CUSA selections and, in 2000, was part of a defense that forced an NCAA-best 37 turnovers. The 2002 Louisville team was 17th in the nation in rushing defense and 22nd in total defense.

From 1995-97, he was on the staff at Utah State, where he coached a pair of All-Big West linebackers, David Gill and Tony D'Amato. In 1995, Gill broke Utah State's season record for tackles with 168. Utah State won back-to-back Big West Conference championships in 1996 and 1997.

As an assistant at Idaho (1987-94) coaching linebackers and defensive line, Cox helped his alma mater to a combined record of 73-26 (.733) from 1987-94, winning four Big Sky Conference championships and finishing in the top 10 five times. In 1994, the Vandals led the Big Sky in rushing defense, allowing only 65.3 yards per game.

Cox earned four letters as a linebacker at Idaho from 1983-86, starting for three seasons. He played for head coaches Dennis Erickson and Keith Gilbertson. He still ranks among the Vandals' all-time leaders with 252 career tackles.

Cox earned a bachelor's degree in general studies from Idaho in 1989. He and his wife, Jill, have three children, Zac, Jake and Addison.

CHARLIE DICKEY

Offensive Line

Fourth Year - Arizona '87

Charlie Dickey enters his fourth season at Kansas State under head coach Bill Snyder where he tutors the Wildcat offensive line.

Last season, K-State remained one of the most physical offenses in the Big 12 Conference, led by an offensive line that paved the way for record-setting quarterback Collin Klein. Three Wildcat linemen led the group as seniors Clyde Aufner and Zach Hanson earned All-Big 12 honors from their tackle positions, while freshman center B.J. Finney came on strong in his first year on the field and earned both Freshman All-Big 12 and All-America honors in 2011. The Wildcats were again the least penalized team in the league, while the offensive line helped the Cats average 31 points a game and total 34 rushing touchdowns on the year.

In 2010, Dickey tutored an experienced K-State line that included three seniors in the middle, headlined by All-Big 12 guard Zach Kendall and Rimington Award candidate Wade Weibert at center. The group paved the way for running back Daniel Thomas, who led the Big 12 in rushing in each of the last two seasons. K-State averaged 33.6 points per game in 2010 en route to the program's first bowl appearance since 2006. The Cats' 47-percent conversion rating on third down ranked second in the league, while they were also the least penalized offense in the Big 12.

The 2009 group in the trenches was led by senior All-Big 12 tackle Nick Stringer, while the other four starters from last year's group all return in 2010. Last season's offensive line proved to be one of the most improved units on the team as the Wildcats' averaged 180 yards rushing per game in 2009, a figure that ranked 36th nationally and fourth in the Big 12 Conference.

Dickey came to K-State in 2009 after capping his fourth season at Utah with an undefeated 13-0 season and a win over No. 4 Alabama in the Sugar Bowl. Dickey was instrumental in the Utah's success on offense when he took charge of offensive line in 2005 and his position was regarded as a Ute stronghold from that day on. In 2006, the Utes were the last team in the country to allow a sack - going six games before anyone got to the quarterback.

In 2008, offensive tackle Zane Beadles and guard Robert Conley were First Team All-Mountain West Conference selections under Dickey and protected and paved the way for quarterback Brian Johnson, the 2008 MWC Offensive Player of the Year and Sugar Bowl Most Outstanding Player.

During his time at Utah, Dickey coached four first-team all-conference players in center Jesse Boone (2005), tackles Tavo Tupola (2006) and Beadles (2008) and guard Conley (2008). In 2007, both Beadles and Conley won second team honors for the Utes.

Dickey coached in the Pac-10 for 13 years before heading to Utah, spending 12 years at his alma mater, Arizona, and one season at Washington. At Arizona, he coached the offensive line from 1992-2002 and the tight ends in 2003. In 2004, Dickey went to Washington as the Huskies' offensive line coach.

While at Arizona, Dickey developed first-team all-conference linemen Warner Smith (1994) and Yusuf Scott (1998). Scott won the 1998 Morris Trophy award, which goes to the league's outstanding offensive lineman.

Dickey began his coaching career after playing one season for the Pittsburgh Steelers during the 1987 NFL strike. In 1988, he worked at Arizona as a graduate assistant coach before tutoring the offensive line at Scottsdale Community College in 1989 and at Northern Arizona from 1990-91.

In his playing days, Dickey started at offensive guard at Arizona from 1983-84 - compiling a streak of 1,230 consecutive offensive plays (including all 840 offensive plays of the 1983 season). He was named second-team all-Pac-10 in 1984 and was Arizona's Offensive Most Valuable Player. Before going to Arizona, he completed an all-conference junior college career at Scottsdale Community College.

Dickey, who earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Arizona in 1987, is married to the former Lisa Bradshaw, a native of Jetmore, Kan., and a member of the Arizona women's basketball team from 1983-85. The couple has five children: daughters Jazmin Wagner, Tasha and Shyanne, son Charles Jr., and son-in-law Alan Wagner. A daughter, Chanel, passed away at the age of three. Tasha played basketball at K-State during the 2011-12 season.

MO LATIMORE

Interior Defensive Line 29th Year - Kansas State '76

A former All-American lineman for the Wildcats in the 1970s, Mo Latimore is the longest tenured assistant coach in the Big 12 Conference and will enter his 29th season at Kansas State in 2012 as the team's interior defensive line coach.

Latimore has been a fixture at Kansas State since returning to his alma mater in 1994 following a five-year stint at Missouri. He has played an integral role in Kansas State's ascent to one of the nation's elite programs, helping the Wildcats to 10 seasons of nine or more wins and 13 bowl games. He has also been a big reason for K-State's strong presence on defense and has mentored lines that helped the Wildcats rank among the nation's top 10 in total defense several times, including top-5 rankings in 1995, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 and 2002.

During the last 17 seasons, Latimore has helped coach four All-Americans, including first-team honorees Tim Colston (1995) and Mario Fatafehi (2000), two conference Defensive Newcomers of the Year (Fatafehi in 1999 and Tank Reese in 2001) and one conference Defensive Player of the Year (Colston; 1995). Over the past four seasons, five Wildcat defenders have earned all-conference honors, including Ray Kibble, Jeffrey Fitzgerald, Ian Campbell, Eric Childs and Brandon Harold. Kibble was a mainstay in the middle last season and a big part of K-State's 10-win season and berth in the AT&T Cotton Bowl. Campbell earned three straight all-conference awards and left Kansas State as one of the program's best defensive ends. Harold was one of the top freshmen defenders in the country in 2008 and led the nation in sacks and tackles for loss among freshmen defensive linemen. Defensive tackle Raphael Gudry also made a lasting impact on special teams in 2011 as he set a new K-State record with five blocked kicks on the season.

In 2005, protégé Alphonso Moran received Big 12 all-freshman honors as well as honorable mention freshman All-America accolades from The Sporting News and in 2006 Campbell was selected as a consensus first team All-Big 12 performer as well as the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year by the Houston Chronicle. Campbell again added first team honors in 2007, while defensive end Rob Jackson also garnered all-league accolades in 2008.

In his first season back at his alma mater, Latimore helped guide the Wildcats to the nation's top ranking in total defense, while also coaching Colston to third team All-America honors from The Associated Press. In 1995, Latimore helped Colston become the first defensive lineman in school history to earn first team All-America accolades and Big Eight Defensive Player of the Year honors.

Beginning in 1997, Latimore coached at least one all-conference linemen for six consecutive seasons, including three first-team honorees. Fatafehi became the first of two Latimore protégés to earn Big 12 Newcomer of the Year honors. In 2000, he coached a defensive line that saw three of its four starters (Monty Beisel, Chris Johnson and Fatafehi) earn All-Big 12 honors, while Fatafehi became Latimore's second first team All-American in six seasons. Also, the line recorded 39 sacks and helped the Cats finish fourth nationally in total defense. Latimore saw his second player, Tank Reese, earn Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year honors in 2001, as well as first team all-league recognition in both 2001 and 2002.

The 2006 campaign brought even more success as Latimore's unit was at the forefront of a defense that led the Big 12 in sacks and ranked sixth nationally with 40, including a school-record 11.5 by Campbell. The 2007 line ranked second in the Big 12 in sacks, again led by Campbell.

Latimore began his coaching career at K-State in 1976 under Ellis Rainsberger as a graduate assistant. After 10 years in various roles on the Kansas State staff, Latimore moved to Texas-El Paso in 1986 under Coach Bob Stull, where he coached the defensive line for three seasons. He helped the Miners to the school's first 10-win season in 1988, which cumulated in the school's first bowl game in 21 years - the 1988 Independence Bowl. In 1989, Latimore moved with Stull to Missouri, where he coached until 1993. One of the top linemen in K-State history, Latimore earned third team All-America honors and first team All-Big Eight accolades while also serving as team captain in 1971. He played in the 1971 Senior Bowl and North-South Bowl before being drafted in the seventh round by the New York Jets. He went on to play four years in the CFL with Calgary, Saskatchewan and Hamilton. He transferred to K-State prior to the 1970 season after two years at Hutchinson Junior College. A native of Byron, Ga., Latimore, earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1976. He is married to the former D'Anne Mitchell. The couple has two children, M.L. and Mallory.

MICHAEL SMITH

Wide Receivers

16th Year - Kansas State '95

Former Wildcat wide receiver and assistant coach Michael Smith returns for his fourth season back at Kansas State as the wide receivers coach under head coach Bill Snyder after he returned to the sidelines in 2009.

Smith, who was named one of the top 10 recruiters in the Big 12 Conference this past season by Rivals, spent the first 11 years of his coaching career at Kansas State and was the running backs coach at Rice in 2006 before moving to Arizona for the 2007 (running backs) and 2008 (inside receivers) seasons.

Last season, Smith helped true freshman Tyler Lockett make an instant impact on the program as the receiver and kick returner was named a Walter Camp All-American, the only freshman named to the prestigious squad, Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year and First Team All Big 12. Lockett finished the year with two kick returns for scores, averaged 35.2 yards per return and also caught 18 balls for 246 yards and three touchdowns. Chris Harper led the team in receiving under Smith's guidance with 40 catches for 547 yards and five touchdowns.

In 2010, Smith tutored a wide receiver group that saw numerous players step up and contribute throughout a season that saw several injuries at the position. Aubrey Quarles provided the most consistency throughout 2010 en route to All-Big 12 honors, while newcomers Tramaine Thompson, Brodrick Smith and Harper all proved they had playmaking abilities.

In 2009, K-State was led by All-American and current Washington Redskin Brandon Banks, who set school and Big 12 records in kickoff returns as well as leading the squad in receptions in 2009. Banks led the Big 12 and was eighth nationally with his 174.8 all-purpose yards per game average and ranks third in school history with 3,828 career all-purpose yards. At wide receiver, Banks also led the team in receptions (56) and receiving yards (705) this past season while he also ranks seventh in K-State history with 123 career receptions and ninth in career receiving yards with 1,754.

Smith helped lead Arizona to a 2008 Las Vegas Bowl win over BYU while he tutored Mike Thomas, who became the Pac-10 career receptions record holder with 259 grabs. In 2007, Smith coached true freshman tailback Nic Grigsby to a 700-yard performance in seven starts, emerging from reserve to fulltime duty.

At Rice, Smith helped the Owls to a 7-6 record in 2006, advancing to their first bowl game in 45 seasons and coached senior Quinton Smith to 1,096 yards in 2006, only the sixth Owls' running back in history to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark.

The 1995 Kansas State graduate has coached the top three career rushing leaders in K-State history in Darren Sproles, Eric Hickson and Mike Lawrence. Smith also directed a running back to the single-season rushing record in three of his last five seasons at K-State during his first tenure, including Sproles, a first team All-American. Sproles surpassed the mark during the 2003 season with 1,986 yards, which ranked as the 10th best rushing total in NCAA history. At the conclusion of the 2003 regular season, Sproles finished fifth in Heisman Trophy voting and was the runner-up for the Doak Walker Award.

A second team All-Big 12 pick in 2002, Sproles rushed for 1,465 yards and 17 touchdowns. Sproles concluded his four-year career as the Big 12's leader in all-purpose yards with 6,812 and the Wildcats' career rushing leader with 4,979 yards. In 2001, Josh Scobey set the single-season rushing record and career rushing TD mark at Kansas State with 1,263 yards and 31 career TDs.

After spending the 1992 season in the NFL with Kansas City, Smith returned to K-State as a student assistant. As a graduate assistant in 1995 and 1996, Smith assisted Greg Peterson with the receivers and helped tutor wideouts Kevin Lockett and Mitch Running, who became just the fifth receiving tandem in Big Eight history to snag at least 50 passes in the same season. In nine seasons as running backs coach, Smith coached seven former backs in the NFL, including David Allen (Jacksonville and St. Louis), Rock Cartwright (Washington), Thomas Clayton (New England), Joe Hall (Kansas City), Frank Murphy (Chicago, Tampa Bay, Houston and Miami), Scobey (Arizona) and Sproles (San Diego).

During his playing career, Smith was known as one the Big Eight's all-time great receivers. He concluded his playing career as the Big Eight's second-leading receiver with 179 receptions, trailing just All-American Hart Lee Dykes. The total of 179 catches ranked 40th in NCAA history at the time.

Smith was named third team All-American in 1991, honorable mention All-American in 1989 and a two-time All-Big Eight selection (1989 and 1991).

His career total of 2,457 receiving yards was third-best in Big Eight history behind Dykes and 1972 Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers. The total was bolstered by nine 100-yard receiving games, which was a school record at the time. Smith also posted three of the top four games in K-State history with 179 yards vs. New Mexico (1990), 174 yards vs. Washington (1991) and 172 vs. Nebraska (1991). Smith also owned three of the top five reception games in school history. He led the Big Eight as a sophomore in 1989 and was seventh in the nation with 70 catches for 816 yards. In 1990, he had 46 receptions for 796 yards and tallied 55 for 768 in 1991.

Smith is married to the former Karyn Tieken. Smith has four children: Kylie, Kenzie, Kason and Kamryn.

SCOTTY OHARA

Offensive GA

Second Year - Arizona '08

Scotty Ohara enters his second season at Kansas State and his first as the Offensive Graduate Assistant. During the 2011 season, Ohara served the position of Offensive Quality Control.

Prior to his stint at K-State, Ohara worked three years as an undergraduate at the University of Arizona, working with current Wildcat assistant coaches Dana Dimel and Michael Smith. He was a three-year student manager from 2005-07, while he was a volunteer assistant during the 2007 season in which he was in the press box on game days to chart offensive notes. During the 2008 season, he took on an increased role as he assisted Dimel with the running backs and tight ends by working on opponent film breakdown, produced weekly run game and third-down analysis, while he met with younger running backs for weekly film study, blitz recognition and playbook review.

Following his time at U of A, Ohara was the wide receivers coach at Menlo College in Atherton, Calif., as he helped develop offense schemes and create game plans while making all personnel decisions associated with the wide receiver position.

A native of San Jose, Calif., Ohara prepped at Pioneer High School before playing one year collegiately at Chapman University in Orange, Calif. He obtained his Bachelor's Degree in Molecular and Cellular Biology from Arizona in 2008.

BLAKE SEILER

Defensive GA

Second Year - Kansas State '06

A defensive end from 2004-06, Blake Seiler is in his second year as the defensive graduate assistant for Kansas State. In his current role, Seiler helps the defensive coaching staff break down film and help run the scout team. Prior to his term as a defensive graduate assistant, Seiler served as an office assistant.

Seiler was a former walk-on who transferred to K-State from Oklahoma State where he was a member of the Cowboy wrestling squad. The Goddard, Kan., product earned First Team Academic All-Big 12 honors during his final three years in Manhattan while becoming one of the biggest contributors on defense. As a senior in 2006, Seiler made 21 tackles, including a career-best four sacks. He registered at least one tackle in 11-of-13 games and had multiple stops six times as he helped the Wildcats earn a trip to the 2006 Texas Bowl.

During an 11-game 2005 season, Seiler carded a career-best 34 tackles, including a season-high seven against Texas A&M. That season, Seiler won honored with the program's Nancy Bennett Award, representing fight, spirit and a positive nature.

Seiler saw action in all 11 games in 2004 as a sophomore, being credited with six tackles, including 1.5 for loss. He earned the Kansas State Purple Pride Award as the walk-on that displayed quality play, leadership and work ethic.

Seiler graduated from Kansas State in 2006 with a degree in mechanical engineering. He also holds a master's degree from Wichita State.

CHRIS DAWSON

Strength and Conditioning Third Year - Oklahoma '95

Chris Dawson, a veteran of more than 15 years in the field of strength training, is in his third season as Kansas State's Director of Strength and Conditioning.

Dawson manages the department's total strength program, overseeing five full-time assistant coaches, while providing daily leadership for the Wildcats' football strength and conditioning program. The Houston, Texas, native spent the previous seven seasons as the head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Kansas before coming to Manhattan. Under Dawson's tutelage, 30 players have been drafted by NFL teams including seven that were taken in the first two rounds of the NFL Draft.

At Kansas, Dawson was a part of four bowl teams from 2003-2008, including a 2008 BCS appearance in the Orange Bowl. Following the successful 2007 campaign, Dawson was awarded the National Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year Award by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

Dawson worked the 2001 and 2002 football seasons as the head strength and conditioning coach for the University of Minnesota after serving a five-year stint at Oklahoma, his alma mater. While with the Sooners, Dawson worked with the football and men's basketball teams.

Before taking the position at Minnesota, he spent three months with the Las Vegas Outlaws of the XFL and two months with the Dallas Cowboys as a strength and conditioning intern.

Dawson credits his success in the strength field to his mentors at Oklahoma. He learned under Joe Juraszek, who was the strength coach at OU during his playing days and is the current head strength coach for the Dallas Cowboys. He also received valuable guidance from Blair Prince, Pete Martinelli, and Jerry Schmidt, the current strength coach at Oklahoma.

Dawson played linebacker for the Sooners from 1992-94 and participated in a pair of postseason contests - the 1993 John Hancock Bowl and the 1994 Copper Bowl. He received his bachelor's degree in business management in 1995 and his master's degree in business administration in 1999, both from Oklahoma.

Dawson and his wife, Dawn, have two children, twins Madison and Meyer.

JOE GORDON

Director of Recruiting Operations
Fourth Season

Former Wildcat great Joe Gordon, a defensive back from 1993-96, returned to Kansas State in 2009 and enters his fourth season as the director of recruiting operations. In his position, Gordon assists with the day to day operations of the football program and organizes and oversees K-State's recruiting efforts.

An All-American cornerback in 1995 as a junior, Gordon came to Kansas State from the private sector, where he has worked in various capacities over the previous 11 years, most recently as a partner at MWA Employee Benefits, LLC, and the owner of Joe Gordon Sports Training.

After receiving his bachelor's degree in criminology from K-State in 1996, Gordon spent the 1997 season with the St. Louis Rams before heading to NFL Europe in 1998 where he played for the Rhein Fire.

While at Kansas State, Gordon was a two-time All-Big Eight selection after stellar seasons as a sophomore and junior. Gordon, a native of Arlington, Texas, and a preseason All-American, played in just four games as a senior in 1996 as he suffered an injury to his leg.

During his sophomore season in 1994, Gordon became the first sophomore cornerback since 1984 to earn first team all-conference honors after he totaled 50 tackles and 11 pass breakups. He followed that with a 48-tackle junior season with 13 pass breakups en route to All-America honors. As a junior, Gordon allowed just 12 completions after lining up in man coverage a total of 332 times and helped the Wildcat pass defense rank third nationally with a 136.8 yard-per-game average through the air.

Joe and his wife Angela have four sons, LeAndrew, Sergio, Xavier and Diesel.

INGE JORGENSEN

Assistant Director of Football Operations
Sixth Season

Inge Jorgensen is in her sixth season at Kansas State and second as the assistant director of football operations. Jorgensen assists with much of the daily operations and travel of the Wildcat football program. In addition to coordinating several special projects, Jorgensen also oversees K-State's Golden Cats alumni program.

A 2003 graduate of the University of Virginia with a bachelor's in sociology, Jorgensen added a master's in education to her academic resume from UVA in 2005. While at Virginia, Jorgensen was a three-time All-American and four-time ACC champion in the javelin. Away from the track, Jorgensen was active on the student-athlete advisory committee, as a student-athlete mentor and participated in numerous philanthropic and honor societies. She also served internships in the athletics department, football office and in the sports department with Charlottesville, Va., NBC affiliate WVIR.

After completing her master's, Jorgensen worked in real estate and software sales and also assisted as a volunteer track & field coach at Florida Atlantic University before joining the football staff at K-State in 2006.

TAYLOR BRAET

Special Teams Quality Control
Seventh Season

Taylor Braet enters his seventh year at Kansas State and his second as a quality control assistant for special teams.

Braet came to K-State as a student assistant coach in 2006 working with the defense and special teams and continues to help in those areas as a quality control assistant.

Prior to his stint in Manhattan, Braet was a student assistant at Butler Community College under his father, associate head coach Steve Braet, and head coach Troy Morrell. Braet worked with the linebackers during the Grizzlies' 2003 National Championship run, while he helped with the defensive ends in 2004 and 2005 as Butler won conference championships all three seasons.

Born and raised in Wichita, Braet graduated from Wichita Heights High School in 2003 and went through spring practices at Butler until an injury ended his career and he began his coaching career.

AL CERBE

Football Equipment Manager
Sixth Season

Al Cerbe is in his sixth season at K-State and his second as equipment manager for the Wildcats' football program.

Cerbe, who received his accreditation from the Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA) in the summer of 2011, oversees all aspects of equipment and apparel distribution and maintenance. He also helps oversee the operations of K-State's student equipment managers.

Cerbe came to K-State from the University of Memphis, where he served as a student equipment manager. In addition to his work at Memphis, Cerbe has also served equipment manager internships with the Baltimore Ravens, the Las Vegas Gladiators and the Memphis Xplorers before becoming the Head Equipment Manager for the Xplorers in 2006.

A product of Horn Lake, Miss., Cerbe began his career in 2004 as the head equipment manager at Northeast Mississippi Community College and graduated from Kansas State in 2010.

SCOTT EILERT

Senior Video Coordinator
21st Season

Scott Eilert is in his 21st season overseeing the football program's state-of-the-art video editing system as Kansas State's senior video coordinator.

Eilert coordinates and implements the use of video technology for practices and games, while he manages statistical analysis tools for the coaching staff which are both used in preparing materials to create game strategies. Eilert also produces weekly highlights and manages all content for the annual K-State Football awards ceremony.

A founding member of the Collegiate Sports Video Association (CSVA) and former executive officer of CSVA, Eilert has been named Big 12 Video Coordinator of the Year three times by the organization and in 1998 was selected as the CSVA National Video Coordinator of the Year. In 2001 and again in 2003, Eilert won Savvy Awards for best motivational video. More recently, his 2010 submission in the "highlight" category placed second.

A 1991 K-State graduate, Eilert spent three years as K-State's assistant video director while an undergraduate student. He also spent one year as a video assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs as well as working for the Kansas City ABC affiliate, KMBC.

A native of Overland Park, Eilert is married to the former Megan Luke. The couple has two daughters, MaKenna and Hailey.

JOSIAH FEUERBACHER

Asst. Video Coordinator
Seventh Season

Josiah Feuerbacher is in his 11th season overall with the Kansas State video staff and his seventh as the football program's assistant video coordinator.

Named to his current post in 2006, Feuerbacher assists with all aspects of K-State's coaching video acquisition, editing and distribution process and also helps oversee the department's student video staff.

Feuerbacher has also proven himself to be a valuable graphics designer during his stint as a full-time staffer and has produced many of the visual elements currently on display in the Vanier Football complex.

A 2006 K-State graduate with a bachelor's degree in mass communications, Feuerbacher spent four years as a student assistant on Scott Eilert's staff from 2002-05 before being named to his current full-time post.

A product of Oskaloosa, Kan., Feuerbacher's family includes his wife, Kendra.

JOAN FRIEDERICH

Head Coaches' Secretary
42nd Season

Joan Friederich is in her 42nd year with the Kansas State athletics department, including her 40th with the Wildcat football program. After working with the assistant coaches for more than eight years, she has been the secretary to the head football coach since 1980.

Following the 1998 football season, the Joan Friederich Award was begun to honor the individual who, through his unselfishness, leadership and commitment to K-State football, best represents the team concept.

Friederich was presented with the Admiral U.S. Grant Sharp Trophy at the 1999 Culligan Holiday Bowl for the person who best exemplifies the spirit of unselfish dedication and teamwork which resulted in little recognition or acclaim for him or herself, but contributed significantly to an outstanding season for the team.

A native of Leonardville, Kan., Friederich has three children - Rick, Nancy and Janet - and three grandchildren, including current Wildcat fullback Brad Duncan.

RAGEAN HILL

Program Director for Football Academics
Seventh Season

Former standout track & field athlete Ragean Hill returned to her alma mater in 2007 and is in her second stint with K-State's student services unit.

In her current role as the program director of football academics, Hill monitors student-athlete course work, degree progression and eligibility. She is also responsible for study table supervision and tutorial development.

Hill earned her bachelor's degree in life science in 2002 and in 2003 began her career in academic services as a graduate assistant at K-State working with the football program.

After receiving her master's in adult occupational continuing education from K-State in 2004, Hill accepted an academic counselor position at the University of Nebraska, where she also served as the coordinator of multicultural programs. While at Nebraska, Hill was honored with the student-faculty recognition award for excellence. She was also named the 2006 National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (NAAAA) Professional Promise award winner.

In the fall of 2006, Hill served as an academic advisor and the director of diversity and inclusion at Wisconsin before returning to K-State to assume her current position.

A product of Redlands, Calif., Hill ran track at Cal State Northridge from 1997-99 before transferring to Kansas State and helping the Wildcats win the 2001 Big 12 outdoor championship. While at CSUN, Hill was a two-time all-conference selection and in 1998 captured the Big Sky Conference 55-meter indoor title.

KACEY HARPER

Recruiting Administrative Assistant
Fourth Season

Kacey Harper is in her fourth season as the program's administrative assistant for recruiting. In her role, Harper assists with the daily recruiting operations for the football program.

Harper began working with the football program in 2005, serving three years as a student assistant. She spent the 2008 season as a graduate assistant before being hired on full time.

A native of Emporia, Kan., Harper earned her bachelor's degree in Family Studies and Human Services from K-State in 2008 and obtained a master's degree in Counseling and Student Development from K-State in 2011.

MINDY HOFFMAN

Assistant Athletic Trainer
Seventh Season

Mindy Hoffman is in her seventh year as assistant athletic trainer at Kansas State University and her sixth working with the football program. Hoffman serves as the assistant athletic trainer for football and men's and women's golf.

Prior to her arrival at K-State, Hoffman spent two years at the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center where she received her master's of athletic training in May 2006. While at Tech, she worked primarily with the football team for two years and the women's basketball team for one season. She also spent time assisting an orthopedic surgeon while working on her master's degree.

Hoffman received her bachelor's degree in physical education from Purdue University in May 1999. She spent four years as a teacher and coach before pursuing a career in athletic training.

Hoffman, a native of Royal Center, Ind., is a certified athletic trainer, member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and resides in Manhattan.

DARREN HONEYCUTT

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach
Sixth Season

Darren Honeycutt is in his sixth season at K-State as the assistant strength coach for football and assists Chris Dawson in all aspects of the team's strength and conditioning training.

Prior to arriving at K-State, Honeycutt served as the assistant strength coach at the University of Pittsburgh.

Honeycutt received his start as a strength and conditioning coach and worked as an assistant on the staff at Appalachian State from 1991-94. Honeycutt's background also includes plenty of Big 12 history. From 1994-96 he served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Texas Tech working with the Red Raiders' football program. Honeycutt also worked in a similar position at Baylor from 1996-2000 before eventually heading to Louisville, where he worked with the Cardinals from 2000-2003.

Honeycutt earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from Lenoir-Rhyne College in 1991 and later added a master's degree from Appalachian State in 1994.

RYAN LACKEY

Assistant Director/
Athletics Communications
Sixth Season

Ryan Lackey is in his sixth year as an Assistant Director of Athletics Communications and his 10th year overall at Kansas State. In his capacity, Lackey works primarily with the Wildcat football and baseball programs, while he oversees publicity efforts for men's and women's golf.

Lackey started as a student assistant in the sports information office working with the men's and women's cross country teams in 2004 and the men's golf team in 2005-07 before moving to his full-time position prior to the 2007 football season. Both his 2006-07 men's golf, and his 2008 and 2009 baseball media guides earned "Second in the District" honors from CoSIDA, while his 2009 baseball media guide was judged "Ninth in the Nation."

A native of Overland Park, Kan., Lackey is a 2007 graduate of Kansas State. He is married to the former Natalie Robson and the couple reside in Manhattan.

KENNY LANNOU

Assistant AD/
Communications
10th Season

Kenny Lannou is in his 10th year overall in the K-State Athletics Department and his fifth overseeing the Athletics Communications Office. Last year, Lannou was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Communications. In his role, Lannou oversees all operations of the office and assists with the overall public and media relations planning strategies of the athletics department and the Wildcat football program.

A 2001 Baylor University graduate, Lannou began his professional career in 2001 as a Media Relations Assistant at Auburn University before being named the Assistant Sports Information Director at Northwestern State University in 2002. A member of CoSIDA and the Football Writers Association of America, Lannou has earned numerous awards for his publications including the 2010 football media guide, which placed fifth nationally. Lannou came to K-State as Assistant SID in 2003 before being named to his current position in 2007.

He is married to the former Susan Haug, and the couple resides in Manhattan.

COREY MEREDITH

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach
Third Season

Corey Meredith joined the Kansas State staff in the fall of 2010 as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for football, while he also works with the men's and women's golf teams.

Meredith played college football at Bethany College in Lindsborg, Kan. He was a team captain and all-conference selection in 1999 as well as an academic all-conference pick in 1998-99, while he earned academic all-America honors in 1999. He graduated Cum Laude from Bethany College in 2000.

Meredith was a Strength Assistant for the Kansas City Chiefs for the 2001-04 seasons, including a playoff appearance in 2003. Following his work with the Chiefs, Meredith worked at the University of Kansas from 2005-09 as he worked with the football and women's tennis programs. He earned his master's degree in exercise science from Kansas in 2008.

WILL RODECAP

Head Equipment Manager
Second Season

Will Rodecap enters his second season as the Head Equipment Manager at Kansas State. In his role, Rodecap handles the ordering, maintaining and distributing of all departmental Nike equipment and apparel.

Rodecap came to K-State in 2011 from Kansas, where he served for three seasons. He started as a graduate assistant at K-State for one year before serving as head equipment manager at Tulsa (1995-98) and Colorado State (1998-2005). He spent three years in the private sector before joining KU in 2008.

Rodecap, who is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA), signed to play football at Highland Community College before knee injuries shortened his career. He graduated from Kansas State in 1993 and received his master's degree from Colorado State in 2010.

MATT THOMASON

Head Athletic Trainer
11th Season

Matt Thomason enters his 11th season working with the Kansas State football program and his eighth as K-State's head athletic trainer. Thomason works primarily with the Wildcat football team, but also oversees all administrative responsibilities of the sports medicine department.

Thomason, who received his master's in kinesiology at K-State, is a 2001 cum laude graduate of Texas Tech. While at Tech, he served as a student athletic trainer and worked closely with the football, baseball, women's soccer and track & field teams.

A certified member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association, he is also licensed in the state of Kansas and Texas as an athletic trainer. Thomason is married to the former Kelly Kurtz. The couple has two children, Hayden and Reagan.

TERESA WILLIAMS

Assistant Coaches
Administrative Assistant
18th Season

Teresa Williams returned to Kansas State in 2009 and enters her 18th year overall working with the K-State football program. Wide receiver Chris Harper hauled in this 33-yard touchdown pass from Collin Klein with 1:39 remaining in the fourth quarter to earn a come-from-behind 10-7 victory over Eastern Kentucky.

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) - Collin Klein connected with Chris Harper on a 33-yard touchdown pass with 1:39 left, and Kansas State escaped with a 10-7 victory over Eastern Kentucky on Saturday night to give long-time coach Bill Snyder his 150th win.

K-State fumbled five times - losing four of them - and struggled to get anything going against its opponent from the Football Championship Subdivision.

The plucky Colonels, picked to finish third in the Ohio Valley Conference, took a 7-0 lead with 4:26 remaining in the third quarter when freshman quarterback Jared McClain plunged in from a yard out. The TD was set up when Kansas State running back Bryce Brown fumbled the ball away.

Anthony Cantele, who earlier missed a 37-yard field goal try, drew Kansas State within 7-3 when he hit from 36 yards out with 11:36 left in the game.

The Kansas State defense managed to stop Eastern Kentucky on its ensuing possession, giving Klein and the offense the ball at its 14. The junior quarterback hit Harper for 10 yards, mixed in a couple of runs, connected with Harper again on an 8-yard completion, and converted a third-and-3 situation when he scrambled for four yards in front of the Wildcats' bench.

Two plays later, Klein saw Harper coming open on a skinny post route and hit him in stride as the crowd of 50,292 erupted for the first time all night. The touchdown gave the Wildcats their first lead of the game, and allowed them to win their 22nd consecutive home opener.

Things started out poorly for Kansas State and didn't get a whole lot better.

Klein was forced to call timeout on third-and-9 on the Wildcats' opening possession, and then proceeded to fumble the snap and give the Colonels the ball. The defense stiffened, though, and Eastern Kentucky's Luke Pray eventually missed a 42-yard field goal attempt.

The Wildcats went three-and-out on their next possession, a promising seven-play drive stalled at the Colonels 22, Ty Zimmerman fumbled a punt a few moments later, and the defense allowed Eastern Kentucky to march inside the Kansas State 10 before Nigel Malone intercepted McClain's pass.

Klein was picked off by Brooklyn Fox on a jump ball to end one drive, and another drive halted after Klein failed to notice the blitz and was sacked for a 13-yard loss.

The two teams went into the locker room with zeros on the scoreboard.

It remained that way most of the second half and at one point the Wildcats appeared like they might not score in a game for the first time since 1996. But the Wildcats managed to find just enough offense to hand Eastern Kentucky its 19th consecutive non-conference road loss.

The Colonels haven't beaten an FBS school since knocking off Louisville in 1985.

Running back John Hubert rushed for 91 yards on 17 carries in his first career start.

Defensive back David Garrett intercepted this pass in the first quarter and returned it for a 45 touchdown. It was the first interception returned for a touchdown by K-State since 2009. The Wildcats won 37-0, their first shutout since 2006

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) - Kansas State didn't need any late-game heroics this time.

David Garrett returned an interception 45 yards for a first-quarter touchdown, Collin Klein dazzled with his legs and the Wildcats beat penalty-prone Kent State 37-0 on Saturday night for their first shutout in more than five years.

The Wildcats scored on five of six first-half drives to build a 34-0 lead, and then coasted through an uneventful second half.

Klein finished with 139 yards rushing and 74 yards passing, nearly becoming the first Kansas State quarterback since Allen Webb in 2004 to eclipse 100 yards in each category. He had a hand in all three touchdowns scored by the offense, two on the ground and one through the air.

Kansas State (2-0) didn't give him much help - John Hubert and Robert Rose each had 29 yards rushing - but the defense more than made up for the paltry offense. The Wildcats held the second-worst offense in the Football Bowl Subdivision to 12 first downs and 199 yards.

Trayon Durham had 72 yards rushing for Kent State (0-3), while Spencer Keith was 11 of 23 for 81 yards with a pair of interceptions.

The Golden Flashes didn't do much to help themselves, committing 11 penalties for 136 yards. That included eight personal fouls, one of which spoiled a first-and-goal situation at the K-State 3 in the fourth quarter. The Wildcats managed to keep the Golden Flashes out of the end zone to secure their first shutout since beating FAU 45-0 on Sept. 9, 2006.

Garrett's interception set the tone for the game. The senior cornerback waited until Keith finally unloaded a looping pass toward Eric Adeyemi near the sideline. Garrett deftly stepped in its path and corralled the ball near his shoestrings, and took off untouched 45 yards down the sideline to give Kansas State a 7-0 lead.

It was the first interception returned for a touchdown by Kansas State since Jeffrey Fitzgerald did it against Texas Tech on Oct. 10, 2009.

Backed up to his 3 after a false start, Klein picked his way through the line for a 46-yard gain on first down, and Kansas State methodically marched the rest of the way. Kent State helped with a pair of personal fouls, and Klein capped the 95-yard drive with a 5-yard scoring run.

It was the first of three straight drives that K-State turned into touchdowns. The Wildcats went 98 yards the next time they had the ball, converting four third downs along the way, the final one when Klein hit Sheldon Smith sliding just across the goal line for a 3-yard TD toss that made the score 21-0.

Unable to get anything going offensively, Kent State resorted to trying a fake punt after its next drive stalled, but even that failed. The turnover gave Kansas State the ball at the Golden Flashes' 48, and Klein completed three straight passes before scampering in from 4 yards out for another score.

Quarterback Collin Klein rushed for 139 yards, two shy of his career high.

Sophomore linebacker Tre Walker tackled Miami quarterback Jacory Harris at the one-yard line on fourth down with 49 seconds remaining in the game to seal a 28-24 K-State victory. Walker went on to earn Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week honors.

MIAMI, Fla. - Kansas State stopped Miami quarterback Jacory Harris' fourth-down run at the goal line with 49 seconds left, capping a brilliant late stand that sealed the Wildcats' 28-24 win over the Hurricanes on Saturday.

Sophomore running back John Hubert ran for a career-high 166 yards and the go-ahead touchdown for the Wildcats, who moved to 3-0 on the year for the second consecutive season. Fellow junior quarterback Collin Klein was equally impressive through the air as on the ground, completing 12-of-18 passes with two touchdowns to go with 96 yards rushing and another score.

Harris threw for 272 yards and two touchdowns for Miami (1-2), which got 106 yards and a touchdown from Lamar Miller. Miami had first-and-goal at the Kansas State 2 with 1:52 left, but a first-down pass fell incomplete, two Mike James runs were stopped and then Harris' knee was deemed down by replay officials after the on-field call was that he scored.

It was the 145th time in the last 150 games where K-State won when leading at halftime, and the Wildcats earned this one.

Miller's 59-yard touchdown run with 2:52 left in the third quarter got Miami within 21-17, and Harris found Travis Benjamin with a 34-yard scoring pass 43 seconds into the fourth quarter to give Miami a three-point lead.

A short-lived lead, at that.

Bolstered by a 47-yard run by Hubert on third-and-1 - Miami was in something akin to goal-line defense, with just about everyone on the line of scrimmage 70 yards from its own end zone - K-State went 80 yards on eight plays.

Hubert's burst from 2 yards out capped the drive, putting Miami in need of late heroics.

Harris almost delivered.

Buoyed along by 33-yard pass to Chase Ford, and a pass interference call against defensive back Nigel Malone in the end zone, the Hurricanes were 2 yards away from the win with four plays to get there. They wound up a few inches short.

Harris completed 21 of 31 passes, and Benjamin caught six balls for 91 yards to lead Miami.

Klein set the tone on the first possession, leading K-State 63 yards on 11 plays and going in from 2 yards out to give the Wildcats a 7-3 lead with 5:57 left in the first quarter. He was a perfect 6-for-6 passing for 80 yards in the first quarter—against a Miami defense that in four quarters against Ohio State last week allowed four completed passes for 35 yards.

Klein connected with freshman wide receiver Tyler Lockett from 20 yards out with 13:28 left in the half, and the Wildcats were up 14-3.

Here's how good Klein was: When K-State seemed on the brink of trouble, his feet were more than enough to keep the Wildcats afloat.

This two-yard touchdown run by John Hubert put the Cats up 28-24. Hubert finished with a career high 166 yards.

Arthur Brown celebrates with his teammates after an interception that led to the game-winning field goal. It was the first interception allowed this year by Baylor's Robert Griffin III. For his efforts, Brown was named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week.

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) - Robert Griffin III threw his first interception of the year at exactly the wrong moment.

Arthur Brown picked off Baylor's star quarterback in the closing minutes Saturday, setting up a 31-yard field goal by Anthony Cantele that sent unbeaten Kansas State to a 36-35 upset over the No. 15 Bears.

Collin Klein threw for 146 yards and two touchdowns and added 113 yards and another score for the Wildcats (4-0), who won their third straight Big 12 opener - this one in dramatic fashion

K-State trailed 35-26 midway through the fourth quarter when Klein engineered a 13-play, 70-yard drive that he capped with a short touchdown plunge.

Still, Baylor (3-1) took over needing only a couple first downs to wrap up its first 4-0 start since 1991. Instead, Griffin missed Brown sliding over across the middle and Kansas State's defensive captain hauled in the throw after a slight, heart-stopping bobble.

It was the first pick thrown by Griffin all season.

Cantele, who missed earlier in the game from 42 yards, hit the go-ahead field goal with 3:10 left to set off a raucous celebration at Snyder Family Stadium.

The Bears still had time, especially given their quick-strike ability. But Brown sacked Griffin on first down moments later, and after two plays covered just 11 yards, Griffin's fourth-down pass intended for Kendall Wright fell incomplete.

The ending spoiled another virtuoso performance for Griffin. He came into the game having thrown more touchdown passes than incompletions, and it remained that way until late in the fourth quarter.

Griffin finished 23 of 31 for 346 yards and five touchdowns - and one big interception.

Most of Griffin's offense was directed at Wright, who caught nine passes for a school-record 201 yards and three TDs.

None of the Bears' five scoring drives took more than 2 minutes, 36 seconds, even though all of them covered at least 48 yards. That included a two-play, 75-yard drive that took all of 20 seconds late in the first half that gave them a 21-19 lead at the break.

K-State pulled ahead early in the third, thanks to Klein's 63-yard run and Angelo Pease's 12-yard TD scamper, but the Bears quickly found an answer.

Griffin connected with Wright, who laid out in the end zone to make a diving over-the-shoulder grab as he slid out of bounds for a 34-yard touchdown catch.

The Wildcats put together another promising drive, but Klein was picked off by Baylor safety Sam Holl at the Bears' 33. Griffin immediately hit Wright for 23 yards, and seven plays later, the pair connected again for a dazzling 35-yard touchdown reception. It capped an eight-play, 79-yard drive that took just 2:36 off the clock and pushed Baylor ahead 35-26.

Too much time was left, as it turned out. Behind another gutsy performance by Klein, the Cats marched downfield for a touchdown to get within 35-33, and the defense - which stopped Miami four times at the goal line in a 28-24 win a week ago - once again made the biggest plays of the game when they mattered most.

Running back Angelo Pease ran for 33 yards, including a 12-yard touchdown, the first of his career.

Collin Klein rushed for three touchdowns in K-State's seven-point win over Missouri. Klein topped his previous high of two TD rushes, set last against both Texas and Colorado, and earlier this season against Kent State.

MANHATTAN, Kan. - Kansas State finally learned what it's like to play from ahead.

It's not any easier.

Collin Klein had three touchdowns rushing for the No. 20 Wildcats, who nearly blew a big second-half lead against Missouri before holding on for a 24-17 victory and their first 5-0 start since 2000.

Klein finished with 157 yards of total offense and John Hubert added 126 yards on the ground for the Cats, who had lost the last five matchups against MU.

James Franklin was 19 of 35 for 214 yards passing for the Tigers (2-3), who came into the game averaging more than 500 yards of total offense. They only managed 326 against K-State, most of that coming on a pair of long TD drives in the fourth quarter.

The first was 79-yard drive that Henry Josey finished with a 2-yard run to get MU within 24-10. K-State promptly went three-and-out, and Franklin led Missouri on a 74-yard drive that he finished off with a plunge from a yard out with 5:02 left in the game.

Tight end Michael Egnew fumbled after a catch on the drive, but a video review gave the ball back to Missouri. It was one of four calls by the officiating crew that were overturned.

Missouri never got another chance with the ball.

Playing from the lead was something new for the Wildcats.

Klein bailed them out with a long touchdown pass in the closing minutes against Eastern Kentucky, the defense delivered a goal line stand to beat Miami, and last week Kansas State scored 10 unanswered points in the final 5 1/2 minutes to stun then-No. 15 Baylor.

Kansas State's defense set the tone on the first offensive play against Missouri.

Franklin dropped back to pass, looked over the middle and threw right to Wildcat defensive back Ty Zimmerman, who had deftly stepped in front of the intended receiver. The interception ended a stretch of 108 consecutive passes without throwing a pick for the sophomore quarterback.

It took K-State six plays to punch it in.

Franklin was sacked for a 13-yard loss on MU's ensuing possession, and K-State went 51 yards in 12 plays before Anthony Cantele's FG made it 10-0.

By the time the first quarter drew to a close, the Tigers had exactly zero yards of total offense - 20 yards through the air and minus-20 on the ground.

Henry Josey finally got things rolling for Missouri in the second quarter, using his quick feet to spring for a couple of long runs. But a false start inside the 10-yard line on second down pushed the Tigers back and they had to settle for Grant Ressel's 32-yard field goal.

Ressel had a chance to get Missouri within 10-6 at the break, but he pushed a 43-yard attempt wide right on the final play of the half as rain started to fall.

The Wildcats' only big mistake all game happened early in the third quarter, when Klein was picked off by Kip Edwards. But their defense held and Ressel's 36-yard field goal attempt was wide left.

Ty Zimmerman picked off Missouri on the first play from scrimmage. It was his fourth career interception.

Freshman Tyler Lockett returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter. The return tied for the longest kickoff return in school history and the longest overall play in school history.

LUBBOCK, Texas - No. 17 Kansas State got production from all aspects of its team, including a four touchdown effort by junior quarterback Collin Klein, to earn its first win at Texas Tech since 1997 with a 41-34 victory on Saturday night before 49,744 fans at Jones AT&T Stadium.

With the victory, the Wildcats moved to 6-0 for the fifth time under head coach Bill Snyder and for the first time since 2000. The squad is now bowl eligible for the 14th time under Snyder, including consecutive years for the first time since 2002 and 2003. In addition, the team is unbeaten after three Big 12 games for the first time since 1999.

Klein ran for 110 yards on 23 carries, scoring on three short runs and hitting Chris Harper for a 3-yard TD pass on the Wildcats' first drive of the third quarter. He was 12-of-18 through the air for 146 yards. Running back John Hubert added 76 yards on the ground on 19 carries.

Freshman Tyler Lockett returned a kickoff 100 yards early in the second quarter for K-State. It tied for the longest return in school history, matching William Powell's 100-yard return against Baylor on Oct. 23, 2010. Overall, it was the 20th kickoff return for a touchdown and the eighth since 2008.

After allowing 28 Texas Tech points in the first half, the K-State defense was stellar after halftime, holding the high-octane Red Raiders to just two field goals in the second half.

Texas Tech quarterback Seth Doege had 461 yards and a touchdown on 43-of-63 passing, but had three of his four turnovers in consecutive possessions in the fourth quarter. He also ran for a score. He had just one interception coming into the game.

After Texas Tech's field goal late in the game to pull within 41-34, the Red Raiders recovered an onside kick when Tremain Swindall fell on the ball at their own 47. But Doege and the offense seemed to rush and failed to get a first down after running four plays.

The Wildcats, who appeared flat in the first half, came out with more energy after halftime. On their first possession Klein put together the team's longest drive of the game, capping it with a fade to the corner of the end zone to Harper to lead 28-27. The touchdown pass was set up after Klein scrambled out of the pocket for a 25-yard gain to the 3.

Kansas State, which came into the game leading the nation in time of possession, held the ball for 33:33, while Tech had it for 26:27.

K-State stayed close in the first half, all due to the play of its defense and special teams. The offense mustered just 94 yards, less than half of those on the ground. Texas Tech's defense was tough against the run, allowing the 26th-ranked rushing offense just 45 yards on 18 carries before the half.

After Lockett's kick return score in the second quarter, kicker Anthony Cantele missed the extra point to cut the deficit to 14-13. Lockett took the ball straight up the middle and into a pile of Red Raiders at about the 50. Suddenly, though, he was out front of the pile and outraced them all to the corner of the end zone.

Quarterback Collin Klein became the third quarterback in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in a career.

Quarterback Collin Klein rushed for a career high four touchdowns, while he passed for a career best 195 yards and one score. His four rushing touchdowns tied for second in school history.

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) - The Sunflower Showdown always brings out the best in Bill Snyder.

Now, the wily old coach can turn his attention to Oklahoma.

Collin Klein threw for a career-high 195 yards and accounted for five touchdowns, freshman Tyler Lockett returned a kickoff for a score and caught a touchdown pass for No. 12 Kansas State.

The Wildcats (7-0, 4-0 Big 12) are riding their best start since 1999, when they won their first nine games.

Jordan Webb threw for 169 yards and a touchdown for Kansas (2-5, 0-4), which has dropped five straight, including a 47-17 defeat to the Sooners last week.

Snyder improved to 16-4 in his career against KU, including a 59-7 blowout last year. The stretch of 1-70 dominance includes 11 straight wins during the 1990s and early 2000s, when Snyder was annually fielding one of the best teams in college football.

The Wildcats are headed in that direction again.

Behind the solid decision-making of Klein, a vastly improved defense and the guidance of their 72-year-old coach, Kansas State has already matched its win total from all of last season.

Klein finished with 92 yards and four TDs rushing on Saturday, and Lockett-- the son of former K-State great Kevin Lockett and the nephew of Aaron Lockett-- had five catches for 110 yards. Running back John Hubert added 92 yards and another score.

The Jayhawks, meanwhile, caused more trouble for themselves than they did their rival.

Kansas was penalized nine times for 105 yards, and two fumbles early in the second half resulting in touchdowns that effectively put away the game.

Kansas State jumped out to a 21-0 lead early in the second quarter, at which point the Jayhawks had more penalty yards (41) than net offense (23). They finally mounted a scoring drive that James Sims capped with a short touchdown run, but Klein answered with his third TD run for a 28-7 lead.

The Jayhawks looked as though they'd have some momentum at halftime when they drove 76 yards in less than 2 minutes, and Webb hit D.J. Beshears from 13 yards out for a score. But the Wildcats snatched the momentum back when Klein hit Lockett for 48 yards down the middle of the field to set up a field goal with no time left and a 31-14 lead at the break.

That was the start of a disastrous stretch for KU.

Lockett took the opening kickoff of the second half 97 yards for a score, his second kick return TD in as many weeks. The Jayhawks were whistled for three separate penalties on the ensuing kickoff, backing them up to their 8, and Tony Pierson promptly fumbled on the first play from scrimmage.

Klein scored two plays later for a 45-14 lead.

On the Jayhawks' next drive, Webb fumbled near midfield, and it took the Wildcats only six more plays before Klein hit Lockett for a 19-yard touchdown pass and a 52-14 lead.

Tyler Lockett accounted for 251 all-purpose yards, thanks to a 97-yard kickoff return touchdown and 110 receiving yards.

Junior defensive back Nigel Malone intercepted a pair of passes, including this one he returned for 22 yards. He carded his fifth and sixth interceptions of the season to tie for third in school history.

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) - Landry Jones and Ryan Broyles helped No. 9 Oklahoma get back on track and spoil eighth-ranked Kansas State's dream season.

Jones threw for a school-record 505 yards and five touchdowns, his All-American wide receiver caught 14 passes for 171 yards and a score, and the Sooners bounced back from a stunning defeat to beat the previously unbeaten Wildcats 58-17 Saturday.

Kenny Stills added four catches for 101 yards, Roy Finch finished with 73 yards rushing and another 69 through the air, and the Sooners' potent, fast-paced attack managed 690 yards of total offense against the league's top-ranked defense.

Jones' passing total shattered the previous record of 468 yards he shared with Sam Bradford, while Broyles moved into first place on the Big 12's career list with 4,499 yards receiving.

Collin Klein was sacked seven times, the Wildcats were penalized an uncharacteristic five times, normally reliable kicker Anthony Cantele missed a chip-shot field goal and a defense that had been assignment sound all season crumbled against Oklahoma's onslaught.

Kansas State led 17-14 midway through the second quarter, but the Sooners scored late in the half, and John Hubert's fumble with 19 seconds remaining allowed Michael Hunnicutt to kick a 53-yard field goal on the final play for a 23-17 halftime advantage.

It was the start of 44 straight points scored by the Sooners.

Broyles hauled in a 29-yard touchdown catch early in the third quarter, tight-rope walking down the sideline for the final 10 yards. Moments later, Jones hit Jaz Reynolds for the second of his two touchdown catches to give Oklahoma a 37-17 lead.

Finch added a 31-yard touchdown run later in the third quarter and the rout was on.

By the time Trey Millard slipped through the Kansas

State defensive front and outran the secondary to the endzone for a 61-yard touchdown run with 11 minutes left in the game, a crowd of 51,004 that was in such a festive mood early in the afternoon had started for the doors.

Klein finished with 92 yards and two TDs rushing for Kansas State, but he was just 8 of 16 for 58 yards through the air. Hubert added 71 yards rushing.

Place kicker Anthony Cantele hit a 54-yard field goal. It was the longest by a Wildcat since 2005.

Collin Klein rushed for a career high 144 yards and three touchdowns, while he also topped his career high in passing yards with 231 and another score against the third-ranked Cowboys.

STILLWATER, Okla. - No. 17 Kansas State and No. 3 Oklahoma State combined 32 points in the fourth quarter, including running back Joseph Randle's 23-yard touchdown run with 2:16 remaining that proved to be the difference for the unbeaten Cowboys in a 52-45 victory at Boone Pickens Stadium.

The Wildcats (7-2, 3-2 Big 12) had one final chance to force overtime, but quarterback Collin Klein's pass on third and goal from the OSU 5 fell incomplete as time expired. Klein and company took over at its own 29-yard-line with 2:16 remaining and converted on two third downs and one on fourth down before falling short off the goal line at the 5.

Klein was a threat all-around for K-State, as he combined for 375 yards and four touchdowns. He set career-highs in three categories threw the air, including completions (22), attempts (38) and yards (231). He also added 144 yards on the ground on 29 carries with three scores. He now has 1,330 career rushing yards to rank 16th in school history and second among quarterbacks. His 19 rushing touchdowns this season is tied for the second-most in school history.

Freshman Tyler Lockett totaled 315 all-purpose yards, including 193 kickoff returns yards. He had 84 yards on three rushes and three catches for 32 yards and a touchdown on the game. The 315 yards ranks fifth in school history and is the most since Brandon Banks tied the school record with 351 against Oklahoma in 2009.

Klein's counterpart - OSU's Brandon Weeden - was just as impressive, throwing for a school-record 502 yards on 36-of-46 passing with four touchdowns to give the Cowboys (9-0, 6-0 Big 12) their best start in school history. All-American wide receiver Justin Blackmon had 13 catches for 205 yards and two scores, while fellow wideout Tracy Moore added nine receptions for 146 yards and a touchdown. Randle rushed for 73 yards and a pair of scores.

Blackmon atoned for his two-fumble game with a 54-yard touchdown catch with 4:47 remaining that pulled the Cowboys out of a 38-37 deficit. He also caught the 2-point conversion for a 45-38 lead.

K-State responded right back with Lockett's 80-yard kickoff return and three straight runs by Klein, who barged in from 12 yards out to tie it up with 3:18 remaining.

It took Oklahoma State's quick-strike offense just four plays and 62 seconds to respond again. Weeden found Isaiah Anderson for a 33-yard gain, and Randle ran through a big hole on third-and-1 before dodging safety Ty Zimmerman to waltz in for the game-winner.

Klein drove the Wildcats down for a chance to tie - or perhaps go for the win with a 2-point conversion - by converting a fourth-and-4 with a quarterback keeper and then connecting with Harper for 22 yards to set up first-and-goal at the 5-yard line.

With no time to rely on his potent running game, coach Bill Snyder called three straight passing plays but none got the job done.

Tyler Lockett recorded 315 all-purpose yards at No. 3 Oklahoma State, the fifth-most in school history.

Quarterback Collin Klein scored from one-yard out to give K-State a thrilling three-point victory in four overtimes over Texas A&M. Klein broke the single-season rushing TD record against the Aggies, while he tied the single-game record with five scores.

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) - Junior Collin Klein scored on a quarterback sneak in the fourth overtime, his sixth touchdown of the game, giving No. 17 K-State a dramatic 53-50 victory over Texas A&M.

It was the first overtime game in the 44-year history of Bill Snyder Family Stadium and just the second in school history since a double-overtime 36-33 loss to Texas A&M in the 1998 Dr. Pepper Big 12 Championship in St. Louis, Mo.

Klein threw for a career-high 281 yards and added 103 yards on the ground for the Wildcats (8-2, 5-2 Big 12), who rallied from a 10-point deficit in the final 6 minutes of regulation to hand the Aggies (5-5, 3-4) their third consecutive loss.

The Aggies had the ball first in the fourth OT and moved down to the Kansas State 3 before their drive stalled. Facing fourth-and-1, Texas A&M coach Mike Sherman played it safe and choose to kick a field goal, and that gave Kansas State the opening it needed.

Klein pounded forward for three yards on third-and-3 at the 18 for a first down, and a pass interference call on the Aggies' Toney Hurd Jr. in the end zone gave Kansas State the ball at the 2.

Klein went straight up the middle twice, getting across the goal line on his second try as the crowd erupted. The Wildcats poured off the sideline to celebrate the victory, piling up at the goal line before heading over to the student section.

Cyrus Gray ran for 218 yards and two touchdowns, and Ryan Tannehill threw for 210 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Aggies, who lost in overtime to Missouri two weeks ago and fell to Oklahoma last week. They'll need to beat Kansas or Texas in their remaining two games to become bowl eligible.

It looked like they'd take care of that in regulation Saturday night.

The game was tied at 21 early in the fourth quarter when Kansas State's John Hubert fumbled at his own 29. The Aggies' Terrence Frederick recovered the ball, and Gray scored the go-ahead TD when he went virtually untouched right up the middle from 7 yards out.

Gray sprang free for a 63-yard run moments later, setting up a 17-yard field goal by Texas A&M's Randy Bullock that made it 31-21 with 6:38 remaining.

Used to late-game pressure, K-State never buckled.

Klein hit Chris Harper in stride for a 53-yard TD pass that pulled the Cats within a field goal with 5:49 left. The defense forced Texas A&M into three-and-out, and Kansas State took over at its own 32 with 4:40 left. Two 15-yard penalties on the defense helped the Wildcats move down field, and Anthony Cantele's 44-yard field goal into the wind tied the game.

The Wildcats had the ball first in OT and took just 3 plays to score. Klein slithered up the middle from 9 yards out and fumbled just shy of the goal line, but WR Tramaine Thompson was there to recover it.

The Aggies answered when Tannehill hit Jeff Fuller on a 9-yard slant route for a score.

The teams traded field goals in the second overtime, and Klein wasted no time in the third extra session as he went untouched 25 yards for the score.

The Wildcats failed to convert the 2-point try, and Texas A&M faced with fourth-and-goal at the 8-yard linewhen Tannehill deftly sidestepped a defender in the backfield and found Uzoma Nwachukwu in the corner of the end zone for the tying score. But his throw to Fuller on the Aggies' 2-point try bounced incomplete, sending the game to a fourth overtime.

Chris Harper hauled in a career-high 134 yards, including a crucial 53-yard pass late in the fourth quarter.

Tysyn Hartman, Nigel Malone and Emmanuel Lamur helped the K-State defense hold Texas to 10 points as they combined for 25 tackles, an interception and three pass breakups. Lamur's first quarter interception led to a field goal.

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) - Junior Collin Klein combined for two touchdowns - one passing and one rushing - as K-State held off a late Texas rally for a 17-13 win before a school-record 100,705 fans at Darrell K. Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium on Saturday night.

The Wildcats (9-2, 6-2 Big 12) have now won four consecutive games over the Longhorns, including back-to-back contests at Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium. The school moves to 6-2 against Texas in the Big 12 era, including 3-1 in Austin. K-State also eclipsed nine wins for the first time since the Big 12 Championship season of 2003, while the six league wins are the most since that magical season.

Klein was sacked five times and K-State managed just 121 total yards, but still pulled out the win behind Klein's 16-yard TD pass to Chris Harper with 9 seconds left in the first half and his 3-yard scoring run in the third quarter. Klein leads the nation with 25 rushing touchdowns and needs just two more to tie the Big 12 record set by Texas RB Ricky Williams in 1998.

The 121 yards of total offense were the fewest in a game since registering 182 yards against Kansas in 2005, while the eight first downs were the fewest since also posting eight against Nebraska in 1996.

Texas rallied from a 17-3 deficit behind backup QB Case McCoy, but the Longhorns (6-4, 3-4) have scored just one touchdown in the last two games.

Klein and Wildcats simply found a way to win, just like they have most of the season, whether in low-scoring games or shootouts.

Klein, who came in averaging 101 yards rushing, had just 4 against the Longhorns and was 9 of 17 passing for 83 yards. Chased and knocked around the entire game by the Texas pass rush, Klein was just good enough when he had to be.

After getting sacked for the fourth time, Klein converted a 3rd-and-14 with a 24-yard sideline pass to Sheldon Smith. Two plays later, Klein hit Chris Harper with a perfect strike to the corner of the end zone. Texas cornerback Carrington Byndum never turned around on the throw and Harper snagged an easy touchdown to give K-State a 10-3 halftime lead.

Texas freshman QB David Ash threw his second interception to set up Klein's rushing touchdown. Ty Zimmerman returned the pick to the Texas 37 before a pass interference penalty against Byndum set up the Wildcats at the Texas 3. Klein plowed over Texas line-backer Emmanuel Acho to put K-State ahead 17-3.

Desperate for a spark on offense, the Longhorns pulled Ash for sophomore McCoy, who promptly drove Texas 81 yards to a touchdown on his 36-yard rollout pass to tight end Blaine Irby.

Texas got within 17-13 on Justin Tucker's second field goal and momentum seemed to be with the Longhorns until the final rally ended at midfield as time ran out. Texas snapped the ball as time expired and McCoy rolled around for several second before finally throwing a short pass that fell incomplete nowhere near the end zone.

Chris Harper recorded a TD catch with nine seconds remaining in the first half. It was his second catch of the drive.

John Hubert ran for 120 yards, 26 of which came on his game-winning touchdown with 3:29 remaining in the contest. The sophomore also hauled in two passes for 28 yards.

MANHATTAN, Kan. - John Hubert ran for 120 yards and the go-ahead touchdown Saturday, helping No. 16 Kansas State beat Iowa State 30-23 to finish second in the Big 12.

Picked to finish eighth in the league, K-State (10-2, 7-2) instead put together one of the best seasons in school history. Led by the 72-year-old Bill Snyder, the plucky Wildcats managed to beat everyone they faced except for Oklahoma and Oklahoma State, the latter of which ended up as Big 12 Champions.

Jeff Woody ran for 85 yards and two touchdowns for the Cyclones (6-6, 3-6), who became bowl eligible for the second time under Paul Rhoads when they knocked off the Cowboys a couple weeks ago.

They nearly managed another upset against the Wildcats.

Hubert scored the go-ahead touchdown on a tackle-breaking 26-yard run with 3:29 left, which gave Iowa State plenty of time to answer. Freshman quarterback Jared Barnett converted a pair of third downs to move into Kansas State territory, and then scrambled for eight yards on third-and-10.

Facing fourth-and-2 at the 31, Woody took the handoff and was stuffed at the line of scrimmage, the ball popping out. K-State recovered it to seal the win.

After lightning delayed the kickoff 90 minutes, the Cyclones jumped out to a 7-0 lead. Barnett threw a pass that wobbled so much it looked as if the ball was deflating, but Darius Darks managed to get the inside position on cornerback Nigel Malone and hauled in the 30-yard catch.

The Wildcats needed 15 seconds to answer.

Klein dropped back and floated a pass on a deep post route to Tramaine Thompson, one of the fastest players on the team. He caught it with his fingertips just past the outstretched hands of defensive back Ter'Ran Benton and raced the rest of the way untouched for the 68-yard touchdown, the longest play from scrimmage for Kansas State this season.

Iowa State regained the lead moments later when Woody plunged in from a yard out, but Zach Guyer's extra point was blocked by Raphael Guidry, his fourth blocked kick of the season.

Anthony Cantele kicked a 37-yard field goal for the Wildcats to get within 13-10.

Kansas State took over at its own 38 just before halftime, and Klein mixed in a couple of option keepers along with a pair of 14-yard completions to Hubert. The sophomore running back took the second of them down to the goal line, and Klein's TD sneak gave Kansas State a 17-13 lead at the break.

Guidry's second big play, this time an pick off a tipped ball, gave K-State prime field position early in the third, and Cantele's 47-yarder made it 20-13.

Iowa State responded by going 64 yards in 12 plays, converting three third downs, and Woody's rumbling 13-yard scamper allowed the Cyclones to draw even with 4:25 left in the quarter.

Tramaine Thompson hauled in this 68-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter to get K-State on the board.

More than 37,000 Wildcat fans filled Cowboys Stadium for the 2012 AT&T Cotton Bowl as K-State battled Arkansas in the 2012 Classic, its first appearance in the bowl since 2001.

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) - Junior Kansas State quarterback Collin Klein tied the Big 12 single-season for rushing touchdowns and the NCAA single season record by a quarterback but the No. 8 Wildcats came up short in the 2012 AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic in a 29-16 loss to No. 6 Arkansas.

Kansas State (10-3) was trying to match its school record with 11 victories, but still finished a surprising season in Snyder's second Wildcats turnaround. K-State won 11 games six times during a seven-year span in Snyder's first tenure before his three-year retirement, and almost reached that mark again in his third season back.

After being held to 15 yards on 12 carries in the first half, Klein finished the opening drive of the third quarter with a 6-yard TD run that got the Wildcats to 19-16. That came after Klein had a 15-yard run on the previous play.

That matched the Big 12 record for rushing touchdowns held by 1998 Heisman Trophy winner Ricky Williams of Texas. The only other FBS quarterback with 27 rushing touchdowns in a season was Ricky Dobbs for Navy in 2009.

Klein finished with 42 yards on 24 carries, while completing 16 of 30 passes for 173 yards.

The Razorbacks played their second game at Cowboys Stadium this season, three months after they overcame an 18-point halftime deficit to beat Big 12 team and future SEC foe Texas A&M 42-38.

In the return trip, Arkansas led the Big 12 opponent at halftime and had mostly throttled Klein and the Kansas State offense. It was the first game for new Razorbacks defensive coordinator Paul Haynes, who was hired in December after Willy Robinson resigned.

Tyler Wilson, who threw for a school-record 510 yards in that Oct. 1 game at Cowboys Stadium, was 20 of 31 for 216 yards against Kansas State. Jarius Wright, who had 13 catches for a record 287 yards against the Aggies, and three catches for 88 yards and a 45-yard TD in the Cotton Bowl.

The Cotton Bowl was the only non-BCS game with both teams in the top 10 of the Bowl Championship Series standings -- Arkansas came in sixth, Kansas State eighth. It also is the only bowl featuring the SEC vs. the Big 12, the top two conferences in the BCS computer rankings.

The Razorbacks didn't even get a first down until 12 1/2 minutes left in the first half when Dennis Johnson opened a drive with a 28-yard run. That drive ended with the second of Zach Hocker's three field goals, a 22-yarder.

Kansas State, which has lost its last four bowl games since beating Arizona State in the 2002 Holiday Bowl, blocked the extra point and Nigel Malone returned it for two points.

It was 19-9 at halftime after Klein threw a 3-yard TD pass to Andrew McDonald with 26 seconds left in the first half. That score was set up after Wilson was sacked by Adam Davis and fumbled at the Hogs' 13.

Arkansas led 3-0 after Jake Bequette sacked Klein and forced a fumble, setting up Hocker's 26-yard field goal. Tenarius Wright, jumped over a pile to recover the loose ball at the Kansas State 13.

Nigel Malone returned a Raphael Guidry blocked PAT for two points in the second quarter.

1982 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

WISCONSIN 14, KANSAS STATE 3
INDEPENDENCE STADIUM • SHREVEPORT, LA.
DECEMBER 11, 1982 • 49,523

Wisconsin quarterback Randy Wright tossed two touchdown passes and the Badgers overcame an early Kansas State lead for a hard-earned 14-3 victory over the Wildcats in the seventh annual Independence Bowl before an announced crowd of 49,523.

The low-scoring game was played in cold and wet conditions as a 23 mile-per-hour wind dropped temperatures to 10 below zero and made things difficult for both offenses.

After a scoreless first quarter, K-State took the game's first lead with 7:10 left in the second period when Steve Willis booted a 29-yard field goal after defensive end Bob Daniels recovered a fumble at the Badger 18-yard line.

The Wildcats' lead was short-lived, however. On Wisconsin's ensuing drive, the Badgers marched 79 yards in eight plays, scoring a touchdown on a 16-yard pass from Wright to Michael Jones for a 7-3 halftime lead.

Wisconsin struck again midway through the third quarter, when game offensive MVP Wright connected with Tim Stracka on an 87-yard pass for a 14-3 Badger advantage.

K-State drove deep into Wisconsin territory on its next two possessions, but was unable to score. One opportunity ended when a Wildcat pass was intercepted in the Badger end zone while the other was stymied at the Wisconsin 26-yard line when K-State could not convert on fourth down.

Darrell Ray Dickey completed just 13 of 35 passes for 127 yards and one interception on the game for 1982 Big Eight Coach of the Year Jim Dickey's Wildcat squad.

1993 COPPER BOWL

[20] KANSAS STATE 52, WYOMING 17
ARIZONA STADIUM • TUCSON, ARIZ.
DECEMBER 29, 1993 • 49,075

Kansas State put the finishing touches on one of the finest football seasons in school history with a 52-17 domination of Wyoming before 49,075 in the 1993 Copper Bowl.

Wyoming took a quick 3-0 lead on a 35-yard field goal, but K-State put its high-powered offense into overdrive and scored on its first three possessions. J.J. Smith put K-State on the board with a two-yard TD run and Tate Wright added a 22-yard field goal before K-State drove 76 yards on its third possession to take a 16-3 edge on a Chad May TD plunge.

All-American Andre Coleman closed out the first half with a 68-yard punt return to put K-State ahead 24-10 at the break then blew things open with a 61-yard touchdown catch just 54 seconds into the third quarter.

Freshman All-American Kevin Lockett put K-State ahead 38-10 midway through the third quarter with a 30-yard touchdown reception before reserve running back Leon Edwards added a 13-yard touchdown run and cornerback Kenny McEntyre provided the game's crowning moment with a 37-yard interception return for a score.

1994 ALOHA BOWL

BOSTON COLLEGE 12, [11] KANSAS STATE 7
ALOHA STADIUM • HONOLULU, HAWAII
DECEMBER 25, 1994 • 44,862

Kansas State played Boston College to a defensive standoff in the 1994 Aloha Bowl, but the Wildcat offense never got on track and fell 12-7 before 44,862 at Aloha Stadium.

The Eagles sacked K-State quarterback Chad May eight times, including a four-hit effort by end Mike Mamula, who was named the game's most valuable player.

BC couldn't distance itself from the Wildcats despite a 51-yard bolt by David Green on the game's second play. That carry led to an early 7-0 cushion for the Eagles but would be their only touchdown of the day.

K-State's lone score came with eight seconds left in the first quarter when Joe Gordon crashed the middle of BC's line and blocked a punt by Jeff Beckley. Chris Sublette recovered the ball on the first hop in the end zone and the game was tied, 7-7.

However, BC would answer with its own end zone patrol later in the half when Mamula applied the biggest of his hits on May for a safety with 2:37 left.

The Wildcats reached the BC 19 on their ensuing drive, but Eric Shorter intercepted a dropped pass in the flat on third-and-15 with 19 seconds left in the half.

Still, a defense that featured punter Eric Hardy, Gordon and a pair of 10-tackle performances from Chuck Marlowe and Mario Smith kept the Wildcats within striking distance until the end.

BC could only tack on a 35-yard field goal by David Gordon with 1:18 remaining in the second half.

1995 HOLIDAY BOWL

[10] KANSAS STATE 54, [25] COLORADO STATE 21
JACK MURPHY STADIUM • SAN DIEGO, CALIF.
DECEMBER 29, 1995 • 51,051

For the second time in three years, Kansas State ran roughshod over the Western Athletic Conference's best as the Wildcats outran, outplayed and outscored Colorado State for a 54-21 win in front of 51,051 fans in the 1995 Plymouth Holiday Bowl at Jack Murphy Stadium.

K-State began the scoring on an Eric Hickson 4-yard run with 11:21 left in the first quarter. After CSU responded with a touchdown to knot the score at 7-7, it was all K-State.

The Wildcats outscored the Rams, 19-0, in the second quarter by virtue of an interception return by safety Mario Smith and a blocked punt. Brian Kavanagh, who would earn the game's Offensive MVP award, came in for the injured Matt Miller in the second quarter and immediately put the ball in the end zone.

Kavanagh completed 18-of-24 passes for 242 yards and a Holiday Bowl-record tying four touchdowns. The junior signal-caller tossed scoring strikes to Brian Lojka, Tyson Schwieger, Kevin Lockett and Mitch Running.

On the defensive side of the ball, Mario Smith's pair of interceptions earned him MVP honors.

1997 COTTON BOWL

[5] BYU 19, [14] KANSAS STATE 15
COTTON BOWL • DALLAS, TEXAS
JANUARY 1, 1997 • 71,928

An estimated 45,000 K-State fans descended on Dallas to watch the Wildcats in their first-ever New Year's Day Bowl and were witness to one of the most exciting games of the bowl season.

After taking a 15-5 lead following a 72-yard touchdown pass from Brian Kavanagh to Kevin Lockett, BYU quarterback Steve Sarkisian tossed two fourth-quarter touchdowns to lead No. 5 BYU to a 19-15 Cotton Bowl victory.

Following Sarkisian's 28-yard scoring strike to Kealaluhi with 3:39 remaining in the game, Kavanagh drove the Wildcats to the BYU 12-yard line with about one minute remaining. But Kavanagh's pass to Jimmy Dean was picked off at the 3-yard line by Omarr Morgan to preserve BYU's win.

The game's first score came when Cotton Bowl Defensive MVP Shay Muirbrook tackled Kavanagh in the end zone for a safety in the first quarter. After the free kick, BYU scored again on an Ethan Pochman 39-yard field goal.

K-State had a hard time getting on track until the final play of the first half when Kavanagh heaved a Hail Mary into the end zone, where, after the ball was deflected by a BYU defender, K-State's Andre Anderson scooped the ball in for a touchdown. Following the PAT that gave K-State a 7-5 lead, a penalty on BYU forced the teams to return from the locker room, giving Wildcats a shot for two points. Mike Lawrence made it pay off giving K-State an 8-5 halftime lead.

1997 FIESTA BOWL

[9] KANSAS STATE 35, [14] SYRACUSE 18
SUN DEVIL STADIUM • TEMPE, ARIZ.
DECEMBER 31, 1997 • 69,367

Kansas State capped one of its best seasons in school history with a 35-18 win over No. 14 Syracuse in the 1997 Fiesta Bowl.

Wildcat quarterback Michael Bishop stole the show by throwing for four touchdowns on 14-of-23 passing for 317 yards.

Darnell McDonald was on the receiving end of seven Bishop passes and turned them into a school-record 206 yards and three scores. His 77-yard reception in the fourth quarter was the longest in Fiesta Bowl history.

After allowing Syracuse to jump out to a 3-0 lead on the first of Nate Trout's three field goals, Bishop led the Wildcats to three consecutive TDs in the second quarter.

The first came following a failed fake field goal attempt by Syracuse, culminating in a 19-yard pass to McDonald. Bishop followed with a 12-yard TD dash on K-State's next possession, and wrapped up the first-half scoring with a 28-yard completion to Justin Swift on a tight end screen.

Syracuse scored 12 points in the final 2:18 to close within 21-15 at the half. Following a scoreless third quarter, Bishop and the Wildcats put away the Orangemen behind 77-yard and 41-yard touchdowns to McDonald.

Bishop was named the Offensive Player of the Game, while Travis Ochs was Named Defensive Player of the Game.

1998 ALAMO BOWL

PURDUE 37, [4] KANSAS STATE 34

ALAMODOME • SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS
DECEMBER 29, 1998 • 60,780

With more than 30,000 purple-clad fans cheering the Wildcats on, unranked Purdue shocked No. 4 Kansas State, 37-34, in the sixth annual Builders Square Alamo Bowl.

After a scoreless first quarter, the teams exploded for 71 points over the final three periods. Purdue was the first to get things going, taking a 17-7 halftime lead courtesy of a pair of Drew Brees TD passes and a 25-yard Travis Dorsch field goal.

Fumble recoveries in the end zone by both squads and another Dorsch field goal with four seconds to go in the third staked Purdue to a 27-13 lead heading into the final stanza.

But the Wildcats put together a furious rally over the final 15 minutes. David Allen scored from three yards out to get things going before Michael Bishop hit Darnell McDonald for an Alamo Bowl record 88-yard touchdown strike that pulled the Cats within a field goal at 30-27. Then, with just 1:24 left in the game, Bishop connected with Justin Swift for a 2-yard touchdown and a 34-30 K-State lead.

Brees then engineered an 80-yard drive that ended with a 24-yard pass to Isaac Jones to put the Boilermakers ahead for good at 37-34 with 30 seconds remaining.

1999 HOLIDAY BOWL

[7] KANSAS STATE 24, WASHINGTON 20

QUALCOMM STADIUM • SAN DIEGO, CALIF.
DECEMBER 29, 1998 • 57,118

Kansas State used a stiff defense and three rushing touchdowns by quarterback Jonathan Beasley to defeat Washington, 24-20, in the 1999 Holiday Bowl.

Trailing 20-17 late in the third quarter, the Wildcats embarked on a 20-play, 92-yard drive that took 9 minutes, 54 seconds off the clock to score the eventual game-winning touchdown. The drive was set up after senior Lamar Chapman picked off Marques Tuiasosopo.

K-State took a 17-13 lead on its first possession of the second half, scoring on an 11-yard run by Beasley, the game's Offensive MVP. The Huskies struck back with Maurice Shaw scoring on a 5-yard run to cap a 73-yard drive.

The first half was a back-and-forth affair that saw the Huskies take a 13-10 lead into the locker room.

Washington got on the board first when John Anderson booted his first of two first-half field goals just 3:32 into the contests. K-State quickly responded as Beasley drove the Cats 47 yards on the ensuing possession, calling his own number from one yard out to cap the eight-play drive.

A 41-yard Jamie Rheem field goal pushed K-State's lead to 10-6, but the Huskies would put the half's final points on the board on a Pat Conniff 3-yard TD run.

2001 COTTON BOWL

[11] KANSAS STATE 35, [21] TENNESSEE 21

COTTON BOWL • DALLAS, TEXAS
JANUARY 1, 2001 • 63,465

Jonathan Beasley threw two touchdowns and rushed for another as Kansas State rolled to a 35-21 win over Tennessee in the 65th annual Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl Classic.

Beasley, the game's Offensive MVP, had touchdown passes of 56 and 10 yards to Quincy Morgan to key a rally in the second quarter. The touchdown throws, which came three minutes apart, turned a 7-7 tie into a 21-7 Wildcat lead.

Tennessee pulled within seven points before halftime when Jabari Greer scored on a 78-yard interception return.

But Kansas State got two touchdown runs from Josh Scobey in the third quarter to regain its cushion. Scobey finished with 147 yards on a career-high 28 carries, the most yards ever by a Wildcat in a bowl game.

Travis Henry's 81-yard run late in the game was the final Volunteers score. Henry finished with 180 yards on 17 carries.

Beasley totaled 210 yards on a 13-for-27 passing. He also rushed for 98 yards on 17 carries and put the Wildcats on the scoreboard first with a 14-yard run late in the first quarter.

Senior defensive end Chris Johnson was the Defensive MVP after leading the Wildcats with four tackles, including two sacks of Tennessee QB Casey Clausen, who completed just seven passes while tossing three interceptions.

2001 INSIGHT.COM BOWL

[18] SYRACUSE 26, KANSAS STATE 3

BANKONE BALLPARK • PHOENIX, ARIZ.

DECEMBER 29, 2001 • 40,028

Syracuse running back James Mungro rushed for 112 yards and three touchdowns to lead Syracuse to a 26-3 victory over Kansas State in the 2001 Insight.com Bowl at Phoenix's Bank One Ballpark.

Mungro scored on runs of 65, 1 and 1 yard to pace the Orange offense. SU added touchdown in the fourth quarter on a 52-yard pass from Robin Anderson to Johnnie Morant.

Junior Marc Dunn led the Wildcats with 151 yards passing in relief of starter Eli Roberson. Dunn completed 12-of-25 passes with one interception. Roberson was 2-for-15 for 70 yards for the Wildcats, who were sacked five times.

Mungro opened the scoring on his 65-yard run midway through the first quarter.

Kansas State responded just two minutes later with a 29-yard field goal by freshman Joe Rheem. The drive was sparked by a 47-yard pass from Roberson to Aaron Lockett and a 27-yard carry by Scobey.

Syracuse took advantage of a fumble deep in Wildcat territory early in the second quarter. Mungro scored from the 1-yard line to convert the turnover, but the extra-point was blocked by Josh Buhl.

On the next play from scrimmage, Willie Ford got the first of his two interceptions to set up the Orangemen again. Two plays later, Mungro went over from the 1-yard line again, but Buhl again blocked the extra-point.

2002 HOLIDAY BOWL

[6] KANSAS STATE 34, ARIZONA STATE 27

QUALCOMM STADIUM • SAN DIEGO, CALIF.

DECEMBER 27, 2002 • 58,717

Derrick Evans caught a 10-yard touchdown pass from Eli Roberson with 1:15 left in the game to lift Kansas State to its first and only lead as the Wildcats defeated Arizona State, 34-27, in the 2002 Pacific Life Holiday Bowl.

Evans' catch completed a K-State comeback from deficits of 10-0, 20-7 and 27-20. Roberson, voted the Offensive MVP of the game, rushed for 63 yards, including touchdowns of 32, 3 and 1 yards, and totaled 215 yards through the air on 11-for-28 passing.

Roberson's 32-yard sprint came with just 54 seconds left in the second half and pulled the Wildcats within 20-14. Just 31 seconds earlier, Mike Barth converted on a 39-yard field goal to give ASU its largest lead of the game at 20-7.

K-State tied the game at 20-20 early in the fourth quarter when Roberson went in from three yards out. But Sun Devil quarterback Andrew Walter, who threw for 293 yards on 28-for-57 passing, found Mike Williams for a 10-yard score to put ASU back ahead on its next possession.

The Wildcats responded with an 80-yard drive on its next opportunity, setting up Roberson's 1-yard touchdown dive that tied the game again at 27-27 with 6:41 left, then forced a Sun Devil punt that Terence Newman returned 27 yards. From there, K-State needed just seven plays to cover 59 yards for the game-winning touchdown.

2004 FIESTA BOWL

[7] OHIO STATE 35, [8] KANSAS STATE 28

SUN DEVIL STADIUM • TEMPE, ARIZ.

JANUARY 2, 2004 • 73,425

Kansas State started slowly but finished with a fury in the 33rd Annual Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. But it wasn't enough to overcome a 21-point third-quarter deficit as the Wildcats lost a hard fought 35-28 decision to Ohio State in their first ever BCS bowl game at Sun Devil Stadium.

Trailing 35-14 heading into the fourth quarter, Ayo Saba scored from three yards out and closed the game to 14 points. Eli Roberson's second rushing touchdown with just 2:47 to go then pulled K-State within a touchdown.

After recovering the ensuing on-sides kick, the Wildcats were flagged for being offsides, forcing a re-kick. This time the Buckeyes recovered at the K-State 36.

But the Wildcats held and got the ball back at their own 10-yard line with 1:12 to play. A 21-yard completion to Davin Dennis moved the ball to the K-State 26. On the next play Roberson connected with Jermaine Moreira for 26 yards to the OSU 48 to get Kansas State within striking distance.

However, Roberson's desperation pass from midfield was batted down at the 2, allowing Ohio State to escape with its second straight Fiesta Bowl victory.

2006 TEXAS BOWL

[16] RUTGERS 37, KANSAS STATE 10

RELIANT STADIUM • HOUSTON, TEXAS
DECEMBER 28, 2006 • 52,210

Kansas State hung with No. 16 Rutgers for 30 minutes, but the Scarlet Knights scored 20 unanswered points in the second half to hand the Wildcats a 37-10 loss in the inaugural Texas Bowl before 52,210 fans at Reliant Stadium.

Ray Rice, the Texas Bowl MVP, rushed for 170 yards and a touchdown and Tim Brown caught two TD passes, for the Scarlet Knights, who claimed their first bowl victory in 137 seasons of intercollegiate football.

Brown's two TD catches came in the opening period and staked Rutgers to a quick 14-0 lead.

Kansas State answered with a 44-yard field goal by Jeff Snodgrass and a 76-yard punt return for a touchdown by Yamon Figs that was the longest in K-State bowl history to close the gap to 14-10 midway through the second quarter.

But Jeremy Ito connected on a 37-yard field goal to close the half and linebacker Quintero Frierson returned an interception 27 yards for a touchdown on the first play from scrimmage of the second half to put Rutgers ahead 24-10.

Rice sprinted 46-yards for his lone touchdown of the game on the Scarlet Knights' next possession before Ito closed out the scoring with a pair of fourth-quarter field goals for the final margin.

2010 PINSTRIPE BOWL

SYRACUSE 36, KANSAS STATE 34

YANKEE STADIUM • BRONX, NY
DECEMBER 30, 2010 • 38,274

The first Pinstripe Bowl turned into a home run derby.

Delone Carter ran for 198 yards and two touchdowns, Marcus Sales caught three long TD passes and Syracuse got some help from a celebration penalty on Kansas State to beat the Wildcats 36-34 on Thursday at Yankee Stadium.

Adrian Hilburn slipped a tackle and raced to a 30-yard touchdown catch with 1:13 remaining to pull Kansas State within two. Hilburn saluted the crowd behind the visitor's dugout and was flagged 15 yards for unsportsmanlike conduct, which pushed the 2-point conversion attempt back to the 17-yard line.

Carson Coffman overthrew Aubrey Quarles in the end zone, and when Kansas State (7-6) couldn't come up with the onside kick, Syracuse (8-5) only had to take a knee to win a bowl game for the first time since 2001.

Daniel Thomas ran for three touchdowns for Kansas State, which was making its first bowl appearance since 2006.

In a bowl season filled with blowouts so far, the first bowl game in New York in 48 years turned out to be a hit.

2012 COTTON BOWL

ARKANSAS 29, KANSAS STATE 16

COWBOYS STADIUM • ARLINGTON, TX
JANUARY 6, 2012 • 80,956

Junior Kansas State quarterback Collin Klein tied the Big 12 single-season for rushing touchdowns and the NCAA single-season record by a quarterback but the No. 8 Wildcats came up short in the 2012 AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic in a 29-16 loss to No. 6 Arkansas.

Kansas State (10-3) was trying to match its school record with 11 victories, but still finished a surprising season in Snyder's second Wildcats turnaround. K-State won 11 games six times during a seven-year span in Snyder's first tenure before his three-year retirement, and almost reached that mark again in his third season back.

The Cotton Bowl was the only non-BCS game with both teams in the top 10 of the Bowl Championship Series standings -- Arkansas came in sixth, Kansas State eighth. It also is the only bowl featuring the SEC vs. the Big 12, the top two conferences in the BCS computer rankings.

RETIRED NUMBER 11

The No. 11 jersey of quarterbacks Lynn Dickey and Steve Grogan was retired by Kansas State to honor the pair, who each donned the number while leading the Wildcats during some of the school's most successful football seasons. It is the only time in school history that a number has been retired in any sport.

11 • LYNN DICKEY

Quarterback
1968-70

Lynn Dickey, a native of Osawatomie, Kan., spent most of his NFL career with the Green Bay Packers but also played several seasons with the Houston Oilers. He threw for more than 21,000 yards with the Packers, including 4,458 yards in 1983 which at the time ranked second in NFL history.

Dickey still holds numerous K-State passing records and ranks third on the Big Eight's all-time list with 6,208 career passing yards. He is also second on K-State's all-time total offense chart.

Dickey was chosen as the first-team quarterback on the all-time Big Eight football team in 1995 and is a charter member of the K-State Sports Hall of Fame (1990). He was inducted into the State of Kansas Sports Hall of Fame in 1997.

11 • STEVE GROGAN

Quarterback
1972-74

Grogan retired from the NFL following the 1990 season after an illustrious career with the New England Patriots.

Grogan held nearly every New England career passing record, including yards (26,886) and touchdowns (182). He joined the team as a rookie in 1975 and led the franchise to its first Super Bowl appearance in 1986.

A native of Ottawa, Kan., Grogan still stands ninth on K-State's career list for total offense and 11th in passing yards.

Grogan is a member of the K-State Sports Hall of Fame (1995) and was inducted into the State of Kansas Sports Hall of Fame in 1999.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

MARK SIMONEAU Linebacker 1996-1999

Former K-State Consensus All-American Mark Simoneau will become just the second Wildcat football player and first under head coach Bill Snyder to be elected to the Hall of Fame. He will be enshrined in December as a member of the Class of 2012.

Simoneau was a Consensus All-American and the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year in 1999 en route to being the runner-up for the Butkus Award that same season. A K-State Ring of Honor inductee and a four-year starter for Snyder, Simoneau led the Wildcats to a 42-7 record during his career while totaling 400 career tackles and a school-record 251 unassisted stops. K-State also collected a 28-4 Big 12 record during Simoneau's career, won two Big 12 North titles and appeared in four straight bowl games.

GARY SPANI Linebacker 1974-77

Gary Spani became the first Kansas State player to be inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002. A member of the K-State Sports Hall of Fame (2000) and the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame (2004), Spani was Kansas State's first-ever consensus All-American in 1977, and also was a three-time All-Big-8 Conference selection.

Spani led the Wildcats in tackles three straight season and was twice named the team's most valuable player. To this day, he continues to dominate the Kansas State career record book as the program's all-time leader in career tackles (543), assisted tackles (343) and assists in a season (110).

Following graduation in 1978, Spani was chosen in the third round of the National Football League draft by the Kansas City Chiefs. He went on to play all nine years of his career with the Chiefs and led the organization in tackles four straight seasons.

CHARLES BACHMAN Head Coach 1920-27

Charles Bachman, who coached the K-State football team from 1920-27, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame on Jan. 8, 1978. Bachman began his coaching career at Great Lakes Naval Station in 1918 and led that team to the 1918 Rose Bowl title and the national championship. He moved to Northwestern University in 1919 before joining the Wildcats in 1920. A member of the K-State Sports Hall of Fame (1995), Bachman's eight-year won-loss record at K-State was 33-23-9.

"PAPPY" WALDORF Head Coach 1934

Lynn O. "Pappy" Waldorf coached K-State to its first football championship in 1934 while posting a 7-2-1 record in the Big Six Conference with wins over Oklahoma, Nebraska and Kansas. He was elected into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1966. A graduate of Syracuse, his coaching career included stops at Oklahoma City University (13-5-3, 1926-27), as assistant at Kansas in 1928, at Oklahoma A&M (34-10-7, 1929-33), Kansas State (7-2-1, 1934), Northwestern (49-45-7, 1935-46) and California (67-32-4, 1947-56).

BSFS has seen eight sellouts since 2009

Renamed in honor of legendary head football coach Bill Snyder by a proclamation of the Kansas Board of Regents on Nov. 16, 2005, Bill Snyder Family Stadium will host its 46th season of Wildcat football this fall.

Originally named KSU Stadium, the facility was built at a cost of $1.6 million and financed from student fees, athletics gate receipts and contributions. The stadium opened its doors Sept. 21, 1968, with a 21-0 shutout of Colorado State. The original seating capacity was set at 35,000, and an expansion in the summer of 1970 added 4,000 permanent bleachers on the east side and 3,000 temporary bleachers on the west side.

Following the 1998 season, the addition of a deck and sky suites on the east side of the stadium increased capacity to more than 50,000. On Nov. 11, 2000, 53,811 fans witnessed Kansas State's 29-28 win over Nebraska. It remains the largest crowd ever to witness a sporting event in the state of Kansas.

Multi-million dollar upgrades to the Vanier Sports Complex, the installation of new video and message boards, including a 23' X 61' ProStar VideoPlus display in the south end zone in 2006, and a complete upgrade of the lower bowl seating for 2007 are some of the major additions to the facility over the last several years.

Bill Snyder Family Stadium's most recent changes include a new playing surface - AstroTurf's Gameday Grass 3D infill system - and new restroom additions to the east side view level, while a $75 million project to construct the new West Stadium Center began this past summer. The following is a rundown of the other facelifts that have been added during the 44-year history of the stadium:

1970: A statewide spring fund-raising drive raised $250,000 for the installation of AstroTurf, replacing the original natural grass.

1972: The office/dressing room complex at the north end of the stadium was added. It houses all the K-State football offices and has dressing facilities for the Wildcats and their opponents.

1980: New artificial turf was installed prior to the season.

1983: Permanent stadium lights were added allowing the Wildcats to play night games.

1987: An addition to the office/dressing room complex was made in the summer of 1987, which provided more dressing and training room facilities.

1989-1992: A $2 million renovation project was undertaken to revamp the entire football complex. The result is one of the most spectacular football complexes in the country, complete with plush locker rooms, a 6,500-square foot weight room, state of the art classrooms equipped with the latest video equipment, a training room, a players' lounge and the picturesque Big Eight Room. The structure now carries the title "Vanier Football Complex" in honor of the Vanier family of Brookville, Kan.

1991: New AstroTurf was laid down prior to the 1991 season, and the field was named "Wagner Field" in honor of Dave and Carol Wagner of Dodge City.

1993: K-State put the finishing touches on its facility improvements with a $3.3 million five-level press box, including suites, and a $2.2 million indoor facility.

1996: The $1 million Academic Learning Center became a part of the Vanier Complex, hosting study facilities for all K-State student-athletes. A $2.6 million project added a 20x26 foot JumboTron, new scoreboards and marquis messageboard.

1999: Following the 1998 season, the facility underwent a $12.8 million expansion project. An additional 8,000 permanent seats were added, including a club seating area and 31 additional sky suites. The project raised the total capacity of KSU Stadium to over 50,000 with temporary seating.

2002: A new FieldTurf playing surface is installed. The $850,000 project was completed in late May of 2002 and features an innovative sand and rubber infill mixture and is the newest technology in competitive field products.

2003-07: The Vanier Football Complex received a complete makeover that includes a new training facility, weight room, equipment room, coaches' offices, meeting rooms, locker room and permanent seating in the north end zone.

2006: New video and message boards are installed at the north and south ends of Bill Snyder Family Stadium at a cost of $1.7 million. The south end of the stadium receives a fully integrated ProStar VideoPlus display system that measures a whopping 23' X 61'.

2007: The seating in the lower bowl of Bill Snyder Family Stadium is completely upgraded, including new chairbacks below the press box on the west side of the stadium and aluminum benches throughout the balance of the lower bowl. A new stadium sound system was also installed.

2011: Phase 1 of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master renovation plan began. A new AstroTurf Gameday Grass 3D infill playing surface was installed as well as construction of additional restroom facilities on the east side view level of the stadium.

2012: Construction began on Phase II of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan - the West Stadium Center. The new $75 million WSC will include new amenities for all fans at Bill Snyder Family Stadium. New concessions, restrooms, press level, suites, club and loge seating and ticket offices will replace the current west side facilities. Additionally, a new Team Fan Store and Hall of Honor will be included on the main Concourse Level.

Note: Prior to the opening of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, the Wildcats played in Memorial Stadium, which opened in 1924 and still stands on the main campus.

WILDCAT NICKNAME

Through its first 19 seasons of athletic competition, Kansas State had used "Aggies" as its nickname. But prior to the 1915 season, new coach John "Chief" Bender gave his squad the nickname "Wildcats."

K-STATE COLORS

The school color Royal Purple was adopted in the fall of 1896 by a committee of "Miss Minnie L. Copeland, Jr. and Miss Winifred Houghton and Miss Ina E. Holyrod, of the senior class, and perhaps one or more others." Although K-State's only official color is purple, white has been used as a complimentary color for many years. Silver is also a common second or third color. Former head basketball coach Cotton Fitzsimmons incorporated gold during his two-year stint (1968-70), but gold or yellow has not been used since that time. The term "Purple Pride," which is often used in association with K-State athletics, was given rise during the tenure of head football coach Vince Gibson (1967-74).

K-STATE SONGS

The Alma Mater was selected as a result of a 1903 campus contest. H.W. Jones ('88) was responsible for K-State's prized result. Jones' original work was four stanzas including the chorus. His version has been slightly altered over the years to include just two stanzas and the changing of the words from Kansas State Agricultural College to Kansas State University.

Alma Mater

"I know a spot that I love full well, 'Tis not in forest nor yet in dell, ever it holds me with magic spell, I think of thee Alma Mater.

"KSU, we'll carry the banner high, KSU long, long may thy colors fly. Loyal to thee thy children shall swell the cry.

"Hail, Hail, Hail Alma Mater."

Wildcat Victory

"Fight you K-State Wildcats. For Alma Mater fight-fight-fight.

"Glory in the combat for the purple and white. Faithful to our colors, we shall ever be, fighting ever fighting for a Wildcat Victory!"

FIRST GAME

History has forgotten the actual score of the first football game played at the school now called Kansas State University.

On Dec. 2, 1892, a team from Kansas State Agricultural College played its first game. At "quarter back" was a sophomore from Cofax, Ill., named A.D. Benson. Benson had introduced his school-mates to football when he arrived at KSAC in 1891.

The sport, however, was quickly banned by the college. Five years later, the school's newspaper, the K-State Industrialist, remarked, "It is hoped that our students have the good sense to play even football without violence, but the game as sometimes played is next to barbarism."

In 1896, KSAC played the first game now recorded in K-State's list of all-time scores. A team coached by Ira Pratt traveled to Fort Riley on Thanksgiving Day and lost to a squad comprised of soldiers, 14-0. Later that fall, KSAC played Fort Riley again, and this time the game ended in a 6-6 tie. It was during the 1896 season that KSAC adopted the mascot "Aggies," and selected Royal Purple as the school's official color.

FIRST NIGHT GAME

On Oct. 7, 1932, Kansas State played its first night football game in school history. The team traveled to Salina, Kan., to play Kansas Wesleyan on a Friday evening and won 52-6, before a crowd of about 4,000. All-time great Ralph Graham, known as The Rammer, scored 28 points on four touchdowns and four extra points.

Fifteen years later, on Sept. 20, 1947, K-State played its first night game in Manhattan, losing 12-0 to Oklahoma State at Memorial Stadium.

K-STATE SLOGANS

Several chants and slogans are used in association with the team. "Purple Pride" and "Eat 'Em Up, Eat 'Em Up K-S-U" are just a few. The slogan "Every Man A Wildcat" was popular in the '50s, '60s and early '70s, and once adorned the front of the Ahearn Field House press box. Since the term referred to only one gender, however, it has faded.

Kansas State, itself, is referred to in many different shortened versions. The most popular is "K-State," which is used by alums, friends and journalists from coast to coast.

POWERCAT LOGO

One of the most recognizable athletic logos in the nation is the K-State Powercat. The logo was introduced by Bill Snyder shortly after his arrival in Manhattan as the attitude of the entire athletics department and university was changing.

Manhattan native Tom Bookwalter, in cooperation with head coach Bill Snyder, created the powerful logo that is a prominent feature on the K-State football helmet, at Wagner Field, on the back of the Dev Nelson Pressbox, clothing, flags, bottled water, vanity plates for cars and just about anywhere in Manhattan.

Previous logos used by the athletics department included a line drawing of a wildcat head and the "Willie the Wildcat" that is used today by the Alumni Association.

WILLIE WILDCAT

Willie, a student bedecked in an oversized Wildcat head, is Kansas State's No. 1 fan. Willie Wildcats are selected yearly by a panel appointed by the cheerleading coach. The mascot is a central part of athletic contests, but also attends functions around the state as an ambassador. Traditionally, the identity of the student portraying Willie is kept secret.

TOUCHDOWN I-XI

In 1922, Hall-of-Famer Charles Bachman asked alumni to consider donating an actual Wildcat to the school to serve as a mascot. KSAC alumni Herbert R. Groome and John E. McCoy, both veterinarians in Twin Falls, Idaho, donated "Touchdown I" to the school shortly after the animal was nursed back to health under their care. (The bobcat had an encounter with a porcupine, and his face and throat were punctured by numerous quills. Unfortunately, Touchdown I never fully recovered from its fight, dying of pneumonia shortly after arriving in Manhattan.)

Although several bobcats served as Kansas State's wildcat mascot since being introduced in 1922, the animals no longer attend K-State games. Touchdown XI, the 11th in the line, was kept at Manhattan's Sunset Zoo.

WABASH CANNONBALL

Everyone knows that familiar tune Wabash Cannonball. In fact, Wabash and K-State are almost synonymous. What many people do not know is how the song became an integral part of Wildcat athletics. In the fall of 1968 the department of music burnt down. Every piece of music in the building was destroyed. The only thing that was salvaged was what was in the band director's brief case. That included a piece of music titled the Wabash Cannonball. With an upcoming basketball game and no music, that left only one thing to do. The band members played the song loud and often. A song that originally had no connection to KSU became a second fight song.

TROPHY GAME

The Governor's Trophy Game between Kansas State University and the University of Kansas was initiated in 1969 by Gov. Robert Docking. The original traveling trophy was retired following the 1996 K-State victory. A new trophy was introduced following the 48-16 win at Manhattan in 1997. The trophy is presented to the winning team and coaches in the winner's dressing room immediately following each year's game.

1896 Team Traveling to First Game

GOOD FOR A WILDCAT FIRST DOWN!

It was 1993 and the first year of the new $3.3 million press box. K-State's public address announcer began what would become a K-State tradition. After a Wildcat first down, he would say, "Good for a Wildcat first down." Throughout the 1993 season, the P.A. announcer did this ritual alone. However, at the beginning of the 1994 season the crowd started to join in on the catchy phrase and began to shout it with him. Now, with the addition of the first down and touchdown arm motions, K-State's P.A. announcer no longer even needs to finish the phrase as the Wildcat fans finish it for him.

"Good for a Wildcat..."

ROBINSON BREAKS COLOR BARRIER

In 1948, Harold Robinson graduated from Manhattan High School and prepared to become Kansas State's first black student-athlete. After sitting out the 1948 season as all freshmen were required, K-State head coach Ralph Graham in 1949 made Robinson the first African-American to receive an athletic scholarship in the Big Seven Conference.

Robinson, who passed away in May of 2006, was named an All-Conference center in 1950, his junior season, despite playing for a 1-9-1 K-State team. Robinson gained the considerable respect of opponents and fans despite the smoldering racism that was so pervasive during his playing days. He wasn't allowed to stay at the same hotel as his teammates on many road trips, instead staying in private residences. Hoyt Givens did not play in 1949, but joined Robinson on the varsity in 1950 as a non-scholarship player.

Following Robinson as a barrier breaker in Big Seven baseball in 1952 was Earl Woods, the father of golf superstar Tiger Woods. Other K-Staters instrumental in breaking down the color barrier were Gene Wilson in basketball in 1952, Veryl Switzer, Norman Mills, Clifford Bizek and Herman Wilson in track in 1953 and Don Harris in tennis in 1952. Switzer earned All-America honors in football and went on to be the fourth player selected in the NFL draft by the Green Bay Packers in 1954.

RING OF HONOR

Kansas State started a new tradition in 2002, as the football program announced the inaugural Ring of Honor Class. The distinction is designed to recognize those in the football program who have distinguished themselves on and off the field. Among the criteria considered is graduation from Kansas State with a student-athlete having been out of school for at least five years, quality of character, whether the person is an excellent representative of K-State and whether a person has achieved performance that warrants consensus All-America level status at K-State.

KEN OCHS COURAGE AWARD

Ken Ochs was a 6-foot, 208-pound long shot to make the K-State football team in 1966. The La Crosse, Kan., native made the K-State team but suffered a leg injury during that spring's drills. After his leg didn't respond to treatment, it was discovered that Ochs had a malignant bone tumor. His leg was amputated six inches above the knee. Ochs returned to K-State and earned his degree in the spring of 1969. By then, he was a manager for the football team, and the program had named an honor for personal courage in his name. Ochs died of cancer Oct. 3, 1969.

HARLEY DAY

A creation of former athletic director Max Urick, Harley Day, is one of the most popular days of the year for Wildcat fans. Led by Willie Wildcat, Harley Day participants, with their engines blaring,

GOLDEN CATS

One of the truly unique aspects of Kansas State football is the Golden Cats Program - a group of former K-State football players, managers, trainers, coaches and support staff who make contributions directly to the football program. The primary purpose is to bring together all of the past members of the football program, to provide opportunities for them to reunite and spend time with teammates of the past, support the student-athletes who presently represent their program and help unite Kansas State in a way never accomplished before.

The Golden Cat program was developed in 1990 with each Golden Cat making a financial contribution to help assist with capital improvements related to football. The Golden Cat Club is the strongest team-sport support group at K-State. The club has provided strong financial assistance through the purchase of such things as weight equipment, rehab equipment and computers for the Academic Learning Center.

For the Golden Cats, it's a great opportunity to give back to the program, plus they can witness first-hand how their contributions have enhanced the opportunities of football student-athletes. In turn, the Golden Cats truly remain a part of the program, while receiving various privileges such as the brass name plates, pregame tailgate parties, Golden Cat clothing, video tapes, game program recognition and other memorabilia.

What will K-State look like in 2025? K-Staters have an idea. President Kirk Schulz, Provost April Mason, students, staff and alumni are working toward the goal of becoming recognized nationally as a top 50 public research university in the next 13 years. To do that the university is working to boost total research and development expenditures, the total endowment and the number of undergraduate students involved in research, among other goals. In many ways K-State is already well on its way to meeting this goal. Check out the progress at www.k-state.edu/2025.

History and Location

Founded on Feb. 16, 1863, Kansas State University is the first public institution of higher education in Kansas and the first operational land-grant university. It was located on the grounds of the old Blumont Central College, which was chartered in 1858. The university moved to its present site in 1875.

Throughout its history, K-State's mission has been rooted in the principles set forth in the Morrill Act: to provide teaching, research and service to the citizens of Kansas and beyond.

The 644-acre wooded main campus with historic limestone buildings is located in northern Manhattan (population 52,000) and is convenient to both business and residential districts. It is located 125 miles west of Kansas City in the rolling Flint Hills of northeast Kansas. The university also has a campus in Salina and the Olathe campus in the Kansas City metro area. The K-State Salina campus offers master's, bachelor's and associate's degrees. The Olathe campus offers master's and doctoral-level curricula and research in animal health and food safety and security. K-State also has numerous extension fields, offices and other facilities in Kansas and Nebraska.

The university hosts the prestigious Landon Lectures on Public Issues, honoring the late Kansas statesman Alfred M. Landon. Since 1966 the series has featured more than 150 nationally prominent speakers. Past speakers include U.S. Supreme Court Associate Justice Sonia Sotomayor, and presidents Richard Nixon, Jimmy Carter, Gerald Ford, Richard Nixon, Ronald Reagan, George H.W. Bush, George W. Bush and Bill Clinton.

One of the six universities governed by the Kansas Board of Regents, Kansas State University continues to fulfill its historical educational mission in teaching, research and public service.

Student Achievement

Academic achievement of the institution is drawing national acclaim as well. Kansas State University is a national leader among public universities in the total number of Rhodes, Marshall, Truman, Goldwater and Udall prestigious scholarship winners.

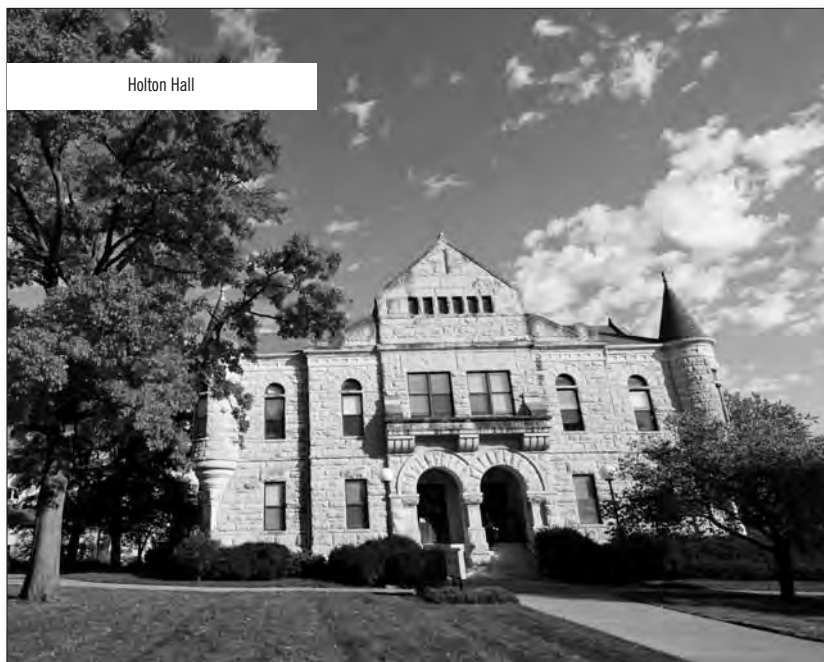

K-State students have an outstanding record when it comes to winning national competitions. K-Staters have placed in the top five in areas like robotics, debate, forensics, aviation, construction science, architecture, leadership and more.

Academic Recognition

- K-State's art program in the College of Arts and Sciences is one of the top 287 of 3,000 art programs in the country, based on accreditation statistics from the National Association of School of Art and Design.
- The K-State Department of Physics is the only department in the nation to have two national professors of the year recognized by The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching and the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE).
- DesignIntelligence magazine ranked all three of the College of Architecture, Planning & Design's eligible programs among the Top 10 programs in the nation.
- The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business ranked K-State's College of Business among the top 10% of business schools in the U.S. that are accredited in both the business and accounting programs.
- The College of Engineering is ranked 10th in the nation by US News & World Report among land-grant universities without medical schools.
- The K-State College of Agriculture is a top ten undergraduate program when considering increasing enrollment, competition team success, faculty recognition, and graduate and veterinary school acceptance.
- U.S. News and World Report ranks graduate programs in the College of Education 41st in the nation, 4th among Big 12 universities, and 6th among land-grant universities without medical schools.
- The College of Human Ecology is ranked as one of the top 10 Colleges of Human Ecology in the United States by the USDA Food and Agricultural Education Information System.
- The College of Technology and Aviation is one of the top five aviation colleges in the U.S. with opportunities to fly in fixed wing aircrafts, gliders, a helicopter, and a jet.

Holton Hall

- Kansas State University had a record amount of research funding during the 2009-2010 fiscal year. The university received more than $147.6 million from 953 awards. During the past two years, K-State has seen a nearly $30 million increase in research awards despite the recession.
- K-State also was issued 11 patents in 2010 -- the highest number received since the 2003-2004 fiscal year.
- K-State was selected as one of 115 institutions to receive the 2010 Community Engagement Classification from the Carnegie Foundation. The classification honors higher education institutions that collaborate with their larger communities and understand the benefits of a reciprocal exchange of knowledge and resources.
- Kansas State University is the only private or public university in Kansas to make The Princeton Review's guide to green colleges for the third straight year.
- The School of Leadership Studies building has received a LEED gold certification from the U.S. Green Building Council. It's believed this is the first building at a Kansas higher education institution to be LEED certified.
- K-State's office of student financial assistance distributes more than $200 million annually in federal, state, university and private aid. K-State awards more than $16 million annually in scholarships. K-State employs more than 7,000 students who together earn more than $15 million.
- Because of K-State's expertise in animal health and food safety, Manhattan was chosen by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security as the site for the National Bio and Agro-Defense Facility, a federal animal health laboratory. The facility will be adjacent to K-State's campus, bringing hundreds of animal health researchers.

K-State is a national leader among public universities in the total number of Rhodes, Marshall, Truman, Goldwater and Udall scholarship winners. For Truman and Goldwater scholars, K-State is the all-time No. 1 in the nation among public universities. In 2010-2011 K-State students earned Truman, Udall, Goldwater, Fulbright and Hollings scholarships and Boren and Fulbright fellowships.

DR. KIRK SCHULZ

University President - Fourth Year - Virginia Tech '86

Kirk H. Schulz was selected as the 13th president of Kansas State University in February 2009 by the Kansas Board of Regents. In his first two years as president he has spearheaded visionary campus-wide goal-setting to move K-State forward — to be recognized as a Top 50 Public Research University by 2025. At the end of the K-State 2025 planning process the goal is to have a visionary plan that is inclusive of the K-State family, is exciting and innovative, and most importantly, is a plan that has enjoyed campus-wide involvement and participation. Learn more.

Other recent highlights include:

• Fundraising and Development

This past year, fundraising by the Kansas State University Foundation hit a record $107 million.

• Research and Scholarship

Faculty researchers brought in a record high $124.7 million in extramural funding.

• Athletics

Athletics currently has over $100 million of facility improvements being constructed, including the new West Stadium Center at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

• Alumni

With more than 40,000 members, K-State continues to be ranked No. 1 in the Big 12 for the 15th consecutive year for percentage of graduates who are members.

• Government Relations

Worked with the Kansas Delegation, the Office of the Governor, and the Kansas Legislature to secure funding for the construction of the National Bio and Agro-Defense Facility (NBAF).

• Communications and Marketing

Combined web, video, publications, design, news services, photography and marketing into a one-stop shop to provide free services to campus; and launched a new university web-site (k-state.edu)

• Student Life

Maintained K-State's long-time status as the top choice among Kansas high school graduating seniors for fall 2011.

Schulz also holds the Kansas State University Leadership Professorship.

Prior to his appointment as president, Kirk served as vice president for research and economic development at Mississippi State University. He has also served on the faculty at Michigan Technological University and the University of North Dakota.

Kirk is active in several professional societies including the American Institute for Chemical Engineers and the American Society for Engineering Education. In recognition of achievements in the field of Chemical Engineering, he was selected as a Fellow in both the American Society of Engineering Education and the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

He is active in the Boy Scouts of America, and serves on the Executive Board of the Coronado Council. Kirk also serves various roles on the boards of Cereal Food Processors, the Greater Manhattan Community Foundation, the Kansas Bioscience Authority, and the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology. He is married to Dr. Noel Nunnally Schulz, who serves as the Paslay Professor of Electrical Engineering at Kansas State University. They have two sons — Timothy — a senior at Mississippi State University and Andrew — a senior at Manhattan High School. Kirk Schulz's parents are Carl and Judy Schulz, Norfolk, Va.

Since John Currie's introduction as director of athletics on May 18, 2009, K-State's intercollegiate program has experienced a tremendous turn-around and enjoyed an unprecedented combination of athletic, academic and administrative accomplishments and national attention. With the vision of K-State president Kirk Schulz, the re-earned trust of Wildcat fans nation-wide and the efforts of K-State's outstanding coaching staff, Currie's rebuilt senior leadership team has turned an inherited deficit into national acclaim as the NCAA's most financially solvent program, initiated $100 million in comprehensive athletic facility improvements and launched the nation's No. 1 premium digital network all while navigating the tumultuous waters of conference realignment and helping the Big 12 emerge ready for a new era of excellence.

Athletically Currie's tenure has been marked by across the board success. This past year, K-State advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 in volleyball, finished No. 8 in the final BCS football rankings, earned an AT&T Cotton Bowl berth and went on to become the lone Big 12 school and one of only five in the nation to advance to a bowl and win games in the NCAA volleyball, men's basketball and women's basketball tournaments, while high jumper Erik Kynard won his second straight NCAA Outdoor Championship and qualified for the London Olympic games. The 2010-11 athletics year saw a record-number of teams advance to the NCAA postseason as the football team appeared in a bowl game, both basketball and baseball teams made the NCAA Tournament and both track and field teams finish in the Top 20, while piling up a 13-1 head-to-head record against in-state rival KU. Individually the Wildcats sported two NCAA championships in track & field, and women's tennis sensation Petra Niedermyerova was both Big 12 Player and Freshman of the Year.

From implementing a new communications plan the day he was introduced as K-State's 15th Athletics Director, to consistently emphasizing the importance of transparency and accountability as well as the student-athlete and fan experience, Currie has laid a solid foundation for K-State achieving its vision of a model intercollegiate athletics program.

K-State's fundraising efforts have been completely overhauled in Currie's tenure with a new emphasis on personal interaction and communication for Ahearn Fund donors of all levels. K-State supporters immediately responded by increasing gifts more than 50 percent versus the previous year, while fiscal year 2012's 25.8 million total means that cash giving has doubled since Currie's arrival in 2009.

K-State donors have stepped up with 11 private gifts in excess of $1 million since fall 2009, enabling the department to begin construction in 2011 on the $18 million Basketball Training Facility and building momentum towards the department's new comprehensive facility improvement benefitting all 444 Wildcat student-athletes. On April 28, 2012, ground was broken for Phase II of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan thanks to a national effort that has included a $5 million gift, the largest in the history of the department. An essential step in advancing K-State's competitive future, the $75 million West Stadium Center will feature the traditional limestone of K-State's beautiful and historic campus and new amenities for all Wildcat fans including improved ADA access, 200% more general restroom and concession facilities as well as new revenue generating premium seat capacity. A key element of the facility will be a long desired training table to serve the nutritional needs of all K-State teams.

Providing K-State student-athletes a world-class experience is a priority as Currie's staff initiated new events such as the Powercat Choice Awards to showcase K-State's student-athletes and a special graduation reception and ring ceremony to honor their accomplishments on the field and in the classroom. K-State has claimed the Big 12's No. 1 graduation rate among all student-athletes in four of the last five years, while all Wildcat programs are also above the recently increased NCAA .930 APR standard.

Fiscal integrity is another key pillar of the K-State Pledge. Despite inheriting a $2 million projected budget deficit on arrival in June 2009, Currie's staff instead achieved a first-year surplus of $5 million, thanks to new measures promoting efficiency and cost containment, coupled with tremendous fundraising success. In May of 2011 USA Today recognized K-State as one of just 22 athletic departments in the nation to operate in a surplus in 2009-10 and one of only five to do so while decreasing expenses from the previous year. And, in May of 2012, ESPN.com recognized K-State's FY 2011 final budget margin as the nation's leader, ahead of traditional stalwarts Texas, Florida and Michigan.

Currie has negotiated and implemented new contracts for legendary football coach Bill Snyder, 2009 Big 12 Baseball Coach of the Year Brad Hill, K-State's all-time women's basketball and volleyball wins leaders Deb Patterson and Suzie Fritz, respectively, internationally renowned track and field coach Cliff Rovello, and rowing coach Pat Sweeney, who is a six-time Olympian. On March 31, 2012, Currie brought another coach of nationally respected integrity and ability to K-State, introducing 300-game winner Bruce Weber as the Wildcats' 24th head men's basketball coach.

Currie's award-winning Fan Experience staff has created new ticket initiatives that have led to the two largest home-opening football crowds in school history and eight sellout crowds at Bill Snyder Family Stadium under his tenure that rank among the school's Top 20. The Wildcats have also set new season total and average attendance records in baseball, sold a record number of season tickets for volleyball and had the largest average attendance increase in the nation in men's basketball while ranking in the top 25 the past two seasons in women's basketball attendance.

In an effort to support President Kirk Schulz's visionary K-State 2025 plan to move the University into the ranks of the top 50 public research institutions, the department has implemented a gradual phase-out of direct university funding as a source of revenue, enabling K-State to redirect those funds towards critical academic needs.

In August 2011, K-State capitalized on the Big 12's unique retained rights opportunities when it launched an exclusive, high-definition digital television network known as K-StateHD.TV, ensuring that all Wildcat volleyball, baseball, men's and women's basketball home contests are produced and distributed in HD format. The network provides a world-wide connection for K-State fans and alumni and has established the university as an international leader in programming, accessibility and exposure. In fact, K-State took over the No. 1 spot in total subscriptions across the CBS College Sports network, K-State's online network provider, and remains No. 1 almost one year later.

Currie received a signal national honor as one of only two intercollegiate athletics directors named to SportsBusiness Journal's 2011 prestigious Forty Under 40 list of national sports leaders. He was a featured AD panelist at the 2011 SportsBusiness Journal Intercollegiate Athletics Conference in New York and has served as a faculty member of the Division I-A Athletic Director's Institute. Currently a member of the NCAA Division I Administrative Cabinet and the Fiesta Bowl Board of Directors, Currie also serves the Big 12 as a member of the Game Management/Officiating Subcommittee as well as the Championship and Awards committee. Previously he served as president of the SEC development officers and chaired the 2007 CASE national athletic development conference. Currie earned his master's in sports management from Tennessee in 2003 and is a 1993 Wake Forest graduate.

A Model Intercollegiate Athletics Program

- A world-class student-athlete experience.
- Value to our University, community and state.
- Integrity and transparency in relation to ethics, finance and NCAA compliance.
- Championship-level athletic performances.
- The best fan experience in the Big 12 Conference.

OFFICIAL WEBSITE - K-STATESPORTS.COM

The K-State Athletics Department's official website, www.k-statesports.com, provides a wealth of information on each of K-State's varsity sports. With the launching of a new and improved site, operated by the cbssports.com College Network, fans and media can access everything from the most current media guide to game notes, recaps, schedules, rosters, statistics and biographies on k-statesports.com. Special up-close features, all-access clips, behind-the-scenes vignettes and highlights are also on K-StateHD.TV, while fans can also listen to all Wildcat radio broadcasts online, free of charge.

Welcome to K-State! Thank you for your interest in Kansas State football. The K-State Athletics Communications Office has produced the 2012 media guide to assist in your coverage of the Wildcats. Please feel free to contact any member of our staff with questions, requests or concerns. We look forward to working with you throughout the 2012 season.

COVERING KANSAS STATE

Weekly News Conference

Head football coach Bill Snyder hosts a weekly news conference each Tuesday at the Vanier Football Complex beginning with lunch at 12:00 p.m. Snyder will address the media at 12:30 p.m., with requested players available from 1 to 2 p.m. To request players for the weekly news conference, media should contact Assistant AD for Communications Kenny Lannou each Sunday via e-mail - klannou@kstatesports.com. Quotes from the news conference are available on www.k-statesports.com each Tuesday afternoon.

News Conference Video

Broadcast-quality video files for television newscasts of each weekly news conference are available for download on Tuesday afternoons. Contact the K-State Athletics Communications Office for Big 12 FTP access instructions.

Other Availability

Bill Snyder: In addition to Kansas State's Tuesday news conference, head coach Bill Snyder is available to the media each Monday morning on the Big 12 Conference's weekly teleconference. Coach Snyder is also available via telephone for out-of-town media outlets on Wednesdays between 7 and 7:30 p.m.

Assistant Coaches: Media access to assistant coaches is restricted to selected pre- and post-season opportunities during the year. Please contact the K-State Athletics Communications office for information relating to these limited opportunities.

Players: All player interviews MUST be arranged through the K-State Athletics Communications Office. During the season, Wildcat players are available to the media at Tuesday news conferences. No player interviews will be arranged after Tuesday on the week of a game.

GAMEDAY INFORMATION

Working Credentials

Media outlets interested in covering Kansas State football on either a season or individual-game basis are requested to submit all applications for credentials through the K-State Athletics Communications football credential application website. To access the site, please visit www.k-statesports.com/media. K-State is unable to process written requests for football credentials.

Because of inconsistent mail delivery service on tight deadlines, media passes may not be mailed in some instances. If this is the case, passes may be picked up at the Will Call window located on the West Side of Bill Snyder Family Stadium beginning two hours prior to kickoff. Individuals picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable and are issued based on Kansas State's credential policy.

Admission to the press box is for working media only. Only those media with official K-State credentials will be admitted. Friends, spouses, children under the age of 16 and non-workers are not welcome in the press area.

Press Parking

Press parking is limited and will be issued upon request on a first-come, first-served basis as available. Contact the Kansas State Athletics Communications Office regarding details and directions to press parking areas.

Photographers

Only accredited photographers on assignment from recognized media outlets will be issued sideline credentials. In accordance with NCAA rules, no freelance photographers will be admitted to the sidelines or press box photo deck. All photographers must obtain and wear an armband (available in the press box on gamedays) and a media pass to shoot inside Bill Snyder Family Stadium. NCAA rules limit shooting to outside the restraining line enclosing the playing field and outside the 25-yard lines (the team areas). Children under 16-years-old are not permitted on the sideline.

Visiting Radio Stations

To inquire about access to Kansas State's existing radio courtesy lines, visiting radio stations should contact Ben Boyle, K-State Sports Network General Manager, at 785.532.2702. Only those stations recognized as the official originator for the visiting team will be afforded broadcast facilities. For national networks, a rights fee is charged. National networks are also required to protect the broadcast footprint of the K-State Sports Network. Broadcast facilities for national networks are available on the photo deck on a first-come, first-served basis.

Websites

Kansas State reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose website is not affiliated with an official news-gathering organization or publication. Credentials will be issued to official online services of national, over-the-air or cable networks or established publications which are staffed by full-time employees whose primary function is to produce content from the game.

Credentials will not be granted to any online agency operating sites that are in any way affiliated with gambling, or to "freelance" or "fan-based" sites that are not affiliated with a legitimate news gathering organization or publication.

Membership in a writer's association does not automatically qualify an agency for credentials.

Additionally, online services are prohibited from "real time" transmissions of all K-State athletics events. Those rights are co-owned by Kansas State University, Learfield Communications and the Big 12 Conference.

Road Credentials

Obtaining media credentials for K-State road games is the sole responsibility of each media outlet. Credentials are granted at the discretion of the host institution. Please be specific when requesting the type of credential needed. Opponent SID telephone numbers are listed in the Opponent pages of this media guide.

MEDIA SERVICES

Weekly Release

The Kansas State Athletics Communications Office provides its weekly football release via e-mail. Updated notes and statistics are faxed only when specifically requested. Game notes are posted on www.k-statesports.com Monday in both text and PDF (Adobe Acrobat) formats. To receive K-State's weekly notes package via e-mail, please contact Kenny Lannou, Assistant AD for Communications.

Kansas State provides work space for media outlets in the Athletics Communications Office following each Tuesday news conference. The office is located on the north side of Bramlage Coliseum facing Bill Snyder Family Stadium and is fully equipped with wireless internet access. Telephone lines, a copier and archived materials are also available to working media members.

Dev Nelson Press Box

There are four levels to the Dev Nelson Press Box: 2-3) Private Suites; 4) Working Press - print media, home and visiting radio networks, home and visiting coaches' booths, opposing athletics director booth; and 5) Photo Deck - TV booth, radio spots, coaches' video.

Press Box Services

Packets including statistics, pregame notes, flipcards and programs will be available for media in the press box prior to each game. Quarter, halftime and final statistics, a running play-by-play and postgame quotes from coaches and players of both teams also will be provided. Live running statistics are also available throughout the press box and on the Internet at www.k-statesports.com during the game. Final statistics, notes and quotes will be made available to the media following the game and are posted on the K-State Athletics website shortly after the conclusion of each contest.

Internet Access

The Dev Nelson Press Box is equipped with high-speed wireless Internet. Media wishing to file stories electronically as well as photographers may access the network with a wireless internet card. Please contact a member of the K-State Athletics Communications Office for access and usage instructions.

Postgame Policy

Kansas State's locker room is closed. Media in the press box will be asked to submit a list of player requests to Kenny Lannou at the start of the fourth quarter. Coach Snyder and requested players will be available in the team room on the second floor of the Vanier Sports Complex following a brief cooling off period.

Postgame news conferences for visiting teams will take place outside the visitor's locker room.

Postgame Highlights

The Kansas State Athletics Department produces broadcast-quality files of highlights for use in newscasts following all non-televised home games. Please contact the Athletics Communications Office for Big 12 FTP access instructions and information.

Telephones

All media or broadcast crews wishing to have phone lines installed in the press box are responsible for making their own arrangements. Phones may be ordered through KSU Telecommunications at 785.532.7001. Please provide the following address to telephone service personnel when requesting phone line installation: Bill Snyder Family Stadium Press Box, 1700 Kimball Avenue, Manhattan, KS 66502. The stadium press row phone number is 785.539.3423.

Media Meals

A pregame meal is served on the Press Level (4th Floor) of the Dev Nelson Press Box 90 minutes prior to each game. The meal is reserved for working members of the media with proper credentials. Milk and ice cream are also provided for all games by Hiland Dairy of Manhattan.

K-STATE CREDENTIAL POLICY

Credentials and working space for media members are issued at the sole and exclusive discretion of the Kansas State Athletics Communications Office based on the following priorities and guidelines:

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.
2. Daily newspapers regularly covering Kansas State University, the current-game opponent or another Big 12 school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.
3. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on the game. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular sports show receive consideration.
4. Officially recognized Kansas State University student publications or electronic media outlets.
5. Non-daily newspapers reporting on the game.

Other Credential Guidelines

1. With the exception of beat writers covering Kansas State daily, all passes are issued on a game-by-game basis with consideration of available working space.
2. Passes are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to non-working members of a media outlet.
3. Kansas State University and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of organizations that regularly publish gambling information, such as "tout" or "tip" sheets.
4. Credentials are issued to web sites that are affiliated with web sites for national or regional television and news media organizations, e.g. USA Today Online, ESPN.com, SI.com, CBSSportsLine.com, etc., for institutions that are conference members and non-conference opponents, and for the Big 12 Conference.
5. Web sites that sponsor "message boards" or "chat rooms" where people are allowed to post anonymous information or rumors are ineligible for credentials or access to media functions.
6. If a news-gathering medium has an online site that sponsors anonymous forums, it may continue to request credentials under its traditional medium (newspaper, magazine, radio or television), but will not be granted additional passes or access for online staff.
7. Kansas State University reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose web site is not affiliated with a recognized news-gathering organization.
8. All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable.
9. Spouses, dates, non-workers and anyone under 16 years of age are not permitted in the working press area.
10. Restrictions have been made on the usage of internet video of K-State Athletic events. Highlights of game action and/or press conferences from K-State events are limited to and cannot exceed three (3) minutes in length per event.

WYATT THOMPSON

Voice of the Wildcats

The 2012 Kansas Sportscaster of the Year and 2011 recipient of the Hod Hummiston Award, play-by-play announcer Wyatt Thompson serves as the anchor of the K-State Sports Network and returns for his 11th season behind the mic as "Voice of the Wildcats".

K-State's Director of Sportscasting, Thompson also serves as host of the Bill Snyder and Bruce Weber shows on both television and radio. In addition, he is involved in various Catbacker Club, alumni and athletic department functions, frequently serving as a keynote speaker.

Thompson came to K-State from Colorado State, where he was the play-by-play voice for the Rams' football and men's basketball teams for five years. An accomplished broadcaster, he won the Colorado Broadcasting Association award for best play-by-play in 2000. In addition to his duties at CSU, he was also a sports reporter for Clear Channel Denver, the "Countdown to Kick-off" host for the Denver Broncos on KOA Radio and hosted the "Zone Sports Insiders" show on 760 The Zone in Denver.

Thompson started his broadcasting career in 1976 as a sportscaster for various high schools, colleges and universities in Kansas, spending time at stations in Hays and Goodland. He was recognized with the Kansas Association of Broadcasters Play-by-Play Award in 1982 and the Oscar Stauffer Sportscaster of the Year Award in 1989.

STAN WEBER

Analyst

Providing the color analysis is former Kansas State quarterback Stan Weber. Now in his 26th year in the booth, Weber has passed legendary broadcaster Dev Nelson, who called games for 25 years, for the longest tenure of a K-State radio broadcaster.

In addition to these duties, Weber provides color commentary for men's basketball games on the K-State Sports Network as well as FSN Kansas City. A native of Goddard, Kan., he served as captain of the 1984 team and led the Wildcats in rushing while earning Academic All-America honors.

Weber, who graduated magna cum laude, received his bachelor's and master's degrees in accountancy from Kansas State and currently serves as Vice President - CFO of Tower Properties, in addition to his broadcast duties. Weber was also a 2009 inductee into the K-State Accounting Hall of Fame.

Weber and his wife, Nancy (Freshnock), a former K-State cheerleader, have four children (Brittani, Stanton, McKenzi and Landry) and reside in Overland Park, Kan.

MATT WALTERS

Sideline Reporter and Postgame Host

Local radio personality Matt Walters is in his eighth year as the Wildcats' sideline reporter and host of the network's postgame show. A 17-year veteran of K-State baseball broadcasts and host of the popular 'Powercat Gameday' football pre-game show on KMAN and KMKF, he is in his eighth year as a color analyst for the men's basketball team for the K-State Sports Network. He also serves as the public address announcer for the women's basketball team.

A 1992 graduate of Kansas State and native of Russell, Kan., Walters is in his 16th year overall at KMAN.

Along with overseeing many aspects of the station's operation, Walters also hosts 'The Game,' a drive-time sports talk show that airs on KMAN, and serves as the play-by-play voice of the Manhattan High School football and boys' basketball teams.

An award-winning broadcaster, Walters recently received the prestigious Oscar Stauffer Sportscaster of the Year for 2005. Walters and his wife, Megan, live in Manhattan.

KANSAS STATE FOOTBALL ON THE AIR

Wildcat football is on the air! The 2012 football season marks the eighth year of the K-State Sports Network, a joint venture of Kansas State Athletics and Learfield Communications. Learfield Communications is a national leader in collegiate sports broadcasting and marketing, owning the rights to more than 50 of the nation's top collegiate programs.
